"Where You Do Better"

When the Table is Turned.

Here is the way the papers will write up weddings ten years hence: "The bride looked very well in a traveling dress, but all eyes were centered upon the groom. He wore a dark suit that fitted his form perfectly and in his dainty gloved hand he carried a small rose. His curly hair was beautifully done, and a delicate odor of hair oil of the best quality floated down the aisle as he passed. The young people will miss him now that he is married. He is loved by all for his many accomplishments, his tender grace and his winning ways. The bride commands a good salary as bookkeeper and the groom will miss none of the luxuries to which he has been accustomed. A crowd of pretty men saw him off at the depot."

Martin-Morrow Wedding.

Miss Nellie Ray Martin and Mr. Charles H. Morrow were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Martin, 1119 Thirty-second Avenue, in the presence of about thirty friends by Rev. L. Lakin. The bride was gowned in white satin trimmed in pearl and silver trimmings and carried bride's roses.

Miss Nellie Grow, in pale rose satin, and Miss Edna Martin, sister of the bride, in pale lavender satin, each carrying shower bouquets of pink roses, were the bridesmaids. Mr. Charles Martin acted as groomsman and Mr. Will Robinson as best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Rose Shiniman.

A wedding bell of white carnations and smilax was arranged for the bridal party in the living room, and the same flowers, with greens, were also used. Supper was served after the wedding. The dining room and table were decorated in pink carnations and smilax. The reception hall was in red, and green cactus and dahlias were the flowers most in evidence.

Mr. Morrow and his bride left for a short wedding trip and will be at home after the twenty-fifth of October in this city.—Seattle Times.

A Matrimonial Mixup.

From Oregon City comes the following story:

In the office of County Clerk Greenman Tuesday afternoon, a marriage license was issued to Mabel Whitney Wright and E. A. Wright, both of this county. Mrs. Wright was formerly the wife of Robert Wright, a brother of E. A. Wright, and Robert Wright accompanied his brother to the court house and made the necessary affidavit before the license could be secured.

Mrs. Wright was divorced from Robert Wright six months ago. E. A. Wright, who today married his brother's former wife, is also divorced, his first wife having been Olive Whitney, a sister to the wife he married today.

Mrs. Robert Wright has two children and the court house officials are wondering what relation these children are to their new father, besides his being an uncle and a stepfather to them.

Circuit court convened Wednesday to take up the issues and clear the docket for the regular term which begins next Monday. The docket will be pretty well cleared of minor cases this week and when the regular term convenes the trial cases will begin.

While returning home from an unsuccessful hunt at Cedar Creek Tuesday, Henry Veatch of the local hardware firm, shot a lone wild goose which came flying along above the tree tops by the roadside about four miles south of town, with a 30-30 rifle, so late in the evening that he could hardly see the sights on his gun. "They sat on the steps at midnight, two fools that were better in bed; murmuring honeyed nothings, while the silver moon hung her head. Two fools with joyous elation swooped the microbes on their lips with a queer sensation from toes to their finger tips. Telling the same stuff over that was nothing when it was new; giggling, gushing and burning, but frozen through and through. This fond affection the young folks have to bear; they think it love wading and angels in heavy stare. The bachelor thinks it is nothing, the old maid says it is vice, and mamma says it is naughty, but the youngster knows it is nice."

"How to Be Happy," not a sunshine lecture, but one on the laws of happiness. Many regard this as Mr. Lybarger's greatest production. It is filled with "worldly wisdom." It is not a "sunshine" lecture, but a search after the philosophy of right living. It is one lecture that has the courage to face the facts, to see things as they are. It shows not only the right of happiness and the duty of happiness, but the ways of happiness.
