A LETTER WHICH IS CREATING SOMEWHAT OF A COMMOTION

It is Alleged that Disaster Will Come to Those Who Fail to Push it Along—Claimed to be of Divine Authorship.

Country papers throughout the United States are printing what is alleged to be a letter written by Christ.

In this letter was an injunction that it should be published to the world by whoever found it together with the statement that misfortune and bad luck would follow the person having possession of it in the event that it was not given publicity.

There was likewise a promise that whoever may have a copy of this in his or her possession will prosper and be followed by good fortune.

The Leader has received a good many requests to print this letter, so if it will relieve the superstitious fear of any one, here it is:

According to the history of the letter it was written by Christ just after his crucifixion, signed by the Angel Gabriel ninety-nine years after the Savior's birth and presumably deposited by him under a stone at the foot of the cross.

On this stone appeared the legion, "Blessed is he who shall turn me over."

No one knew what the inscription meant, or seemed to have sufficient curiosity to investigate, until the stone was turned over by a little child and the letter which follows was discovered:

"Whoever works on the Sabbath day shall be cursed. I command you to go to church and keep holy the Lord's day, without any manner of work. You shall not idle or misspend your time in bedecking yourself in superfluities of costly apparel and vain dressing for I have ordered it a day of rest. I will have that day kept holy that your sins may be forgiven you.

"You will not break my commandments, but observe and keep them, they being written by my hand and spoken from my mouth. You shall not only go to church yourselves, but also your man servant and maid servant. Observe my words and learn my commandments."

You shall finish your work every Saturday at 6 o'clock in the afternoon, at which hour the preparation for the Sabbath begins. I advise you to fast five days in the week, beginning on Good Friday and continuing the five days following in remembrance of the five bloody wounds I received for you and mankind.

"You shall love one another and cause them that are not baptized to come to church and receive the Holy Sacrament, that is to say baptism, and then the supper of the Lord, and be made a member thereof and in so doing I will give you long life and many blessings. Your land shall be replenished and bring forth abundance and I will comfort you in the greatest temptation and surely he that doeth to the contrary shall be cursed."

Threshers Convention.

The second annual convention of the Oregon Threshers Association will be held at Albany, Ore., June 2nd and 3rd, 1910.

Round trip rate of one and one-third fare on the certificate plan will be made by O. R. & N. and S. P. Co's. Tickets on sale May 20th to June 3rd inclusive, good for return until June 10th. Important subjects will be discussed including an address by a special representative of the U. S. Government. For further information as to rates, dates of sale, etc., call on any O. R. & N. or S. P. agent. (M-31)

A good two-horse iron beam corn cultivator for sale. Almost new. Inquire of I. A. Randall. *

"I will also send hardness of the heart on them and especially on hardened and unpentinent unbelievers. He that hath given to the poor shall find it profitable. Remember to keep the Sabbath day, for the seventh day I have taken as a resting day to myself."

"And he that hath a copy of this letter written by my own hand and spoken by my own mouth and keepeth it without publishing it to others shall not only prosper, but he that publisheth it to others shall be blessed by me and if their sins be as many as stars at night, and if they truly believe they shall be pardoned and they that believe not this writing and my commandments will have my plagues upon you and you will be consumed with your children, goods and cattle and all other worldly enjoyments that I have given you. Do but once think of what I have suffered for you, if you do, it will be well for you in this world and in the world which is to come."

"Whoever shall have a copy of this letter and keep it in their house, nothing shall hurt them, neither pestilence, thunder nor lightning, and if any woman be in birth and put her trust in me she shall be delivered of her child. You shall hear no more news of me except through the Holy Scriptures, until the day of judgement. All goodness and prosperity shall be in the house where a copy of this letter shall be found. Finished."

The story goes that the little child who found it passed it to one who became a convert to the Christian faith. He failed to have the letter published. He kept it however, as a sacred memento of Christ and it passed down to different generations of his family for more than one thousand years.

During this period the family suffered repeated misfortunes, migrated to different countries until finally one of them came to America, bringing it with them. They settled in Virginia, then moved further south, still followed by misfortune when finally the last member, a daughter, approached her death bed and called a neighbor, Mrs. Thompson, giving her the letter and related its history for more than one thousand years. The Thompson woman began the attempt to have it published and it first appeared in the Rome, Ga., Tribune on Oct. 31, 1891. It then appeared in the Dalton, Ga., Citizen and Mrs. Wortman, now living in Marion, Ind., clipped it and kept it in her possession for many years without an effort to have it published. She was followed by misfortune which she attributed to her neglect in trying to have the letter published.

Mrs. Ruby Crutchfield of Trezavant, Tenn., is also said to have had a copy and failed to make an effort to have it published for three years, and was followed by a varied lot of misfortunes which she attributed to the fact of her neglect in this respect.

A Cottage Grove man Sundayed in Roseburg recently.

In walking down Jackson street he soon found himself midway between the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, which are separated only by a half block. The choir were singing and the Grovite halted to catch the sacred musical strains as they were wafted on the rose perfumed breeze. From the Presbyterian church came, "Will there be any Stars in My Crown," and then the response from the Methodist church choir "No not One, No not One." This seemed a little uncharitable to the visitor and he proceeded on his way.

INFORMATION by TELEPHONE

PEOPLE are not leaving so much to chance in these days of universal telephoning service. Instead of risking disappointment they telephone and get the facts.

Will school be held on a stormy morning, will your friend be in if you call, what does the weather man predict and when does the train leave—are samples of myriads of questions constantly passing over the wire, and being answered by the proper authorities.

There are also questions to be asked about the telephone service, how somebody can be reached over the Bell Long Distance Telephone and what it will cost, and similar questions, which are being answered by the information operators.

THE DIAMOND

As An Investment

The man or woman who wears a diamond also wears an air of prosperity that is far reaching in its influence.

These are Commercial times, and to BE successful you must LOOK it. People are always judged at first by their appearance.

As an investment, the diamond is in a class by itself, because, outside of its intrinsic value, it has the added value as an adornment.

When you are ready to buy a diamond, at whatever price, there are plenty of reasons why you should come and see the fine line of Diamonds in Ear-Rings, Brooches and Rings sold at reduced prices on installments at
