ZEPPELIN AIRSHIP LOST IN STORM

Disabled Motor Makes Craft Helpless Against Gale.

Ship Lands on Tree Tops and is Badly Damaged-Passengers Reach Ground on Rope Ladder.

Dusseldorf, Germany-Count Zeppelin's passenger airship Deutschland, the greatest of all the famous aeroforest pierced by pine trees, a mass of deflated silk and twisted aluminum. The 33 passengers and crew aboard the airship when it struck the pines after a wild contest with a storm, escaped uninjured, climbing down from the wreck on a rope ladder

Herr Colesmann, general manager of the new airship company; Chief Engineer Duers, of the Zeppelin ship, and Charles Wannenberg, who had charge of the crew of 10, and 20 newspaper men sailed from Dusseldorf for a three hours' excursion.

In the high wind one of the motors refused to work and the other two did not give sufficient power to make any headway in the gale. The airship drifted, swaying in the violent gusts and sometimes leaning at an angle of 40 degrees. All the while the enginemen were at work repairing the disabled motor.

When this was done all four screws

Unwere driven at their full power. Under normal conditions the engines were capable of driving the airship at a speed of 40 miles an hour, but the helmsman was unable to keep his course and the great craft was swung about at the mercy of the winds.

Colesmann did not dare to come about, for fear of overturning, and decided to drift with the gale toward Osnabruck, also a garrision. He then decided to continue on to Senne.

Suddenly he perceived a whirlwind coming, and ascended to a height of nearly 4,000 feet to avoid the center of With the whirlwind came a heavy downpour of rain.

After half an hour the Deutschland came down to permit observations and it was seen that the Teutoburgian forest lay below. The forward motor stopped again and Colesmann sent five of the correspondents to the aft gondola to ballast the vessel.

The Deutschland sank rapidly, having lost much gas in the high altitude, and dragged along the top of the dense forest. A heavy branch of a tree broke through the bottom of the cabin amidships, throwing two of the guests to the floor. Other branches ripped through the gas compartments and the whole great structure settled down 30 or 40 feet from the ground.

recently dedicated a modest chapel in-side the city.

Bishop McDowell and a long list of Methodist dignitaries assisted in the ceremonies, and they say they are in Zion to stay and grow. If so they will probably prove an extremely large thorn in the flesh of Overseer Voliva, for the excellent reason that his own camp is badly divided. Revision of Plans Occasioned by Reduction of Appropriation Washington-The general land office is shaping its program for field investigations of matters concerning the public domain so as to come within the compass of the appropriation of $750,-000 which the sundry civil bill has appropriated for the work. Commissioner Dennett, of the general land office expects the field divisions to be reduced from 17 to 12, and the field ser vice force of the land office decreased about 25 per cent. The reduction will be due to the fact that $1,000,000 was appropriated for the work during the current fiscal year.

The appropriation of $750,000 for the next year, however, was based up-on the estimate of the general land office as to the amount required to carry on the work.

SENSIBLE STYLES.

Famous Actress Praises Method Now

'Women never looked so well as they do in the styles of the present," says Miss Julia Marlowe. "They have gone back to the ancient Grecian style to a great extent, and nothing could be more beautiful than that. Every artist will agree that the women of ancient Greece were the most artistically clad of any in all the centuries changing fashions.

"Now we have gone back to that classical garb, and I think we have improved upon it to some extent. We have a happy combination of the past and present in the styles of to-day. Nothing could be more graceful and truly classical than a perfectly dressed woman of good figure to-day. They are getting close to nature, not unadorned, but adorned in the most artistic manner possible.

"Women have passed through periods when fashion decreed that they must dress in a way that made them absolutely deformed. Bustless, hip bring them into conformity with the hoop skirts which were atroclously ugly and ungainly. Only 12 or 15 years ago women's shoulder's had great humps on them, which made
