MARRIED.

GLEASON-MAGEE.—At the farm home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Magee, at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, August 3, 1910, Rexford M.
Gleason and Miss Eliza Magee, Rev. W. A. Elkins officiating.

About thirty guests witnessed the pretty ceremony following which excellent refreshments were served. Both of the contracting parties are justly popular in this city and are very estimable and worthy young people. The bride has served as saleslady in Lurch's merchandise store for some time past and has served in a similar capacity in other business houses about town and therefore has a wide acquaintance and many admiring friends in this community.
The groom is a concrete worker by trade and a son of Mr. E. A. Gleason, the brick yard man. The groom has just completed the concrete walks on Main street and has done much other similar work about this city. He is a genial, industrious and prosperous young man who has a wide circle of friends in this city. After a trip to Newport by the sea, Mr. and Mrs. Gleason will be at home to friends in their cottage near the Presbyterian Church. The Leader joins in extending congratulations and best wishes.

At The Stadium.

When you visit Miller's big carnival attractions in this city next Thursday, Friday and Saturday don't fail to take in the Stadium wherein is featured LaRoy, America's champion barrel jumper and novelty rod twister. Pope, the leading American contortionist and India rubber man. Miss Eva La-Rose, the only lady Hercules in the world, and others equally as interesting and entertaining.

Married.

ATKINSON-GRAY.—At the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Atkinson on Fourth street Wednesday evening, August 3, 1910, James E. Atkinson and Miss Pearl Gray, Rev.
Robert Sutcliffe, officiating.

The ceremony was witnessed by only a few relatives and friends of the contracting parties, following which dainty refreshments were served. Mr. Atkinson is a very exemplary young man who has long held the position of bookkeeper with the hardware firm of Griffin-Veatch Co. The bride is a very worthy young lady who graduated from the Cottage Grove high school last spring and enjoys the esteem of a wide circle of friends.
The Leader joins in extending congratulations and wishes for a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

City Engineer Resigns.

At an adjourned session of the city council on Tuesday evening Mr. F. P. Kurtz tendered his resignation as city engineer and Mr.
Nichols was appointed to succeed him. A member of the council called for his report, and the city engineer made one verbally, which did not appear to be satisfactory.
After a little cross-firing Mr. Kurtz left the chamber, returning shortly after to hand his resignation to the recorder. It was accepted.

R. C. Comer deposited some very fine big red apples and peach plums on the Leader table Saturday. They were grown on his upland farm and are consequently as good as the best.

Wanted—A good milk cow.
Address J. P. Lamson, Cottage Grove, or call third door, west of Flour mill. Jt.*

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Try the Leader a year.

Hop picking time almost here.

Miss Ethel Bartels is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Mattie Clark at Grants Pass.

Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle will be a guest of relatives and friends at Oakland this week.

It is now the open season for male deer, but it is always an open season for female deer.

Mrs. Mendenhall of Indianola, Iowa, is a guest at the home of her niece, Mrs. F. D. Wheeler.

A girl wanted for general housework in a small family. For particulars apply at the Leader office.

Miss Stella Martin of Silver Lake, is a guest at the home of her uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Nattie Martin.

Ex-Judge G. R. Chrisman of Eugene spent Sunday in Cottage Grove, a guest of relatives and friends.

Warren Glaze, the well known and efficient musical instructor and composer, requests his paper sent to Falls City, Oregon.

A limb from a plum tree from Joe Baker's little town lot orchard left at the Leader office shows remarkable productiveness.

Clarence C. DuBrulle and family returned home last week from a very pleasant and enjoyable outing spent on the McKenzie river.

Mrs. Stella Downing of Doty, Washington, a sister of Miss Zelma Maples of this city, died at her home on Monday, last week.

M. B. Stone one of the substantial farmers of the Lorane valley, contemplates disposing of his ranch and moving to Tacoma.

Harry Parker one of the Bohemia mine owners has been taking a little respite from his labors visiting with his brother Tom in this city.

The Leader dislikes to see so much farmer trade go to Creswell.
Just inquire where the farmers are buying their binder twine. There's a reason!

Elder A. J. Breed of Walla Walla will speak at the Gospel Tent on Wednesday evening on the subject, "Religious Liberty." All are invited.

