Ducks Plentiful Near Junction.

J. M. Parkerson who lives west of Junction, was in Eugene Tuesday and tells a good duck story. Some time ago he sold a tame duck to some hunters for a decoy. They clipped its wings and took it to the preserves, seven miles away. Three days later, the duck came waddling back again into the yard where it was raised. Mr. Parkerson says he has lived there for 18 years and there are more ducks this fall than he has ever seen before in that time. He is now shooting for the Portland market and getting $8 per dozen for mallards, $6 for sprigtails and $3 for teal.—Register.

This was a return game played between the two teams, the Nesmiths have suffered a severe defeat at Roseburg recently. However, on their own floor they held their heavy opponents down in good shape and made them work for every score. It was a good game, and demonstrated the fact that the teams are pretty well matched.
