"Where You Do Better"

The Summer Sun.

Like the violet your eye,
Like gold your tresses sweet,
Like pearls your teeth—but tell me why
Your nose is like the beet.

First Sale of 1909 Hops.

Probably the first sale of 1909 hops this year from the grower to the dealer was made in Eugene yesterday, when Jesse Easton sold his lot of 15 bales of Early Fugles to the E. Clemens-Horst company through James Hayes of Junction. The price is private, but it was at a less figure than 20 cents.—Register.

A Good Suggestion.

There are so many hunting parties going into the woods after deer that we cannot refrain from again advising them to wear red shirts or sweaters, so as to prevent being shot. The ordinary olive-colored or brown duck is so like a deer that it is no wonder there are so many accidents.—Register.

If a fly lights on a woman's face, should her husband swat it then and there? Which would be better to let the fly stay on his wife's face, scattering typhoid germ gravy all over her countenance, or to swat it hard, and perhaps knock the woman down in doing it? These, and other conditions as perplexing are bound to arise in this anti-fly crusade, and Dr. Crumbine, who is making the fly his platform in his political ambitions, should give rules governing conduct.

Hydraulic Engineer Roberts, of Medford, is in Cottage Grove today conferring with the council regarding the Lang Creek pipe line. He says Medford's 23 miles of 16 inch pipe line is nearly completed and that it will give that city excellent water and an ample supply for years to come. The system will cost that town over $200,000. Cottage Grove proposes to lay 18 miles of 12 inch pipe from Lang creek which with our present supply will give this city almost as much water as Medford will get through its far more expensive system.

FRANK ANGEL DIED OF INJURIES

Frank Angel, of Saginaw, whom the Leader reports on its first page as seriously injured in the collapse of the Saginaw flume bridge Monday, died this Wednesday morning at 2 o'clock, in the Eugene hospital of his injuries and the severe nervous shock attendant thereto. Mr. Angel was a bright, energetic and most exemplary young man and came here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Angel from North Carolina about two years ago, the family having bought a pretty home at Saginaw where they reside. The remains will arrive in Cottage Grove from Eugene on this Wednesday afternoon train and will be interred in the Masonic cemetery, where funeral services will be conducted by Rev. W. J. Gardner.

Sears Roebuck & Co., the Chicago mail order millionaires, announce it is said, that owing to the passage of the federal pure food and drug law they will discontinue the grocery and drug business, says an exchange. It was not the passage of the law by congress, but the enforcement of the law by the agents of Uncle Sam and of this state that drove them out of business. The fact that they cannot sell drugs and groceries successfully if the law is enforced certainly demonstrates that their customers in the past got much adulterated food. It is also evidence of the general poor quality of goods sold by the mail order house.

The clear, full, brilliant tone of Columbia Indestructible Cylinder Records is the best reason for their growing popularity.
