Rev. Groat met with a serious accident by falling on the sharp corner of a box last Tuesday injuring one or more ribs. He is suffering very much from the accident.

Whether you handle the pasteboards or not you cannot afford to miss hearing Robert Sutcliffe relate "The Romance of a Pack of Cards" at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Mrs. Herbert Eakin was down from Cottage Grove yesterday to attend the Strange-Mundy nuptials. She went on to Salem on the local to visit relatives there.—Tuesday's Eugene Register.

Billie Edwards has completed his development work in his Peek-a-boo mines in Bohemia for the season and returned to this city. His property is showing up exceedingly well and is now classed among the valuable mines of this rich mining camp.

The corrugated steel ceiling is being put in the new Woodward brick and the contractor is ready for the plate glass windows. Warren McFarland has moved his cigar store into his room in the new brick, guarding the open windows at night.

Mrs. Fees, Grandma Fees and the former's sister, Mrs. Gamble, have been guests of Cottage Grove friends this week, while on their way to Klamath Falls, where Rev. Fees has been assigned for the ensuing year. He was formerly pastor of the M. E. church at this place.

Walker Young and a niece, Mrs. Stewart, and Mrs. Bud Gillispie, Misses Mamie and Mary Roberts, all of Eugene, called upon Rev. C. H. Wallace Thursday afternoon who is seriously ill at his home in this city. They are all friends of the family. Mr. Young and Rev. Wallace have been almost life long friends.

C. F. Coffman, the genial barber and his companions, John and Charles Wright returned home Wednesday from their hunt on the Middle Fork where they were successful in bagging three fine deer and a large cougar. Four days were spent at Kitson Springs and the boys report a fine time.

Our old friend, Dr. Lowe, was looking after the optics of his many patients at this place the first of the week. Upon his regular visit to the Leader office he exclaimed, "Papers may come and papers may go, but the Leader goes on forever." The Leader has been boosting faithfully for Cottage Grove for more than 20 years and expects to keep up the work for many years to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Barnberg of Medford, the former a cousin of Mrs. Orrin Robinson and the latter a great niece of J. B. Lewis, are guests of these Cottage Grove relatives this week. They are on their return home from a visit to the Salem fair and Seattle exposition. They have not visited this city in 19 years and are naturally surprised at the remarkable growth of Cottage Grove and the rapid development of the country tributary thereto.

AT LURCH'S

CHURCH NOTES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The Presbyterian Brotherhood met at the home of F. H. Rosenberg last Tuesday evening. A very enjoyable evening was spent. The next monthly meeting will be held at the Manse.

Rev. Selden C. Adams will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday. The subject of the morning sermon is: "How shall I Come to Jesus?" The evening address will be: "Is the World Growing Better?"

Those who expected something sensational in the sermon at the M. E. church Sunday evening were disappointed. The subject "What Would Christ be in Cottage Grove in 1909" was handled in a very interesting and able manner by Rev. Sutcliffe, who affirmed that Christ would be characterized here he here today, with all the wisdom, grace and forbearance, that marked his career at the dawn of the Christian era.

At the M. E. Church Sunday.

The most interesting program yet at the Methodist church on Sunday. Bible school at 10, public worship at 11 with address by Robert Sutcliffe on "Peary and Cook Outdone." Duet by Dr. and Mrs. Van Winkle. Epworth League devotional meeting at 6:30. People's Popular service at 7:30. Topic of pastor's lecture, "Romance of a Pack of Cards." Anthem, "Let us Sing Unto the Lord" by large chorus choir. All strangers in town cordially invited to attend these gatherings.

Christian Church Services Oct. 17.

10 a. m. Bible school, 11 o'clock sermon to the aged. 6:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor. 7:30 address, "Boosting Cottage Grove." Everybody welcome.

W. A. ELKINS, Pastor.

Attorney A. H. King was in attendance at circuit court at Roseburg this week as one of defendant's attorneys in the case of Mott vs Davidson, wherein plaintiff sought to recover commission on the sale of real estate for defendant. However, it being proven that defendant reserved the right to sell the property himself, the verdict was for defendant, much to the gratification of his Cottage Grove counsel.

L. N. Roney and F. J. Hard went up on Sharp's creek Wednesday where Contractor Roney will figure on bids for the construction of two or three new county bridges in the Bohemia road district of which Mr. Hard is supervisor. They are making the trip in Mr. Roney's automobile.

Ira Beidler, of near Oakland was a guest of his brothers and mother who reside on the Cochran farm near this city Wednesday. He was accompanied by an Iowa gentleman who was looking for an Oregon farm home and who was very favorably impressed with this locality.

Clarence Cameron, of the Albany sash and door factory, spent Wednesday in this city looking after the lumber business. The Leader was favored with a pleasant call.
