Experience Is The Best Teacher

And it is through experience that we have learned the merits of the Celebrated Mallory Hat. The numerous customers who asked for a Mallory Hat at our store in the past and who would accept no other caused us to "sit up and take notice." We profited by this experience and have secured the agency for this famous hat for Cottage Grove.

CHURCH NOTES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The church filling audience at the Methodist church on Sunday evening thoroughly enjoyed Miss Eunice VanDenburg's reading "The Burial of Moses. Very vividly that unique scene was brought before her hearers.

Mrs. Clara G. Esson of Forest Grove will speak at the Christian church next Sunday at 11 a. m. Bible school at 10. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Evening subject, The Conquering Sign. A welcome for all.

In future a layman of the Methodist church will have charge of one weeknight meeting each month. Brother F. B. Simeral leads on Thursday at 7:30. Several years will pass by before any of them are called upon to officiate the second time because of the large number of consecrated men connected with the society.

At Phillips hall on Friday evening the reds went down to defeat before the onslaught of Wheeler's blues. The official score is as follows: Blues 349 feet, 4 inches. Reds 330 feet and 3 inches. The last two battles are sure to be well attended. Very substantial refreshments will be served to all who take part in them.

At the People's popular service in the Methodist church on Sunday evening, the pastor commences a series of unusual services. Several well known business men of the city have written letters why they do not attend church. Three of these will be read and comments made thereon. Frankly these men have stated their reasons. Selection by Lady's quartette, Mesdames VanWinkle, Schreple, Brund and Miss V. Lockwood. In the morning at 11 o'clock public worship with sermon by Robert Sutcliffe upon "The Complaint of the Unappreciated." Bible school at 10.
