

We are headquarters for High Top Shoes; have in stock a complete assortment of the celebrated Hamilton, Brown Shoe Co.'s and Washington Shoe Co.'s Union Factory made High Tops. They have no equal for durability, workmanship and quality of materials used in their construction. Made on slightly conforming lasts, that do not hurt the feet.

Rees-Wallace Co.

"Where You Do Better"

At the M. E. Church Sunday.

Something for everybody at the Methodist church on Sunday. Bible school at 10 a. m. Classes for all ages. Public worship at 11 o'clock with sermon by Robert Sutcliffe on "The God of Three Men." Solo by Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle. Epworth League rally at 6:30 p. m., conducted by pastor. Every young person in the parish should be present at this gathering. Peoples popular service at 7:30, subject of address "What Would Jesus be in Cottage Grove in 1909?" Most interesting theme. These meetings are rapidly growing in public favor. Large chorus choir leads the singing both morning and evening. A hearty welcome to all.

The remains of Ira C. Clark, who died as a result of injuries sustained by falling from a flume near Dunsmuir last week were buried in the Masonic cemetery at this place Tuesday, Rev. Robt. Sutcliffe, conducting the services. The mother of the unfortunate young man, Mrs. W. A. Clark extends her heartfelt thanks to those of this city who showed her so many kindnesses during her brief visit here.

Harvest Home Program.

Sunday-school Rally Day service at the Christian church, 10 a. m., Sunday, Oct. 10.

Two songs by the school. Reading of the scriptures, Dan Wood.

Solo, "His Love Abideth Forever," by Miss Jordan Lilly.

Three minute talks: "Kinds of Soil," Prof. Iulow. "Sowing the Seed," Ed Pinerty. "Patient Waiting," Mrs. Ida Caldwell.

"Reaping," Mrs. Ora Hemenway. "Sunbeam Song," by the Primary Department.

Solo, Helen Baker. Procession of all departments of the Sunday-school, laying offerings at the foot of the cross.

Subject of the morning discourse, "This Grace Also."

Evening, "Is There a Heaven or a Hell?"

Everybody welcome to all the services of the day.

W. A. ELKINS, Pastor.

For Sale.

A good brown mare 9-years-old, weight 1100 pounds. Enquire at Bert Denham's residence, Rowe river road, 1 mile east of town. 2t

Church Notes.

An enthusiastic meeting of the official board of the M. E. church was held in the church parlors Tuesday evening, at which time it was voted to increase the minister's salary to $1100 per annum with parsonage furnished. A printing and advertising fund was also made available for Rev. Sutcliffe to use at his discretion and it is understood an aggressive campaign will be carried on. The choir will be increased in numbers and one general offering every two months will be donated to the choir with which to provide new books and music. The music committee has chosen Mrs. Sutcliffe as organist and we understand she has kindly agreed to serve in this capacity. Music will be made a special feature of the regular Sunday services.

Churchill & Markley will move their confectionery and billiard parlors into the corner building on Main and Fifth street recently vacated by the Arcade Electric theater.

The recent rain has started the grass to growing and pastures are becoming green again.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Eggs are cash or its equivalent. All kinds of hot drinks at the Wave.

Oysters in any style at the Wave.

Found—A gentleman's kid glove. Call at this office.

Bran $1.50 per hundred pounds at Flour Mill.

You often hear employers say: "I wish I could get a good man."

Good folding go-cart for sale cheap. Apply to Mrs. Harry Wynne.

The Wave has the latest up-to-date electric heat urn for dispensing hot drinks.

Wanted—Three hundred people to attend the Methodist church on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Richmond, who was stricken with paralysis recently, is able to walk about her home again.

F. H. Rosenberg went to Roseburg Thursday to look after business for the Brown Lumber Co.

Dr. Lowe, the optician, will be in Cottage Grove, next Monday, Oct. 11, Yoncalla 12 to 3 o'clock.

G. H. Tyson, the merchant, was confined to his home several days this week with an attack of the grip.

"The question what would Jesus be in Cottage Grove in 1909?" answered in the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Fred Bartels went to Eugene Thursday to accept the position of meat cutter for the meat market firm of Wing & Campbell.

A new modern cottage is being erected for W. B. Cooper on his lot adjoining Mike Keblebeck's home in the McFarland addition.

Mrs. F. D. Wheeler and Mrs. Roy Woods went to Hood River Monday to attend the state convention of the W. C. T. U. now in session.

Mrs. W. N. Cox, of Baldwin, Illinois, a sister of J. T. Short, of this city, left this morning for Los Angeles, Cal. They will return by way of New Orleans.

Mrs. Nauey Stewart, of Pullman, Wash., after visiting the Fair at Seattle, and her sister at Hoquiam, Wash., is here to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Jackson.

A Milton man paid $150 for 12 young Buff Rock chickens in St. Louis. Frank Rosenberg of Cottage Grove would have sold him a bunch of better buffs for the same money.

John Durham has purchased and is moving the two old buildings from Venske's lot on Main street to his lots on south Third street opposite his residence. Mr. Venske will begin the construction of his new brick just as soon as these old buildings are out of the way.

Owing to the time given to Francis McHenry and Clarence Partlow, being so brief, at the Arcade Theater, they gave up their Thursday evening's entertainment. However, they state, Cottage Grove will receive her share of attention in their eastern booster tour this winter under the directions of Bonville's Magazine.

There was a special meeting of the Woman's Club held at the Commercial Club parlors last Thursday afternoon. The following delegates were elected to attend the State Federation which convenes at Forest Grove, October 14, 15 and 16: Mrs. A. L. Briggs, Mrs. N. R. Compton, Mrs. H. H. Veatch and Mrs. H. O. Thompson.

