A WORD ABOUT COTTAGE GROVE POULTRY FANCIERS AND SOME OF THEIR FAVORITE BREEDS

John Baker's pheasantry attracts much attention.

Arne Bros. are pioneers in the White Leghorn class.

Van Valin is the Buff Orpington expert of Dorena.

Peter Newcomb has become a Rhode Island Red fancier.

Tom Awhrey seems to have a corner on the White Minorca breed.

Robt. Griffin still stands at the head in the White Wyandotte class.

A. L. Wynne has contracted the fever and has tied to Black Minorcas.

Bargain in New Incubators—One "Old Trusty" 160 eggs machine new, never used, and one 50 egg "Petaluma" almost new for sale. Inquire of Mrs. J. S. Benson.

Best Washington Cedar shingles—free of sap, worm holes and knots, constantly on hand. Prices to suit the times. Inquire of ORRIN ROBINSON, Cottage Grove.

For bargains in fruit, stock and farm lands see Scarbrough & Cochran, Creswell, Oregon, or Chas. Cochran, Cottage Grove, Or.

An 80 egg "Old Trusty" incubator. Call on or address H. K. Metcalf. Cheap, for cash. 49¢.

Shingles for sale at Veatch & Lawson's. 26¢

Black Langshangs and Golden Laced Wyandottes are good enough for W. C. Conner.

Mrs. Jas. Porter has taken up the White Orpingtons and they are certainly winners.

Harry Wynne thinks the Silver Laced Wyandottes are good enough for anyone.

W. A. Hemenway is out for sport, and that is the "why" he sticks to the games.

Mr. DesLarzes is going to make the White Wyandotte breeders, set up and take notice.

Conner Bros. have the sturdy farm raised breed of Buff Orpingtons and White Leghorns.

Big white eggs and lots of them is what Mrs. Benson is after and is the reason she sticks to Black Minorcas.

Attorney Alta King is sawing wood, and it is suspected is planning a surprise for the White Rock breeders.

Oliver Veatch will tell you that Partridge Rocks are the only breed known on earth that will lay two eggs each per day.

H. H. Collier of Tacoma, will judge our birds, canaries, parrots and all, but as usual he declines to judge the baby show.

Chas. Hall is going to show local fanciers something new in chickens this fall—Columbian Wyandottes and Buff Langshangs.

White Holland turkeys and Black Minorcas look good to Dick McFarland. He also has some Buff Orpingtons on probation.

Sorry to announce that E. E. Bright, the Houdan and Dorking expert is stepping down and out of it. Poor health being the cause.

Just wait 'til the Silk creek poultry yards perfect that breed of golden barred Rocks, then Rosenberg will have to go back and sit down.

Van Allison says the old Barred Rock is good enough for him. Ben Keeney of Eugene, says Van's head is level and full of horse, as well as chicken sense.

H. K. Metcalf has an incubator running on eggs for which he paid 65 cents each or $7.80 per dozen. The other Buff Orpington and Faverole breeders of the state will have to keep an eye on Metcalf.

Mrs. Thornton is pleased with her Anconas and will be in the show this winter.

Mrs. Warner has a pen of Anconas hard to beat, and her Dorkans are in the same class.

Curtis Veatch's chickens all happen to be red pigs and fox hounds. He makes many sales.

D. B. Chamberlen banks on the Black Javas and S. S. Hamburgs. His incubator is busy warming up a bunch of imported Hamburg eggs.

Ed Conner's mountain view strain of White Rocks and White Leghorns will stand the test. His wife raises the chickens and Ed carries off the honors.

There is no use of any of the Rhode Island Red people competing with Mrs. Mary Walker. Her birds develop into broilers and fryers in three weeks.

Harry Brehaut is crossing Houdans with wood-peckers, in an endeavor to establish a breed which will thrive on a ration of saw-dust. Economy in feed is his slogan.

F. H. Rosenberg says there is only one breed of chickens—business chickens—on earth, viz. Buff Cochins. He has a fine young brood of them, which he is feeding on pastries and sweetmeats.

The greatest "hatch" ever recorded in Oregon began Sunday at the Krebs, Reynolds & Brown Poultry Farm at Chemeketa, when the first of 6,000 downy chickens stepped out of an egg after three weeks patient incubation.

Joe DuBrulle had his prize bird, "Buckeye Bill" posing before the camera the other day, that his picture might appear in the Salem Poultry Journal. Mr. DuBrulle is selling all the Buckeye eggs he can get his hands on at $5 per setting.

Chas. Walker received a shipment of 50 pure bred White Leghorn day old chicks from San Jose, Thursday. The little fellows came through in good condition, but were setting up a great cry for feed. Charley says when he took them out of the box they flapped their wings and crowed. He further states that there are birds in the bunch that will score as high as 98 and 99 points. The other White Leghorn breeders had just as well put their birds in the pot.

Paid $30 For 15 Eggs.

E. Wimberly, proprietor of the Casa Grand Poultry Yards, has been advised by Ernest Kellerstrass of the Chrystal White Orpington's Poultry Farm of Kansas City, Mo., that his order for a setting of 15 eggs from the foregoing famous strain of chickens has been received and the order shipped. These are from the wonderful hen known world-wide as "Peggy" and whom the owner values at $10,000 and are the first of their kind coming to this city, so far as is known. They are wonders as a winter layer and the most expensive birds on the market today. With this addition to his chicken pen Mr. Wimberly will certainly strike a high standard along poultry lines.—Roseburg Review.
