Ye Old Town Quartet.

The Lyceum Bureau concert given at the Armory last Friday evening by "Ye Old Town Male Quartet" was well attended and the entertainment was exceptionally good. This quartet has made a reputation for its ability to sing songs that please. Never has any male quartet pleased a Cottage Grove audience more than this one. They are certainly artists in their line each one being an actor as well as a singer—and they are not only pleasing to listen to, they are good to look upon; their voices blend as perfectly as the keys of a properly tuned and exquisitely touched piano. They are all Kansas boys, T. A. Fannell, first tenor, being an old Topeka high-schoolmate of our esteemed townsman, Attorney W. C. Counter, and it was an enjoyable visit the two young men had during the brief stay of the quartet here. The other members were W. A. Green, second tenor; E. F. Tinker, bass and E. F. Myers baritone. Each member possesses an excellent solo voice, and by long training and work together the quartet is able to give unusual ensemble results. The quartet numbers in rube costume, together with readings and solos, give just enough variety to their program. These four young men have sung together for nearly three years and have met unusual success in their concert tours.

DIED.

HOLDER—At Silver Lake, Oregon, Dec. 31, 1910, William Holder, aged 56 years, having been born August 11, 1854. Interment in the Paisley, Oregon, cemetery. The above notice was sent to the Leader from Silver Lake, so we presume deceased has relatives and friends residing in this community.

James Patten, son of Mr. "Boney" Patten of the Mosby creek district, died of consumption at a Salem hospital on Wednesday night, aged 25 years. Deceased leaves a widow and a child to mourn his loss.

Medicines that aid nature are always most effectual. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It allays the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Thousands have testified to its superior excellence. Sold by Benson's Pharmacy.

Married.

ALLEN-ANGEL—At 4 p. m. Tuesday, January 3, 1911, at the rectory, by Rev. P. K. Hammond, Virgil H. Allen to Miss Mary A. Angel.—Register. There is no disputing the fact that Mr. Allen got an angel.

Mrs. A. C. Marsters, formerly Miss Livia Bond, arrived in the city from the south on the noon train Thursday after a visit with friends at Cottage Grove. She now resides in Portland.—Eugene Register.

Now is the time to take those carpet rags to J. M. Comer, the carpet and rug maker, before the spring rush comes on. His cooper work has also slackened up now and he can turn out carpets and rugs promptly. Give him a call at his home on Wall street west of the Adventist chapel. See his ad.

Nate Compton has accepted a position as salesman in Burkholder's big general merchandise establishment, a position he held with entire satisfaction prior to his returning to Iowa a couple of years ago. Old patrons will be pleased to see him in his old accustomed place.

"Red" Culp of Leland, a resident of Cottage Grove in the palmy days, spent last week as a guest of relatives and old friends at this place, after an absence of ten years. He said there was little left to recognize Cottage Grove of his time and that he was pleased to notice the progress and advancement here. He says his son, John, the barber, now resides at Marcola and is doing well.

Jas. Giles, father of Mrs. F. H. Rosenberg, of this city, died at Portland Saturday morning, Jan. 7, 1911, aged 73 years. He was born in London but came to this country when a small child. He leaves two daughters to mourn his loss, one residing here and the other in Portland, where the funeral was held, Mrs. Rosenberg attending from this city. Biography later.

CHURCH NOTES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Services at the Christian Science hall at 11. Subject of lesson sermon, "Life," Sunday January 15.

At the Presbyterian church, January 15, 1911, the pastor will begin a series of services on Bible study. The subject of the first sermon will be "A Prayer for Light." In the evening the subject will be "Self Control." You will be cordially welcome. Come and bring another.

Last Sabbath was an especially interesting day at the Methodist church. The workers of the Sabbath school were gladdened to see the largest attendance for months. Several new families were present at the services and made to feel thoroughly at home. Next Lord's day at 11 a. m., public worship and sermon by pastor on "Passing our Children Through the Fire to Moloch." People's popular service at 7:30 p. m. The choir gives one of their most interesting and enjoyable "evenings of music." A choice program will be rendered. Silver offering. Sabbath school at 10 with Jackson Goddard as superintendent. Brother L. A. Ralston conducts the Epworth League. Devotional meeting at 6:30. A hearty welcome to all.

Very seldom is a city the size of Cottage Grove privileged to hear a singer of the standing in the musical world, that Prof. B. P. Stout occupies. Fortunately for the people here he had an open date in February and the official board of the Methodist church was prompt in securing his services. Last year he worked with the First Methodist church, Portland, and his success was wonderful. Frequently to accommodate the throngs who wished to hear him sing they had to have an overflow meeting in the large Sunday school room beneath the church. This gifted singer invests the simplest hymn with a charm that is indescribable. The members of the official board have taken upon themselves all details of the campaign so as to relieve their pastor of the work and worry, thus leaving him care free and the better able to preach each evening. These brethren are responsible for the various parts assigned them: Finance, J. I. Jones, E. Pervance, J. B. Lewis, Frank Wheeler and W. F. Hart; music and song books, J. O. VanWinkle, W. C. Counter, Jackson Goddard and Homer Harris; ushering and oversight of the edifice, J. B. Simeral, J. Benson, L. A. Ralston and Wm. Arne; advertising, F. Phillips, W. Hubble, W. Hogate and C. H. Jones; preparatory and personal work during meetings, Mrs. Mabel Chambers, Mrs. Eva Wheeler, Miss Jessie Berg, F. W. DeLong and F. C. Ralston.
