DELLA GILBERT ON

MARY BAKER EDDY

New York, June 7.—The World has printed the following, proclaiming Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy to be "either dead or a helpless, mindless puppet," and charging the managers of the mother church with falsehood, trickery and fraud.

Mrs. Della M. Gilbert, in an open letter to all Christian Scientists asks their co-operation in a campaign of exposure and purification. Mrs. Gilbert claims to hold a foremost position among Christian Scientists of this city and to be the mouthpiece of an influential element pledged to her support.
Her open letter issued to the press of the country, read:

"To All Christian Scientists:
"The Christian Science church is without a spiritual leader in the flesh.

"Those in control of the mother church in Boston and that house of mystery in Brookline—the falsely avowed home of a living and thriving Mary Baker G. Eddy—cannot successfully refute this assertion.

"As a preliminary step I ask you to confer with me without delay, either in person or by letter.
To each of you I will fully reveal every fact in my possession bordering on conditions which surround the fiction of leadership maintained at Boston and Brookline.

"I will give you every detail of my recent investigations in Boston and Brookline; of my conferences with the directors of the mother church, of my dealings with a man known as Mrs. Eddy's private secretary; and of the pressure which has been brought to bear upon me to keep silence.

"I will tell you also of an appeal made to me in the parlor of a leading Boston hotel by the chief executive of the mother church, who wept like a woman when I refused to pledge myself to silence.
There were witnesses to this interview, and every word is carefully preserved.

"I told that agent of the frightened tricksters in control at Boston to see and talk with the hidden leader was all that I asked. It was then that he wept. I had asked the one impossible thing.

"The time has come when Christian Science must purge itself of dishonesty. Mary Baker G. Eddy now lives in history only. The fetish of her name is all that remains.

"That name, honored, by us all has become the breastwork of falsity and fraud. I say this in deepest loyalty to the cause of Christian Science and truest devotion to the memory of the woman through whom God revealed truth and gave to the world the science of healing.

"But the hour is at hand for a reorganization of the faith on lines of honesty, unity and purity.
There must be a living spiritual head, not a fetish, manipulated by schemers working solely for financial results. Earnestly pleading for your co-operation in the important duty which now confronts every honest Christian Scientist, I am, Faithfully yours,
"DELLA M. GILBERT."

MRS. EDDY'S REPLY.
Boston, June 8.—Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, at Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts, has given the United Press a signed statement addressed "To Whom it May Concern." The statement says:

"I have the pleasure to report to one and all of my beloved friends and followers that I exist in the flesh and am seen daily by the members of my household and those who have appointments with me.

"Above all this fustian, either denying or asserting the personality or presence of Mary Baker G.
Eddy, stands the eternal fact of Christian Science and the history of its discovery and founder. It is self-evident that the discoverer of an eternal truth cannot be a temporal fraud."

The statement was given out at Chestnut Hill on behalf of Mrs.
Eddy by her attendants, the head of the Christian Scientists keeping her word that she would never again allow herself to be publicly interviewed.

I felt tired and languid. I became discouraged as none of the remedies I used gave me relief. I at last hap-

A SUNNY DAY ON YUKON AVENUE, A-Y-P, EXPOSITION, SEATTLE.

Yukon Avenue is one of the many ways leading to the Court of Honor of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition. It leads from the Cascades down to one of the many entrances to the Pay Streak and directly to the "café center" of the Fair Grounds.

On the left of the picture a facade of the European Exhibits Building shows. On the right is a corner of the Palace of Agriculture. In the distance, and across the Cascades, is to be seen the Oriental Building.
All of these structures were completed before December 1, 1908.
They are of the conventional exposition type of construction—plaster staff over heavy wooden framework.
