Fresh Air in Winter

In winter, it is hard to get fresh air in certain rooms. Some rooms in a house are usually colder than others, and if you open the windows it is hard again to heat the room properly.

If you keep the windows closed you don't get fresh air; if you keep them open you cannot quickly reheat the room. The

In a vast country like Russia, hardly yet opened up by railway communication, it is not surprising that there should still be a great fair like that of Nishni Novgorod. This town forms the meeting place of Russian and Asiatic traders, and the amount of business done there is probably equal to that of half a dozen of the largest fairs of the middle ages. Vast quantities of skins, iron, tobacco and cheap manufactured goods lie about in great heaps, and surrounded by the waters market place arise shops and booths to the enormous number of ten thousand, while the visitors exceed half a million. The total business transacted at each fair is said to be about two hundred and fifty million dollars, and the credits opened there exceed this figure.

Got Nothing From Legacy.
The deacons of a Baptist chapel in Celtenham, England, got a shock wan they heard the contents of the will of one of the chapel trustees, who died in December, 1908. By a codicil he left a hundred pounds to the chapel for each deacon who attended his funeral. There were nine deacons, but not one of them attended; so instead of the £900 by which the chapel might have been the richer, the legacy was vold.

A certain Harford (Md.) farmer has hit upon a mode of relief from trespassing fowls belonging to his neighbors. On one end of a thread four inches long he fastened a grain of corn and on the other end a tag in-scribed "Please keep me home."
