

W. Eugene Knox

America's Greatest Impersonator And Reader

Mr. Knox is making his last tour of the Pacific coast and comes to Cottage Grove Thursday, July 28, direct from the Gladstone Park Chautauqua. It is rarely that Cottage Grove has an opportunity of hearing such talent and the Armory Hall will no doubt be packed on this occasion. After his Oregon tour Mr. Knox goes to the Nebraska State University where he holds the position of instructor and director in the department of elocution and oratory. His is an entertainment worthy of a thinking public.

MARRIED.

FLINN-KIRKPATRICK—At the Methodist parsonage, Eugene, at 7 p. m., Wednesday, July 20, 1910, Emma Kirkpatrick, of Portland, to Alfred L. Flinn, of Cottage Grove, Rev. D. H. Trimble officiating. They will make their home in Cottage Grove.—Register.

Harms-Faber.

John W. Harms and Emma L. Faber were united in marriage at the parsonage of the Sunnyside Congregational church at Portland Wednesday, July 20, by the Rev. J. J. Staub.

Mr. and Mrs. Harms arrived in Cottage Grove, the old home of Mr. Harms, Monday where they will remain indefinitely.

An Error Corrected.

Cottage Grove, Oregon.
July 24, 1910.

Editor of the Leader:—

Allow me a little space in your paper that I may rectify an error on the part of the Sentinel. I never owned, opened or closed a barber shop in the city of Cottage Grove.

I was employed by Mr. C. H. Kaestner, who saw fit to close his shop owing to union complications.

J. A. Cobb.

E. A. Rhoten, field editor of the Pacific Homestead, was a Cottage Grove visitor Monday. Mr. Rhoten is a good friend of Nesmith county. The Leader was favored with a fraternal call.

Birthday Surprise.

Last Tuesday evening was the 35th birthday anniversary of John England upon which occasion a pleasant surprise social was planned and very successfully carried out by Mrs. England. About thirty neighbors assembled to assist in celebrating the occasion and Mr. England was the recipient of many nice presents among which was a beautiful I. O. O. F. emblem watch fob. Refreshments were served and a most enjoyable evening was spent by guests and hostess alike. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Spear, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson, George Young and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Hoxie, Mrs. May Hogate, Mrs. Jepson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Lair Ralston, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. L. M. Thompson, Mrs. Cobb, Miss Dickerson of Illinois, Miss Hays, Len Hogate, Cecil Caldwell, Lois Ralston.

Irrigation Prohibited.

Notice is hereby given by the City Council that owing to the low stage of the city water supply the irrigation of lawns and gardens is prohibited until further notice. The turning on of the Lang creek water supply this fall will overcome this shortage.

Nice Home Cheap.

A nice lot and story and a half residence on Wall street for sale cheap. Apply to J. B. Simeral at furniture store for particulars.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Mamie Knox is a guest of Cottage Grove friends.

Times are never as hard as they seem to be in July and August.

Mrs. Holland has closed the Holland hotel for the summer season.

Miss Gertrude Burdick is home from Portland, a guest of relatives and friends.

It takes five years of hard usage to wear away a modern wooden pavement one inch.

Miss Vernie Brown was a guest of her friend, Miss Mabel Cochlin, at Creswell, last week.

Attorney R. R. Giltner and wife of Portland, are guests of Cottage Grove relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran of Eugene, spent Saturday and Sunday with Cottage Grove friends.

Harry Webber went to Roseburg today to attend to some piano tuning for his Roseburg friends and patrons.

The deer killing season opens on Aug. 1, and many hunters are brightening their rifles for a trip to the mountains.

A marriage license was granted Thursday afternoon to Alonzo L. Flinn and Miss Emma Kirkpatrick, both of Cottage Grove.

The tent meeting have been well attended during the past week, notwithstanding the season is warm for gatherings of this character.

S. B. Morss has something like 50,000 trees in his nursery, and anticipates a big business this fall. These are principally apple trees.

Work is well advanced on the ditch for the storm sewer to drain the city park. This is a much needed sewer or drain and will soon be completed.

Mrs. Jack Lewis and family and Misses Maggie and Lotta Whitsett are camping and picking wild blackberries at the old Booth-Kelly mill east of Saginaw.

Miss Lundstrom of Divide, was transacting business in Cottage Grove Monday and favored the Leader with a pleasant call and a subscription renewal.

T. Bentz, wife and son, of Blue Hill, Nebraska, are guests of W. A. Cunningham and family, having been old neighbors and friends in Nebraska. This family is making a tour of the West.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Nelson, of Medford, have taken up their residence in the Rouse cottage in the McQueen addition. Mr. Nelson is a lumberman and will accept a position with the Brown Lumber Co.

