

A CONVENIENCE WHILE AUTOMOBILING

THE Bell Telephone keeps the traveller in touch with all the resources of civilization.

The Bell Sign becomes an old and tried friend. He can order his dinner, explain his delay, summon relief in an emergency, or say the word forgotten in the hurry of starting. He can do this from almost any point on the road because the Bell system has stretched out its lines to meet his unexpected needs. The Bell Telephone not only furnishes neighborhood communication but gives Long Distance Service throughout the whole system.

Buy Logs Intended For Eugene.

Wilbur Hyland has started down the Willamette with a drive of three and a half or four million feet of logs for the Booth-Kelly company's mill at Springfield. The Booth-Kelly company purchased the logs that were to have gone to the Eugene Lumber company, so they will get no drive this year, but will depend on the railroad bringing in their supply from above Cottage Grove.—Eugene Register.

Honor Scholarship.

Whitman College has awarded the Honor Scholarship Certificate to Miss Armored Sutcliffe. This entitles her to a reduction in tuition each year to the amount of $100 for four years.

Her many friends are congratulating her upon the honor conferred.

Received $30 Apiece For Hogs.

James Rose, of Springfield, sold to Broders Bros. Saturday, 10 head of fine dressed hogs, which averaged 250 pounds apiece and brought the successful raiser about $300. Does it pay to raise hogs in Oregon?—Register.

The Woman's Club awarded prizes for the best kept door yards as follows, last Thursday: J. H. McFarland, first; I. M. Harvey, second; Ben Lurch, third. Numerous other homes came under the blue and red ribbon and honorable mention class.

Chief Justice Fuller died of heart failure at his summer home the Fourth.

A "Flowery" Sermon.

The Methodist church was filled to its capacity Sunday evening, the Woman's Club being guests of honor, Rev. Robt. Sutcliffe delivering an eloquent sermon on "Four Sweet Peas." He congratulated the Woman's Club upon its success in awakening pride in the cultivation of sweet peas and other flowers in this city, and said they were accomplishing a great work in promoting civic pride and a love for the beautiful. The language of flowers was referred to in the sermon and the "Four Sweet Peas" were symbolized as follows: Pink for purpose; purple, perseverance; lavender, politeness, and white, prayerfulness. It was one of the best of the long list of good sermons delivered by Rev. Sutcliffe during his pastorate here.

Fruit Drier Will Operate.

J. I. Jones informs the Leader that wood has been secured and everything is in readiness for operating the big fruit drier in this city this fall. An experienced man has been employed to take charge of the work and all the available fruit of this community will be dried for the markets, and there is an unusually large crop of apples, prunes and pears. This announcement will be very welcome news to the fruit growers of this community, as it will provide a local market for all their marketable fruit and distribute a large sum of money in this vicinity.

Hickey's garage has received a fine new seven-passenger White Steamer.

Mrs. W. C. Counter and the little Counter are enjoying the exhilarating sea breezes at "Newport by the Sea," and the husband of Mrs. Counter is having a hilarious time at home. Later, Mrs. Counter has returned home unexpectedly, Counter still trying to explain.

Miss Mary Bartels closed a very successful summer sale Saturday evening, selling out almost completely her large stock of summer goods. She went to Portland Saturday night to put in her fall and winter stock of millinery and all kinds of goods for ladies and children and will soon open the largest and swiftest stock ever seen in this city.

A man by the name of Swift became bewildered while hunting on the divide between Row river and Mosby creek the first of last week and wandered about without food for two days before he found his way out. Searching parties were scouring the woods when he at last reached the settlement at John Palmer's place. He was nearly exhausted.

Mrs. Martha Olson of Nesperce, Idaho, who left this city with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Fuller thirteen years ago, has returned on a visit, being a guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Nokes and others. She says there is not much left by which to recognize the Cottage Grove of yore and she is delighted with our slightly city of today. She notes many improvements in the country as well as in town. She is accompanied by her little daughter.

Most any one can afford a diamond at the price Madsen is selling them for a short time only.

The Leader family, C. H. Jones and John Sears and wife enjoyed a quiet Fourth at the farm home of the editor's father, Ira Conner, near this city, where we enjoyed a fine farm dinner and feasted upon cherries. We found time to call upon farmer W. A. Cunningham nearby and sample some of his splendid birthday cake with ice cream. He and Ira Conner, Jr., both celebrate their birthdays on the national independence day. We were sorry to learn that farmer Will Keen on the Harding place was "laid up" with a severe attack of tonsillitis. Crops look fine over the river and haying is in full blast.

Attorney C. I. Leavengood, and wife of Myrtle Creek, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz Friday, while on their way to visit several points in the northern part of the state. Attorney Leavengood said he thought the proposed creation of Nesmith county a perfectly proper, legitimate and practical movement and one designed for the betterment of the conditions of the people of South Lane and North Douglas, and that it should and no doubt would succeed. He told the Leader that he expected to say a good word for the new county and vote for it when the election rolls around. He said a great many Myrtle Creek people were also friends of the Nesmith county cause.

Buy Good Corsets

THE better corsets you buy, the better figure you will have, the more stylish you will appear and the longer service you will get from your corset.

If you can afford to spend from $15.00 upward for a dress, you can surely afford to spend from $2.00 to $5.00 or more for a corset; for the corset is the foundation of style and therefore the appearance of your dress depends upon it.

We feature Henderson Corsets and carry them in a wide range of values, retailing from $1.25 upward, but advise the purchase of the higher grades whenever possible. The shape, construction, finish and fit of the higher grade corsets are naturally more desirable and attractive.

A trial with the better grade Henderson Corsets will convince you of the wisdom of our suggestion.
