King six miles west of Eugene, on the Crow road, are preparing to set 30 acres of it to apples, pears and cherries. They have a very good piece of land and within four or five years will be making good money off the orchard.—Guard.

E. J. Moore of Creswell was a Cottage Grove visitor Saturday returning home Sunday. He says Creswell made many creditable improvements this season and has more planned for next year. Mr. Moore says he is gratified to note the progress and upbuilding of Cottage Grove and renewed his subscription to the Leader in order to keep posted on the advancement of the town and the local events in South Lane county.

"A preacher in a near-by village is said to have made this announcement at the beginning of his sermon: "I shall not choose any particular text this morning but shall preach from where I open the book. It is now open and—" Here the parson was interrupted by a deacon who was asleep, forgetting himself and cried out: "It's yours; what did you open on?" The surprise of the good man in the pulpit was great, but the deacon collapsed when the reply came: "It's open on King's."

CHURCH NOTES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Last Sabbath evening was the record breaker for interest and attendance at the Methodist church. Chairs had to be brought out of the vestry to accommodate the over-flowing audience. A notable feature of the occasion was the large number of young men who were present. In fact Sabbath by Sabbath the proportion of men is becoming increasingly larger. Homer Harris delighted the audience with his singing. The services next Sunday are unusually interesting. In the morning the pastor speaks upon "The New Patriotism." Special singing. Appomattox Post G. A. R. attends in a body as the guest of honor. In the evening Robert Sutcliffe has selected a topic that all are interested in, namely, "Faces." Extra musical numbers.

W. C. Conner and D. J. Du Bruille were transacting business at the county seat Monday.
