EUGENE AND THE STATE UNIVERSITY

"I am billed to hold meetings in several of the leading towns of Oregon and unless a certain bunch is cleaned out of the University of Oregon I propose to take the stump against this rotteuness." This statement was made recently among other things said by Dr. Oliyer in a reply to an article in the Oregon Emerald and certain other reports which had been carried to him relative to intimidation against his outspoken preaching against certain things existing in the University. Perhaps the endorsement manifested by the large audience in the vigorous applause was even more significant as to the feeling of a large body of Eugene people.

PLENTY OF WORK AHEAD.

An editor away for a while left his paper in charge of a minister. During the minister's stay in the sanctum the following letter came from a subscriber: "I know very well I paid my subscription to your paper the last time I was in town. If I get any more such letters from you as I received last week I will come in and maul h—l out of you." The minister answered: "I have been trying to get that out of him for ten years, and if you will come down and maul it out of him, then, my dear sir, I have twenty members of my church I will get you to operate on."—Ex.

First Spring Poem.

The following poem on spring was found laying on the Leader's table, the author evidently fearing the editor's wrath forgot to append his name. However, judging from its construction, it was probably written by Judge J. S. Medley:

Whereas, on certain boughs and sprays
Now divers birds are heard to sing,
And sundry flowers their heads upraise
Hail to the coming on of Spring!

The songs of those said birds arouse
The memory of our youthful hours,
As green as those said sprays and boughs,
As fresh and sweet as those said flowers.

The birds aforesaid—happy pairs!—
Love 'mid the aforesaid boughs inshrines
In freehold nests; themselves, their heirs,
Administrators and assigns.

O busiest term of Cupid's court,
Where tender plaintiffs actions bring—
Season of frolic and of sport,
Hail, as aforesaid, coming Spring.

Resolutions of Condolence.

We, your committee named to draft resolutions on the death of our brother, Edward Farman, at Lorane, February 10, 1910, beg leave to submit the following:

Whereas, it is but just that fitting tribute should be paid Edward Farman, our deceased brother in recognition of his many virtures, be it therefore

Resolved, by Lorane Lodge No. 122 I. O. O. F. that, while we bow in humble submission to the will of the Most High we do none the less mourn for our brother, and that the sympathy of Lorane Lodge No. 122 I. O. O. F. be extended to the family in their affliction.

Resolved, that our charter be draped for 30 days, and that these resolutions be placed on the records of this lodge, a copy sent to the family of the deceased and that a copy be sent to the county papers.

J. P. FRADY,
G. A. BILLINGS,
MARTIN FOSTER.

Eugene Guard please copy the above as the family wish to send papers east containing this notice.

Why Pay Rent.

W. B. Cooper who has built a large number of pretty bungalos in this city and has four more under course of construction now is prepared to sell on the installment plan, a home to any one on terms very little more than the regular rentals. Here is an excellent opportunity for any one with a regular salary to realize something for their regular rent payments—to secure a home of their own. Inquire of W. B. Cooper.

Laurant, The Man of Many Mysteries
MARCH 9th
The talented magician, Laurant gives the most novel, artlstic and marvelous attraction of its character now appearing before the American public. He enjoys an enviable reputation, only attained after years of hard work. Realizing the continual demand of the lyceum public for something new, artistic and refined, we have secured this attraction and take pride in guaranteeing satisfaction.

The College Singing Girls
APRIL 7th
The College Singing Girls and Walter Eccles have proved to be one of the greatest successes of the Lyceum. The eight young ladies of the company are unusually talented and versatile. They are professional singers, having good solo voices, which perfectly blend in the concert work. Special costumes are provided for each feature. The great success has been due to their ability to properly render the best sacred operatic numbers written for women's voices.