Col. R. M. Veatch, Henry H.
Veatch, Jim Wallace and John Veatch are off on a hunting trip to Crescent Lake. They will be absent about three weeks.

The sixth excursion of Eastern-ers arrived at Creswell Friday night to look over the Bohrnstedt fruit lands. There were about 12 intending investors in the party.

A. Cox and wife of Bladen, Nebraska, were guests of W. A.
Cunningham and family last week the two families having been friends and neighbors in Nebraska.

Dr. and Mrs. Ingram and Robt.
Cooley and wife, left Monday for a trip to Crescent Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Cooley will extend their visit into Eastern Oregon. Herbert Mosby went along as teamster.

Formerly girl's chief attractions were in their rosy cheeks and peachy complexions, but the foreign noblemen have changed that in this day, and now their chief attractions are their green backs.

Chas. Beidler made a trip out to Yoncolla last week to purchase some fine beef. Frank McFarland has been assisting in their meat market work during the illness of A. T. Beidler, who is now convalescing.

Railroad Commissioner T. K.
Campbell came up from Salem Monday to spend a day or two looking after business and property interests at this place. The commissioner has been doing some very good work recently.

Mrs. J. T. DeSpain left Wednesday August 3, to visit relatives in Chicago, Peoria and other places in Illinois and Iowa stopping en route at various points in Oregon and Washington. She will probably be gone about three months.

Will Hart the contractor has been awarded the contract for building the fine new cottage of R. C. Barfield and wife on their Perkins hill tract on Main street.
Mr. Hart also has a force of men at work on a fine new bungalow for Ben Lurch in west Cottage Grove.

E. D. Handy has treated his neat cottage on Wall street to two coats of paint, white, trimmed in pearl gray—a very pretty combination. Noah Forrester has also given his cottage on Wall street two coats of paint—chocolate trimmed in straw color also a very good combination.

Miller's carnival company will hold forth in Cottage Grove August 11, 12 and 13th.

The plat of the A. C. Bohrn-stedt Co.'s addition to Creswell was filed with the county clerk Friday.

For sale, household goods including new range and sewing machine, at a bargain. Inquire at the Rose or phone 116 R. if Several Eugene children were poisoned by colored ice cream cones recently and now an effort will be made to stop the sale of the colored cones.

John Stoneberg is manifesting commendably enterprise by the construction of a fine concrete sidewalk in front of his business property on the west side.

Woodburn has started paying operations again with the hard surface bitulithic. It isn't too late for Cottage Grove to do the same kind of work this summer.

David Alexander has purchased the confectionery and pool business of P. C. Coffman at Yoncalla, and took possession last week. Mr.
Coffman has returned to Cottage Grove.

Chas. Woodward who recently sold his home on Kansas and Third streets to Chas. Dewald is now about to sell his fine brick on the corner of Main and Third streets in which event he will probably go to Vancouver to reside.

Miller's big carnival company arrived in this city Monday and is busy pitching its numerous tents and getting everything in readiness for the three days of splendid entertainment, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Read their big ad in the Leader.

At a recent meeting of the promotion department of the Commercial club Mr. F. H. Rosenberg, who has been in charge of the publicity work during the past three months, tendered his resignation, and the work will be carried on temporarily by the secretary of the department.

John F. Spray, who is improving a large tract of land three miles east of town, will throw the tract on the market soon. The place has a perpetual water right, secured by Mr. Spray through the construction of an irrigation ditch two and a half miles in length at a cost of $4,000.

Dr. H. H. Somers of Duluth, Minn., has located in Cottage Grove and opened offices in the new Lawson block on Main street.
The doctor is a graduate of Still College of Osteopathy of Des Moines, Iowa, one of the foremost osteopathic institutions in the country, and comes to this city with all necessary qualifications for the upbuilding of a large and successful practice. An article on osteopathy appears elsewhere in the Leader.

The treasury of Douglas county is $925 richer as the result of the trip to Gardiner last week of District Attorney Geo. M. Brown.
That amount of money is the aggregate of fines imposed upon three self-confessed liquor sellers, Alfred Varelman, Fred Assenhe-mer and Jerry Reuber. In addition to paying this amount, the trio of booze sellers pledged themselves to never again engage in "bootlegging" and allowed the state to confiscate such whisky as they had in their possession.

