DARROW'S FRANK ADMISSION.

Not only are the great labor leaders of the country, like John Mitchell and Gompers, in favor of prohibition, but Clarence Darrow, in his speech at Roseburg for the "wets" was honest enough to admit the following facts, which men like Rose deny, namely:

1. That the prohibitionists are honest and unselfish, and are trying to make the world better.
2. That many of the "wets" are fighting prohibition simply because they have money invested in the liquor business.
3. That prohibition speakers can beat the "wet" speakers; that "wet" speakers do not dare to enter into joint debates with prohibitionists.
4. That no enthusiasm can be aroused for a glass of beer.
5. That the question is not one of revenue. Darrow says he would be ashamed to discuss the revenue side of it, and thinks if the selling of liquor is wrong any town ought to be ashamed to get rich at it.
6. That neither whiskey nor beer is a food.
7. That drink is unnecessary, does no one good, and shortens life.
8. That prohibition does cut down the use of liquor, and that it is not true that more liquor is sold under prohibition than under the license system.

These are the statements and admissions of Clarence Darrow, the greatest socialist and criminal lawyer of Chicago, who is reported to have received five hundred dollars for his lecture at Roseburg. The people who paid Mr. Darrow that handsome sum of money for that lecture have been saying just the opposite of what Mr. Darrow says. Some of them did not know better and some did not care for the truth because their business interests were at stake. Now that a man of Mr. Darrow's ability has told them the truth, will they "be good?"

Clackamas county obstructionists are out with a postcard admonishing voters not to "rob old Clackamas of nearly half her territory and give it to Multnomah, already over-rich in wealth and political power." The card concludes its appeal to voters by urging them to vote no on all county division matters. This is rank injustice to every meritorious county division measure and as far as the other matter is concerned Multnomah is entitled to more territory, being the smallest county in the state, while Clackamas is one of the largest undeveloped counties of western Oregon. If the people of Multnomah and north Clackamas favor annexation, which they do apparently, why let them have it.

Since the adoption of state-wide prohibition in North Carolina the state has been making gigantic strides in commercial prosperity. Instead of being a blight, prohibition has been a blessing to that old state.

It is getting so there are nearly as many people mortgaging their homes to buy automobiles as there are to buy eggs and butter.

A FALSEHOOD CORRECTED.

They say, "the Democrat victory in Maine means the repeal of prohibition in that state." Groundless fears are entertained lest the prohibition amendment of the state of Maine be repealed, owing to the recent victory of the Democratic party in that state. As a matter of fact, Maine owed her present Prohibition Constitutional Amendment to the Democratic party of 1884, for it was immediately after the victory of that party that the amendment was submitted to the people of Maine, and carried by a two-thirds majority of the voters of the state. In addition, "Prohibition was not an issue in the late campaign."

EXPLANATION WANTED!

Will the Eugene knockers please explain how Nesmith county, which it is proposed to create from the extreme south end of Lane and extreme north end of Douglas, can include within its boundaries as they argue "the heart of Lane and Douglas counties." This is the boldest and most brazen falsehood yet sprung by the grafting, unscrupulous Eugene gang of political mountebanks and ringsters.

It is observed that the financial agent of the Eugene county seat ring has bought the editor of the Creswell Chronicle, to whom no doubt, an American dollar looks as large as a cart wheel and he is now doing the bidding of the Eugene ring in putting up an unscrupulous and underhanded fight against the Nesmith county cause. However, since that paper's circulation is confined to a single township its influence one way or the other, will amount to nothing, but the graft it has on the anti-Nesmith committee will assist materially in carrying that little starved sheet through the dull winter months.

N. D. Cool of Drain, who presented a scheme through Thursday's Eugene Register to boost Williams and defeat Nesmith county, received very cool comfort as open public support of the Williams fake scheme on the part of Eugene would incense Roseburg and cause that city to support Nesmith county. Just the same, Eugene is secretly boosting for Williams county by the circulating of gaudy literature in eastern Oregon. Eugene has no love for Roseburg except when she has an ax to grind.

The Eugene anti-Nesmith gang found anything but encouragement in their recent visit to Portland. After hanging around the metropolis for several days they finally got a hearing from the heads of four large business firms who then stated they would take the matter under advisement. The facts are, Portland is solid for Nesmith county.

Don't be fooled by the paid speakers and advertisements of the Oregon Home Rule Association into believing that regulation of the saloon with high license and other restrictions will solve the liquor problem. The saloon has no place among American institutions. The saloon cannot be regulated and should be abolished entirely.

The story which the Hon. (?) Sidney Story brought to Cottage Grove was old enough and stale enough to wear whiskers. His booze argument was completely shattered here by Mr. Fanning, the great Irish orator, and Mrs. Armor, the "Georgia cracker" some time ago.

