CHANGE IN LEADER MANAGEMENT.

With this issue of the Leader D. J. DuBruille severs his business relations with the paper, having transferred his stock in the amount of a one-half interest in the paper and plant to his associate, W. C. Conner, who again becomes owner and sole manager of the paper and business connected therewith.

Mr. DuBruille is not fully decided on his future movements, but he will probably engage in some other occupation in this city.

The business and social relations existing between the writer and Mr. DuBruille during our two years management of the Leader have been most agreeable and it is with a feeling of deep regret that fate has decreed the severance of these pleasant, mutual ties. The writer has found Mr. DuBruille to be a practical all-around newspaper man, a painstaking business manager, a most companionable associate and a gentleman in every sense of the word.

The change will effect in no wise the principles and policies of the Leader. As in the past it will be fearless and outspoken upon all issues effecting the welfare of the citizens of Cottage Grove, and the public generally. It will be no secret as to where the Leader stands on important and vital, local, state and national questions. However, while outspoken in opposition to all manners of corruption, law violation and immorality, the Leader will be found broad and liberal, at all times according to others the free exercise of their rights and privileges and at the same time holding due respect for their honest convictions, although at variance with our own.

The writer has grown up from boyhood in this community, is familiar with its needs and requirements, and has been connected with this paper a greater portion of the time since its establishment 21 years ago. All of our interests are here, home and business, hence it is natural to suppose that the Leader will be found at all times true to the interests of Cottage Grove and the vast rich territory tributary thereto, embracing the proposed Nesmith county.

During the past two years the business and circulation of the Leader has grown greatly, much to the gratification of the management. Many substantial improvements have been made in the plant and paper and not content to stand still, greater improvements are in contemplation for the ensuing year, providing a continuation of the same liberal share of patronage is accorded the paper by the enterprising business and professional men of Cottage Grove and vicinity, as well as our large and growing family of readers.

Since Cottage Grove has already been conspicuously "put on the map," the next greatest ambition of the Leader and its most earnest and vigorous endeavor will be to put Nesmith county on the map, thereby contributing substantially toward making a greater Cottage Grove and a greater Oregon, a reality.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its ingredients on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.—take the advice received and be well.

With The Lumbermen.

Fred Russell of the Chambers Lumber Co. left the early part of the week for Chicago and other eastern points, on a business trip.

We notice that since the recent concatenation of Hoo Hoo at this place a number of the kittens are wandering around with chests puffed out and the black cat emblem very much in evidence.

W. T. Hankins of the Row River Lumber Co. was in Portland last week and while there conferred with prominent lumbermen who gave very flattering reports of the improved conditions of the lumber business in the east.

C. W. June has returned home from Marcola where he has been doing the brick work about the new boilers which the Fisher Bros. have just installed in their saw mill plant at that place. Mr. June says the boys have a model lumbering plant at Marcola.

At a banquet of the members of Hoo Hoo held at the Commercial Club in Portland last Friday night, G. A. Griswold of the Fall City Lumber Co. was recommended to the supreme snark for the position of vice-generat snark for the northern district of Oregon. F. H. Rosenberg, our esteemed townsman, holds this position for the Southern Oregon district.

Fine Products.

J. Hardy Crow and wife, of Lorane, were in town today and favored the Leader with a pleasant call. Mr. Crow left a few products of his farm on exhibition in this office, including a sunflower 14 inches in diameter, some yellow field corn ears 12 inches in length and sweet corn ears 10 inches in length and some fine yellow and white dent corn. The Lorane valley is alright.

R. F. Eakin and G. R. Masters of Waynesburg, Pennsylvania, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. DuBruille, the former being a cousin of Mrs. DuBruille and the latter his traveling companion. These young men came to the coast by way of Canada and Alberta, visited the Seattle Exposition, Eastern Oregon and from Cottage Grove will go south as far as Los Angeles and return home by way of Salt Lake, Denver and St. Louis. They are enjoying the trip immensely.

The Creswell Commercial Club has extended an invitation to the Cottage Grove Commercial Club officers and members to visit Creswell Saturday as guests of the Creswell Club upon the occasion of a visit of Tom Richardson, the Portland booster, who will deliver an address on "How to Boost for Oregon." There will be a large attendance from this city.

At the Arcade next Monday and Tuesday evenings will be presented the fine original copyrighted pictures taken at the ringside of two famous fistic battles, Summers vs Britt and McGovern vs Gaus. Clearest and best fight pictures ever shown. Admission, 10 and 15 cents.

A severe snow storm swept over the Lake states and the Dakotas this week. Summer weather continues in old Oregon.

MARRIED.

STRANGE-MUNDY—On Tuesday, October 12, 1909, at the residence of the bride's mother, at 176 East Fourteenth street, by Dr. H. L. Nave, John V. Strange, a salesman of Portland, to Miss Mary A. Mundy, a teacher of this city.

They left on the Cottage Grove local for Portland, where they will reside.—Register.

Miss Mundy served as teacher in the Cottage Grove schools for several terms and she has many friends here who extend congratulations, and best wishes for her future happiness.

PACKED HOUSES GREET "LENA RIVERS"

With a house packed to capacity and many unable to gain entrance last evening, the second performance of a four night's run of "Lena Rivers," repeated its great success at Bly's theatre. The old-fashioned love story, written by Mary J. Holmes, was presented by a clever cast, and judged by the plaudits of the audience, this great emotional drama lost nothing in the telling.

Briefly told, it is the story of an orphan girl, "Lena Rivers," who, with her grandmother, is taken into the home of wealthy relatives, where they are made extremely unhappy by the sneers of Caroline, a cousin of Lena's, who frequently taunts her with the shadow that hangs over her parentage.

A guest at the home is Durward Belmont, with whom Caroline is in love, but who prefers Lena. Later guests are Mr. and Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Graham being the mother of Durward Belmont. Mr. Graham proves to be the father of Lena, having married her mother under the name of Rivers, and never knowing that she had died leaving a daughter, till he is struck by her resemblance to her dead mother, whose picture he carries. His first marriage he has kept a secret from his wife. His fatherly kiss at parting is seen by Durward, who grows jealous of his stepfather and only the timely interference of Cousin John prevents trouble and all ends happily.

Annie Girard, as "Granny" does some fine work, while Bessie Canwright is dainty little Lena Rivers. Jack Bronner as John Livingston, Jr., is extremely clever and makes one regret that there are not enough pretty cousins to go round. Everett Gallagher, as Durward Belmont, is one of the strong characters of the play, while Flossie Fay as Caroline Livingston, interprets her part with such exactness as to receive hisses and cat calls. Melville Yahme, as Joel Slocum and Roy Ford as the colored servant, were clever.

The electric specialties, introduced at the last were very effective.—Salem Statesman.

The "Lena Rivers" company will appear at the Cottage Grove armory Monday evening. Reserve your seats at the Wave.
