Resolutions of Respect.

Hall of Bohemia camp No. 200, Woodmen of the World.

Cottage Grove, Oregon, Nov.
5th 1909.

Whereas, the great Ruler of the Universe has removed from this earth to the great Forest above our beloved neighbor, Max Staudacher, and

Whereas, said neighbor was a true Woodman and a good son and this camp by his death has suffered a severe loss, now, therefore,

Be it resolved, that this camp extend to the bereaved parents, brothers and sisters their heartfelt sympathy in their hour of affliction, and be it further,

Resolved, that our charter be draped in mourning for the period of thirty days and that a copy of these Resolutions be sent to the parents and a copy be spread on the minutes of this camp and a copy furnished to the papers of this city.

Burial of Judge C. C. Brock.

D. J. DuBrulle is in receipt of the first letter from Mrs. DuBrulle since her arrival at Waynesburg, Pa., with the remains of her father, Judge C. C. Brock, who died at this place recently and was taken to his old home for burial. The funeral was conducted on Monday Nov. 8, at Waynesburg and was very largely attended, the pall bearers all being prominent attorneys and jurists of Pittsburg and Waynesburg, professional associates of deceased.

The funeral services were very impressive, being conducted by a prominent Methodist and a Presbyterian minister. The former took for his text that passage of scripture wherein Joseph expressed his desire at his death to be taken to,
and buried in, the land of his birth.
The latter preached his sermon from an expression he had heard on the streets of Pittsburg concerning deceased, "His word was as Good as his Bond." Music was furnished by a picked choir. The grave of deceased was lined with slate and sealed throughout, being air and water-tight. Judge Brock was a man of affairs in Pittsburg and Waynesburg and his many friends demonstrated the high regard in which he was held by the many tributes paid to his memory at the last sad rites over his remains.

Reception to Congressman Hawley.

A reception was tendered to Congressman Hawley at the Commercial Club parlors this afternoon by members of the club after which a splendid dollar a plate banquet was served at Hotel Oregon, and was largely attended by the business men and city officials.

crossed the plains in 1867 with a mule team he was accompanied by our esteemed townsman J. P. Curriu.
After a few days visit here Mr. and Mrs. Perkins will go to Southern California to spend the winter.

Two unusually large congregations were present at the Methodist church on Sunday. One adult was admitted to full membership during the morning service. In the evening many strangers were present. The ladies quartet consisting of the Misses Hazel and Nieta Hazleton, Lottie Whitsett and Armored Sutcliffe sang "Nearer my God to Thee" most effectively. Next Sunday Mr. Sutcliffe's subjects are strikingly fresh and original. At 11 he speaks about "Mary the Mother of Jesus" and at 7:30 "Christ's Handing."
