"Where You Do Better"

WILL ENLARGE GROCERY STORE

Metcalf & Brund, the enterprising grocers find it necessary to provide more room to accommodate their constantly increasing stock and their growing business. With this object in view they have leased the building adjoining their store formerly known as the photograph gallery, which they will use as a ware room, while the partition will be removed from their present store room and the shelving and counters continued back the full length of the building, which will nearly double the shelving capacity of their store. The old front of their store will also be removed and will be replaced with modern plate glass windows which will give them very neat and commodious quarters. Fair and courteous treatment of customers, good brands of goods and reasonable prices, is the secret of this firm's success.

Death of Mrs. Clarence Morss.

The many friends of Mrs. Clarence Morss were shocked to learn of her death Monday morning at 10 o'clock after a very brief illness. A pretty baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Morss Saturday, but as a result of a weak heart the little one died Monday morning at 6 o'clock and the mother died a few hours later. The funeral will not occur until late this week, in order that distant relatives may attend. An obituary notice will appear in Friday's Leader.

An Interesting Sermon.

A large congregation assembled at the M. E. church Sunday evening to listen to Rev. Sutcliffe's discourse on the most popular personage in the bible. Quite a number cast their ballots at the door for the bible character which they considered the most popular, with the following result: Paul 21, Abraham 10, Solomon 6, Moses 6, David 3, Jacob 2, Joseph 1, John 1, Jonah 1. Rev. Sutcliffe stated that from a modern viewpoint popularity was measured from the following a person has or the number of people who pattern after them, therefore in his judgment the penitent rebel who hung by Christ on his cross, deserves the appellation. The speaker went on to say that a large majority of those outside of the church expect to live careless lives and then at the end expect to ask for pardon and be forgiven. He said a young man once remarked to him that if four men were going to the same town or city and one went to the depot an hour before train time, another a half hour, the third five minutes and the fourth barely caught the steps of the rear coach, if it were not true that each would reach his destination at the same time and under the same conditions. He answered by saying that so far as the moral and spiritual life is concerned, you had just as well contend that a primary student was as well prepared as the graduate of the eighth grade to enter college. He admitted however, that an eleventh hour penitent might enter the pearly gates, but could not atone for a wasted life, and was not prepared to enjoy the glory that awaited him as was the man who for years had been growing in grace. Rev. Sutcliffe employed many convincing and appropriate illustrations to emphasize his argument and the application was interesting, instructive and convincing.

WILL OPEN NEW GROCERY STORE

Messrs. Geo. Kerr and John Silsby of Ashland, say that Cottage Grove looks so good to them that they will open a well selected new stock of groceries and crockery in the building now occupied by Cook & Son just as soon as this firm moves into their new quarters in the Woodward brick. Messrs. Kerr & Silsby have secured a lease on the Porter brick which they will occupy and expect to be ready for business by the 20th of this month. They each have also leased cosy homes in west Cottage Grove, one the new Lurch cottage and the other the new Willard cottage just across the street into which they will move their families just as soon as the buildings are completed. Mr. Kerr and Mr. Silsby are brother-in-laws, the former being well and favorably known here where he was connected with the big mercantile establishment conducted by the Pacific Timber Co., for several years. Mr. Kerr has a host of friends here who are delighted to know that he and his estimable wife, who is also well-known and popular here, will return to Cottage Grove. Mr. Silsby is a retired S. P. railroad engineer, with which company he has been connected for 20 years. He is a very genial, affable gentleman and will make a splendid associate for Mr. Kerr. The Leader joins in extending these worthy gentlemen and their estimable families a cordial welcome to Cottage Grove and wishes them success in their business enterprise.

The city of Forest Grove is spending the $70,000 voted for a gravity supply of water, while Hillsboro, only six miles away, has sold its city pumping plant to a corporation. All of which shows that there are different ways of doing the same thing in enterprising communities.
