Clarence Morss, who is convalescing from a severe illness, enjoyed a visit with Creswell relatives and friends this week.

Z. O. Earl of Star, was transacting business in this city today and favored the Leader with a pleasant call and a subscription renewal.

Mrs. Mattie Clark, nee Bartels, severely scalded her right arm, hand and face, at Woodville recently, but is recovering nicely from her severe injury.

Warren McFarland has leased the fine corner room in the new Woodward brick and will move his cigar store and billiard tables therein just as soon as the place can be furnished for him.

The Grove studio is now equipped with an Aristo lamp. Satisfactory pictures made at any time except the noon hour and Sundays. If you can't come in the daytime, let us know and we will be ready at your time.

Mrs. A. D. Owens has been quite ill at her home on Silk Creek for some time past. Dr. Geo. Wall, of Eugene was called in consultation with the local physician the early part of the week. Mrs. Owen's condition is reported much improved today.

Mrs. Jessie M. Scott is seeking a divorce and custody of two minor children, Neva and Lyle. She alleges cruel and inhuman treatment against her husband, Thomas R. Scott and recites some brutal and sensational doings on his part in her complaint. They were married in this county June 27, 1903. Attorney J. C. Johnson is conducting Mrs. Scott's case.

The Ladies Toggery, Miss Mary Bartels, proprietor, has a show window which is attracting the attention of the ladies and contains a beautiful display of R. & G. corsets. There is a setting of eight of the finest R. & G. forms in this window which shows Miss Bartels elegant line of goods off to the very best advantage. Ladies are invited to call and price and examine this line.

Died.

OLIVER—At the family home on Wall street, west Cottage Grove, Thursday night, Nov. 11, 1909, Mrs. James Oliver of consumption.

Mary Oliver Forrester was born in Green county, Arkansas, July 16, 1874, and was married to Jas. Oliver at Many Springs, Mo., thirteen years ago. Three children were born to them all of who are living. The family came to this city about six years ago and have a wide circle of friends here. Mrs. Oliver is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Forrester who reside on Wall street, and besides a husband and three children, she leaves three brothers and three sisters to mourn their great loss. She was a consistent member of the local Christian church, but was formerly a member of the Missionary Baptist church.

Funeral services will be conducted Sunday afternoon by Rev. Elkins, assisted by Rev. Sutcliffe, interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. The Modern Woodmen and its auxiliary order will attend, Mr. Oliver being a member of this order. The bereaved family have the sympathy of their neighbors and many friends.

Grover Purvance Married.

A Salt Lake City paper of recent date says:

"Miss Edna Carter of Provo and Grover Purvance were married last night at the Phillips parsonage at 6 o'clock. A few close friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Purvance left later for a short honeymoon and will return to make their home in this city."

Mr. Purvance is well and favorably known in this community where he grew from childhood. He is a very exemplary and industrious young man and has many relatives and friends here who join with the Leader in extending himself and bride hearty congratulations and best wishes.

Mr. Purvance is a brother of Ernest Purvance and Miss Myrtle Purvance, the latter, a teacher in our city schools.

Fine Celery Crop.

Messrs McKernan and John Metcalf marketed the first of their celery crop at the local groceries Thursday. The celery is of a fine quality and was grown on the McKernan place one mile west of this city, and these gentlemen have a crop of 4000 plants to market---another profitable product for the small tract farmer of this community.

Piano Recital.

Miss Dora Johns, instructor of a piano class in this city, will give a piano recital at the Methodist church Tuesday evening Nov. 30, commencing at 8 o'clock. She will be assisted by Mrs. J. Olin Van Winkle. No admission will be charged.

New President For Association.

Owing to his retirement from business in this city, G. L. Rees tendered his resignation as president of the local Merchants Protective Association at the regular meeting of the association last Tuesday evening and H. H. Veatch was elected as his successor.

Mr. Veatch is an enterprising young business man of this city, the head of the Griffin-Veatch hardware firm and owns a fine home in west Cottage Grove, in fact, all of his interests are centered in this city and he is naturally an enthusiastic booster for the city and community. The honor is therefore fittingly bestowed and Mr. Veatch will fill the office with credit to himself and to the full satisfaction of the enterprising and progressive business men of this growing city.

C. Destel came down from the Bohemia mines Wednesday. Mr. Destel's property is known as the "Crater" mine and while no extensive developments have been made, owing to its recent discovery the property is making a splendid showing and is the making of a good mine. A finer grade of ore is being encountered every day in this mine. Mr. Destel is preparing for more extensive development work in his property.

Miss Katie Wilson, teacher in the Seventh grade in the city schools, received the sad intelligence of the death of an aunt at Oregon City, Thursday, and she left for that place Thursday evening to attend the funeral obsequies. She will resume her school work Monday morning.
