NAVARRO YIELDS TO REBEL TROOPS

Mexican General in Dire Straits, Forced to Surrender.

Further Revolts Are Feared as Result-Government Rushes Troops to Scene of Hostilities.

Mexico City-General Navarro has surrendered to the rebels, according to a report that has reached here from authorities which have heretofore proved reliable in the matter of war

The government denies the report and says that he is awaiting reinforcements. Officials say Pedernales is not menaced seriously by the rebels.

It is known from other sources that Navarro has been having a hard time. His men are not used to the severe winter climate of Chihuahua. They are not properly clothed and are short of food and ammunition. It is considered here that if Navarro has not surrendered, he is liable to do so at any