The Register is opposing Stacey M. Russell, the anti-assembly republican who defeated the assembly candidate for the nomination for county clerk. This should elect Mr. Russell. Cottage Grove will give Mr. Russell another big vote.

At the eleventh hour, in hope of pacifying Jackson county Eugene's Commercial club comes out with a resolution favorable to the normal schools. This dilatory action at Eugene will not change Jackson county's vote for Nesmith.

Judge J. W. Hamilton of Roseburg, has lost none of his popularity at Cottage Grove since the primary. He has been tried and found true to his trust.

Vote "Oregon Dry" and do away with all these local and county temperance election contests.

Vote no on the illegitimate Williams county scheme, launched only to kill Nesmith county.

Sheriff Harry Bown is alright. Put an x mark before his name.

Vote against that price of political tricksters, Ike Bingham.

Vote for the state normals.

COMPLIMENT HON. B. F. JONES.

The subscribers to the following, residents of Toledo, Lincoln county Oregon, Mr. Jones' old home, have known him for from 15 to 40 years:

Toledo, Ore., Oct. 5, 1910.
B. F. Jones, Republican candidate for Circuit Judge of the Second Judicial District, was born on a farm near Lawrence, Douglas county, Kansas, February 24, 1858. In 1866 his father died, and he came to Oregon with his widowed mother and settled on the Yaquina Bay, in Benton county, where the town of Toledo now stands.

His mother died two years later, and for the next six years he spent his time in working in the logging camps of Douglas and Benton counties on the Umpqua and Yaquina Bays, and going to school in the winter time, acquiring his education in the public schools and at the Corvallis college. He then followed steamboating for ten years, working from deck hand to captain, and thus acquired a thorough knowledge of Oregon's waterways.

He served as county clerk of Lincoln county for three terms, during which time he studied law under the late Judge John Kelsey. In 1897 he was admitted to practice in all the courts of Oregon, since which time he has been actively engaged in the practice of law.

He represented Polk and Lincoln counties in the legislature for three terms, 1903, 1907 and 1909. He introduced the Demurrage Car Shortage bill in the session of 1903, which was defeated, and again in the session of 1907 introduced it and, being a member of the committee on railroads, had it incorporated into the Railroad Commission Bill, of which he was one of the strongest supporters.

In the session of 1907 he introduced what is known as the Jones Free Locks Bill, appropriating $300,000 conditioned that the Government would appropriate a like sum for either the purchase of the old or the building of new locks at the falls on the Willamette river at Oregon City.

At the same session he introduced a bill, and it became a law, repealing the former attempted act of the legislature, and acts amendatory thereto, granting to the Oregon Pacific Railway Company all the tide and overflow lands on the Alsea, Siletz and Yaquina Bays, aggregating about 20,000 acres of tide and overflowed lands, on the grounds that the legislature had no right to donate state lands to private individuals or corporations; and for the further reason that the railroad company had not, in thirty years, paid any taxes on the land, or complied with other conditions of the law.

In 1908 Mr. Jones filed two suits before the State Railroad Commission in the interest of the public; one against the Pacific Express Company, and the other against the Wells, Fargo Express Company, charging that their express rates were unreasonable, unjust and unlawful. These cases have both been decided against the express companies, and their rates reduced twenty per cent, thus saving annually to the people of Oregon many thousands of dollars. He is well qualified for the position circuit judge at Roseburg.

He was nominated without opposition, believes in the primary law, and a square deal for every one, no matter what his position in life may be.

ANOTHER LIE NAILED.

The "Home Ruin Assassination" says in reference to the search law embodied in the prohibition amendment that "it permits any officer, special or regular to break open your door at midnight and search your wife's or mother's room for liquor." This is an infamous lie. This same search law has been on the statute-books of Oregon for six years. The search clause is in every criminal law of every state in the union. However, a duly issued warrant is necessary in each and every case where a search is made necessary. How many times have the officers broke open your door and searched your wife and mother's room in the past six years? Vote against the Home Rule measure.

Florence West Favors S. W. Taylor.

It is announced that A. C. Jennings has decided to make the race as an independent candidate for the office of county treasurer. Mr. Jennings was a candidate for the nomination of the republican assembly for this office but was defeated by S. W. Taylor. He then sought the nomination at the primaries, but failing in this, he now comes out as an independent candidate. Mr. Jennings has received the support of the republican party and been elected to office by their votes several times in past years and his course at this time will not meet with the approval of many of his former supporters.—Florence West, October 7.

Don't fail Mr. Voter, to give Ike Bingham another knock-out at the polls next Tuesday. Vote for Bean republican, or Whittaker, socialist for joint senator.