Mrs. Ben R. Job and Miss Emma Job, wife and daughter, of Mayor Job of Cottage Grove, arrived Monday for the wedding of Miss Dorothy Parker and H. F. Coffin, which will be celebrated tonight. Miss Job leaves tomorrow to take up her studies at the University of Oregon at Eugene. She is a distinctly handsome brunette and is much admired wherever she goes. —Portland Journal, Oct. 6.

Mill Feed $1.15 a sack at the Flour Mill.

The man who grows up in his native town is regarded as a boy by his elders until he is well started down the declivity of life that ends in a hole. The stranger who comes into a place is more often pushed to the front than the young man who has grown up with the town. This is the reason why so many young men become dissatisfied with their home surroundings and long to cast their lot in other quarters.

Olympic process rolled barley, 75 pound sacks, the cleanest and best, $1.25 per sack, at Spray-Wynne Co's.

A NEW LINE Ladies' Shirtwaists JUST ARRIVED.

We have a new and complete line of Ladies' Shirt Waists.

White Silk Waists, Net Waists, White Tailored Waists, and Silk Moire Waists in Champagne, Cream and Black.

We are agents for the Ladies' Home Journal Patterns.

Friday and Saturday Special—Dress Goods valued at 50c for 29c.

LURCH'S

Royal Intermediate School Items.

The Chorus Club of the Royal Intermediate School is preparing the cantata King Saul to be given at Cottage Grove in the near future.

The Misses Belva and Mina Innis recently spent a few days visiting their sister, Miss Grace Innis at the school home.

Nobody should miss hearing the phonograph records which were made at the home last Saturday evening.

Mr. W. W. Gildersleeve and Miss Lena Burcham called at the school one day last week.

In order to keep even with the boys the matron at the school is taking German.

Miss Violet Brown was a guest at the home of G. E. Johnson last week.

G. E. Johnson made a flying trip to the Grove Saturday evening.

Miss Ruth Miller has been visiting her sister Mrs. Alfred Wheeler.

Archie Wilson has gone to Portland to have his eyes treated.

A new student was added to our number Monday.

Roy Wheeler is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Booth visited the school Tuesday.

Alvan T. Crandall has purchased two lots of J. M. Comer on Wall street which are located between Mr. Comer's residence and Mrs. Gray's cottage. Mr. Crandall will build a woodshed on the premises at once and will defer the building of the planned residence until the building season opens next spring. This will fill up another gap on west Wall street.

J. W. Kayser, of Chickasha, Okla., and wife are spending a few days with the former's uncle, W. T. Kayser and wife of this city, while on their return home from a visit to the Seattle Exposition. Mr. Kayser is editor and proprietor of the daily paper published at Chickasha. The Leader was favored with a fraternal visit.

Poultry fanciers should begin to carefully feed and groom a pen (four females and a male) of their best specimens for Cottage Grove's second annual poultry show to be held early in January.

Virgil White has sold his machine shop interests at Portland and will return to Cottage Grove. He will occupy his cozy home on Fourth street about the middle of this month.

E. C. Conner left some Gloria Munda apples at the Leader office this week, grown on his mountain farm, which measure 14 inches in circumference and weigh 22 ounces.

Sherman Shortridge came near losing his left eye this week by a piece of steel flying from a sledge hammer at the Brown Lumber Co's, mill and striking him in the eye.

Will Keen of Marion county, has moved his family on the Harding farm near this city which he has leased from his sister, Mrs. F. M. Harding.

Chas. Hedrick, of Divide, is receiving medical treatment in this city at the private lodging house of Mrs. Emerson on Fourth street.

Dr. Lowe will be in Cottage Grove one day only, next Monday, Oct. 11th. Don't fail to have him test your eyes for glasses.

Miss Ivadene McGee has been seriously ill from a complicated attack of tonsillitis at her home west of this city this week.

DIAMOND RING AND GOLD

WATCH GIVEN AWAY

The Conditions

Here is a fine opportunity on Thanksgiving Day in for some bright energetic girl November 1909, to receive without cost, except a little the $80 Diamond Ring, and energetic effort, an $80 diamond ring or a $25 gold watch, ladies' or gents' size, both to be supplied by local jewelers. the next highest vote to receive the $25 gold watch. The result of the vote will be announced every Friday through the Leader. Every coupon clipped from the Leader will count as five votes. It is now up to the boys' and girls, young or old to get busy and secure a prize which is worthy their best effort, both of which are fully guaranteed by our local jewelers, and will be placed on exhibition in their show windows in due time.

With every cash in advance subscription to the Leader at $1.50 per year will be given 150 votes or 100 votes for every dollar secured on delinquent subscriptions. The Leader will also issue 100 votes for every dollar's worth of job printing turned into this office during the contest, the boy or girl having the largest number of votes

COUPON

GOOD FOR FIVE VOTES

For _____
In The Cottage Grove Leader Prize Contest.

LEADER PUBLISHING CO.

Voting Place.—Votes Must be Cast in Ballot Box Provided in Leader office.

Leader Publishing Company

Still We Grow and there is good reason for our steady and satisfactory growth. The fact that we have not only held our business but practically doubled it with all competition, indicates that the public mind has not lost sight of the essential requirements that make a bank sound and safe. The principles of conservative banking that have governed our development in the past will shape our future policy.

Start an account with us and grow with a GROWING PROGRESSIVE BANK

Capital & Surplus $30,000 FIRST NATIONAL BANK Profits $17,000

They fit any machine, and outwear any other records in the world. Double value for your money! Call in! Get a catalog!

The Grove Studio