D. C. Baughman is building an addition 50x56 feet one and a half story to his feed store on the west side which he has leased to D.
Sterling the feed store man. The second floor of this big addition will be used for storing baled hay while the ground floor will be used as an additional store room. This addition or extension completes this building from one street to the other across the entire block with a roped over alley through the center and it will soon store a very large stock of feed, hay and grain.

Jas. Ostrander the genial, tou-sorial artist and his private secretary, Fate Long, both prominent Elks, went to Portland Friday night from which place they boarded the special for Astoria Saturday to attend the ceremonies incident to the laying of the corner stone of the new $80,000 Elks temple at that place. On Sunday a big clam bake was pulled off at Seaside by the Astoria Elks which our townsmen also attended and it is no guess when we say that they "made good" upon each and every occasion upon this very enjoyable trip.

CHURCH NOTES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Rev. Sutcliffe and family will spend their vacation camping near the warehouse. They left on Monday.

Prof. G. E. Johnson is spending a few days here from Portland attending the Seventh Day Adventists camp meeting.

Elder Bunch of Coos county is participating in the Seventh Day Adventist camp meetings in this city, at the big tent.

The Seventh Day Adventists camp meetings at the Gospel Tent are well attended and an interesting series of discourses are being delivered by an able corps of Elders of that church.

R. A. Booth went to Springfield Sunday and talked on practical Christianity, then made an appeal for $200 yet back on the fine parsonage just completed. It was met with a most hearty response and enough additional money was raised to pay a good sum on the pastor's salary.

That was an eloquent and broad-minded sermon delivered by Rev.
Sutcliffe at the M. E. Church Sunday morning. He likened the forces in the campaign for righteousness to a great army. The various denominations and their pastors to the various companies and regiments with their captains, lieutenants and colonels, all however, marching under one great commander and battling for victory in one great common cause.

Engagement Announced.

Every one is interested in weddings. Of unusual interest to Cottage Grove people is the announcement, made Wednesday, by Mrs. J. B. Lewis, of the engagement of her daughter Miss Antoinette Burdick to Mr. Ernest M. Oberg of Hastings, Nebraska.
The wedding will be some time in September. Until recently Miss Burdick was a teacher in our high school and Mr. Oberg is a young business man of Hastings.

Mrs. Lewis invited a number of maids and matrons to spend the afternoon informally.

The rooms were fragrant with sweet peas and roses. After an hour spent in conversation and games, the company was startled by a messenger who brought a special delivery letter to one of the guests. The missive contained the above announcement. A feature of the entertainment was selections on the phonograph. One was an original record, a conversation between two of Miss Burdick's girl friends. If prophecies come true several weddings will soon occur. The record will be carried to the Nebraska home as a souvenir.

Hearts were in evidence in the place cards and refreshments and also in the dining room as decorations. Mrs. Lewis was assisted in receiving by her daughters, Miss Burdick of Portland, and Miss Antoinette Burdick. The guests were:

Mrs. James W. H. Abrams, H.
O. Thompson, H. Eakin, F. D.
Wheeler, H. H. Veatch, C. P.
Jones, B. R. Job, Geo. Kerr, J. K.
Barrett, H. F. Royer, L. M. Tucker, F. L. Ingram, Samuels, C.
Kinter, J. S. Benson, O. Veatch.
Misses Lula Curria, Neta Perkins, Elizabeth Woods, Minnie Comer, Emma Job, Fern Royer.

Lost—Black Hand Bag. Return to Mrs. R. E. Briswell.

tion, finish and fit of the higher grade corsets are naturally more desirable and attractive.

A trial with the better grade Henderson Corsets will convince you of the wisdom of our suggestion.

Rees-Wallace Co.

"Where You Do Better"

THE better corsets you buy, the better figure you will have, the more stylish you will appear and the longer service you will get from your corset.

If you can afford to spend from $15.00 upward for a dress, you can surely afford to spend from $2.00 to $5.00 or more for a corset; for the corset is the foundation of style and therefore the appearance of your dress depends upon it.

We feature Henderson Corsets and carry them in a wide range of values, retailing from $1.25 upward, but advise the purchase of the higher grades whenever possible. The shape, construc-
