Sometimes a man surprises a woman by kissing her after marriage quite as much as he did by kissing her the first time.

Any school district can get a standard almost new leather bound International Encyclopaedia cheap by calling at the Leader office.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones and daughter Marguerite, returned home from a trip to Newport Monday. They report ideal weather and a grand time.

The Albany Apple Fair will be held on November 16 and 17. This section should begin preparations now to make a creditable exhibit.

Pull together, brethren. We are all here for the same purpose. Then live and let live. The best way to build up a town is for each and every man to pull together.

Mrs. M. J. Fuller of Cottage Grove mother of Mrs. G. S. O. Humbert, passed through Thursday on her way to Pocatello, Idaho where she will visit friends.—Register.

F. D. Wheeler is entitled to the blue ribbon for the best Grafton apples. He should be cultivating an apple orchard as well as selling the best shoes and clothing on earth.

Miss Frances Beatty of Salem, was a guest of Cottage Grove friends last week, while taking her annual vacation. She holds the position of saleslady in one of Salem's large merchandise stores.

Prof. J. M. Garrison, a member of the faculty of Pacific University at Forest Grove and one of the leading poultrymen of the state was a guest of the Leader editor today. He said Cottage Grove is deserving of county seat honors.

In offering a $25 reward for the arrest and conviction of any persons who sell, give or barter any intoxicating drinks or tobacco to his sons, E. J. Emmons of Springfield has struck the right trail and one that should be followed by many a father.

Miss Abbie Johnson, of Cottage Grove, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Eugene Matlock, returned home Thursday. She was accompanied by her friend Clarence Manson of Chicago, who is known as Chicago's best baritone.—Register.

An exchange remarks that a man can start out any day, and inside of an hour and thirty minutes he can engage a woman to work for him for life at nothing a week, while it will take two solid weeks of solid search to get one to work at fair wages and board.

H. O. Thompson and O. M. Kem of Cottage Grove, were here today in the interest of Nesmith county. They are both in business in that city and are spending all their time between now and election at their own expense in the interest of the cause.—Harrisburg Bulletin.

A young lady of Cottage Grove purchased recently a fine pair of silk hose. Upon returning home she discovered that one of the hoselets had dropped out of the package upon the street. If the finder will return same to the Leader he or she will be suitably rewarded and no questions asked.

Can't make O. H. Willard believe an ad in the Leader won't pay. He placed a little ad "Cow for Sale" in the last issue of the Leader. The next morning he had three buyers after that cow and had up to Friday received five more applicants from that little ten cent ad. Of course advertising pays!

Charles W. Edmonds, M. D.

EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT SPECIALIST.

Dr. Edmonds of New York City has located in Eugene, Oregon. After graduation at the University of Michigan the Doctor served an appointment as house surgeon to the University Hospital at Ann Arbor. He afterward located in Bay City, Mich., where he practiced general medicine and surgery for seven years. During this time he was president of the Saginaw Valley Medical Society; a member of the City Board of Health and an examining member of Board of Plumbers' License.

Doctor Edmonds has done work in the following New York institutions: New York Eye and Ear Infirmary, School of Pathology and Operative Surgery, Mt.