Rev. C. H. Wallace, whose life was despaired of last spring, and who later recovered from his serious illness to such an extent that he could be wheeled about in a rolling chair, is now able to walk, unaided, about and visit with neighbors.

Secretary R. C. Ostrander of the Modern Brotherhood of America has received notice from C. A. Nelson of Beach, North Dakota, of the death of Mrs. Nelson, a former resident of Cottage Grove, which sad event occurred on July 9. She carried a policy for $2000 in the local order.

D. Sterling has arrived in Cottage Grove and assumed personal charge of the feed store business which he recently purchased from D. C. Baughman. A car load of feed, wheat, oats, chopped wheat, etc., has just been received. The patronage of old and new patrons is especially solicited by Mr. Sterling. Call and get acquainted. See new ad in the Leader today.

Miss Jeanetta Dickerson of Curran, Illinois, will be a guest during the summer of her aunt, Mrs. C. W. Caldwell, she having arrived July 16. Miss Dickerson says she did not see any country that looked good to her while enroute to Oregon until she arrived in the Willamette valley. She is very favorably impressed with Cottage Grove which she styles a beautiful little city. The Leader understands Miss Dickerson is an accomplished musician.

Scott Bennett and wife, of near Portland, are looking after their property interests here and visiting with old friends. Mr. Bennett informs the Leader that he has talked with many on the Nesmith county question in his neighborhood and that nearly every man favors the creation of Nesmith county, saying that Lane and Douglas are both entirely too large to be well and economically governed. Mr. Bennett says he is sure Nesmith will win.

W. Eugene Knox, the great impersonator and reader, at the Armory hall Thursday evening, July 28.

From a nine acre meadow Ernest Sears has sold $300 worth of hay this season from the first cutting.

Ira Beidler is up from Oakland helping his brothers in their city meat market. A. T. Beidler being indisposed at the present time.

Ben Lurch will not add to his store building this season, as contemplated, but will build a handsome brick structure next spring.

W. H. Abrams has purchased the four passenger Auburn Automobile of A. L. Woodard, and will now have even more friends than before.

We desire to call attention to the new nursery ad of Gazley Brothers Nursery, the well known and reliable Southern Oregon nurserymen at Canyonville, Oregon.

If you would enjoy a good hearty laugh, don't fail to hear W. Eugene Knox, America's greatest impersonator and reader, at the Armory hall Thursday evening, July 28.

CHURCH NOTES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS.

A. A. Heist, Supt. Young People's Temperance Work, will deliver a rousing address at the Methodist church Wednesday evening. A young people's temperance league will be organized and all young people favorable to "Oregon Dry" are requested to be present and join in the winning fight.

Quite a record was established by the Epworth League for vacation season at its last regular Sabbath evening meeting. Mrs. Harry Hart was leader and the count showed that 60 were present. Eleven prayers were offered and twenty-five testimonials given. President Ralston is much pleased with the interest manifested these warm months.

The crowds at the gospel tent are still increasing nightly and Elder Mark Comer has found it necessary to increase the size of the tent to accommodate the constantly growing attendance. More canvas has been ordered for this purpose and it is expected that increased tent room will be provided by Wednesday evening. The meetings are very instructive and enthusiastic and much interest is being awakened. They will continue indefinitely.

Next Sabbath at the Methodist church will be more than a usual one. At 11 a. m. Robert Sutcliffe gives an address on "Some Teachings of Jesus." Baptism and reception of members. Peoples popular service at 8 a. m. Subject of lecture "From Missouri or the man that was Shown." Special music. Bible school at 10. New scholars are constantly being enrolled. The Epworth League devotional meeting at 7 conducted by C. Beidler. Let us beat the mark of last Sabbath. A hearty welcome to all.

Rev. Morharter of Kansas City, Mo., will give a stereopticon lecture at the Christian church this evening. No admission.

Mrs. B. Lawson and Mrs. Cruson will sing a duet at the 11 o'clock service of the Christian church, Sunday, July 31. Subject of the morning discourse, "The Sure and the Insecure." Bible school at 10. Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Edward Finnerty and Miss Verna Brown will sing a special at the 8 p. m. service. Discourse announced for last Sunday evening will be delivered—Seeing Visions and Dreaming Dreams. Every body welcome.

Buy Good Corsets

THE better corsets you buy, the better figure you will have, the more stylish you will appear and the longer service you will get from your corset.

If you can afford to spend from $15.00 upward for a dress, you can surely afford to spend from $2.00 to $5.00 or more for a corset; for the corset is the foundation of style and therefore the appearance of your dress depends upon it.

We feature Henderson Corsets and carry them in a wide range of values, retailing from $1.25 upward, but advise the purchase of the higher grades whenever possible. The shape, construction, finish and fit of the higher grade corsets are naturally more desirable and attractive.

A trial with the better grade Henderson Corsets will convince you of the wisdom of our suggestion.
