"REX" GIVES POINTERS ON CEMENT WALK WORK

Rex Gleason would have it generally known that he is still in the concrete working business and prepared to lay concrete sidewalk with Columbia river sand finish, and guarantee the same in written contract for a period of at least two years. Mr. Gleason is a permanent resident of our city and is here to fulfill and make good his contracts. His prices, owing to his ability to buy material right, are lower than ever before. Don't fail to see him before contracting your concrete sidewalk or other similar work. He has equipped himself with a modern power concrete mixer and is prepared to complete your work better and in less time than anyone in Cottage Grove. He wants to talk concrete with you. Mr. Gleason says it is impossible to build a good, smooth, permanent concrete sidewalk from the materials at hand here, owing to the sand being of a decayed quartz formation, therefore to insure permanency in his work he only uses for surfacing the Columbia river granite sand.

BACK GIVES OUT

Plenty of Cottage Grove Readers Have This Experience.

You tax the kidneys—overwork them—They can't keep up the continual strain. The back gives out—it aches and pains. Urinary troubles set in. Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney pills. Cottage Grove people tell you how they act.

Walter Rogers of Cottage Grove, Oregon, says: "I suffered for some time from pains in my back and sides caused by disordered kidneys. I thought the trouble would soon disappear, but instead it grew gradually worse. The kidney secretions were so frequent that I was forced to rise many times during the night and the passages were attended with pain. I tried nearly every remedy that was brought to my attention and also used liniments and plasters but did not succeed in finding any relief. I then read of Doan's Kidney pills and was so impressed that I procured a box at Benson's Pharmacy. I received relief from the first and was so much encouraged that I continued until a complete cure was effected." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Now therefore, in the name of the State of Oregon and in compliance with said execution and order of sale, I will, on Wednesday the 3rd day of November 1909, between the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m. to-wit: At one o'clock p. m. on said day, at the southwest door of the County Court house in Eugene, Lane County, Oregon, offer for sale, for cash, subject to redemption, all of the above named defendants right, title and interest in and to the above described real property. 25-30

DRAIN'S EDITOR SEES OUR CITY.

Cottage Grove having been on our mind for some time in the hope of making it a visit, we accordingly 'took the car' on Sunday last and landed there in good time. As we had understood it was a lovely sort of place, and infested with Hoo Hoos, Elks and even Woodmen of the World, we chose Sunday as a quiet day, and fortunately arrived in time for dinner. Being not much acquainted, we walked up the street from the station in a careless sort of way, taking note of everything and everybody. Though it was Sunday there were a good many people on the streets, and they didn't all look as though they had been to church. We noticed several new buildings being built, some of them brick, and a general air of thrift was apparent. We met a gentleman whom we accosted for information, and we were in it, for he knew all about the place. Said he was an old resident, and was connected with some of the most distinguished families in the south, had been in the war, and had held every office from a Provost Marshal to a deputy Sheriff. We found every body ready to talk about the new county of Nesmith, and were expecting big things, and the amount of information that could be obtained, whether true or false, was astonishing. The Hoo Hoos had a jollification the night before, and while it is said they did not paint the town red, black cats were in every hamlet, and kittens were born by the dozens. The price of lumber was fixed for a generation, if left to them.

We hung our hats upon a peg and dined at the Hotel Oregon. We sat down to a good dinner, nicely served and well patronized. A good hotel is an attraction in every town, and the Cottage Grove people see the need of it. We noticed a disposition to improve the side streets, and this should be followed up by the Commercial Club. By the way we understand there were two Clubs, one controlled by the ladies and is a social affair and the other is trying to make it go in some way without them.

The gathering at the station on the arrival of the afternoon train from Portland, was large, and as the train was late people had a chance to put in good work in the talking line. And so we journeyed home, glad to get back to quiet Drain nestled among the hills, for it is like the voice of many waters.—Drain Nonpareil.
