REBEKAH MEETING

The secretary's report on the late annual convention of the district Rebekah order, has just been compiled and was given to the Leader for publication, which is presented as follows:

The Rebekah district, comprising Elkton, Yoncalla, Drain, Loran and Cottage Grove, held its annual convention in Cottage Grove December 16, which was declared the most successful and largest attended convention of this excellent order ever held in this district. Each locality furnished a number of delegates, the largest representation coming from Yoncalla, which place furnished 43 of the grand total. The meeting was a feast of fraternal good cheer and fully exemplified the fraternal and benevolent principles of the order.

At 4:30 p. m. the convention was called to order by chairman, Mrs. Lizzie Hall, of Cottage Grove, and after disposing with the minutes of the previous meeting, the following program was carried out: Instrumental solo—Mrs. H. C. Stearns, of Yoncalla.

Address of welcome—Miss Eunice VanDenburg, of Cottage Grove.
 To which Mrs. Livermore, of Yoncalla, delivered a very fitting and pithy response.

Paper—"A Tribute to the Rebekahs"—Miss Maybelle Wilson, of Yoncalla.

Reading, "Grandma's Courtship"—Miss Della Boyd, of Cottage Grove.
 Paper, "Imperishable Chain"—Mrs. Ida Caldwell, of Cottage Grove.

Select reading—Mrs. Nellie Rowe, of Creswell.
 Paper, "True Fraternity"—Jas. A. Davis of The Dalles; read by Mrs. Applegate, of Yoncalla.

At 6 o'clock the meeting adjourned and the announcement that supper was ready brought forth a hearty response, and upon repairing to the banquet room, two long tables, fairly groaning beneath their toothsome burdens, greeted the one hundred and twenty-five Rebekahs who had assembled to assist in making the convention the auspicious occasion which it proved to be.

Supper over, the assembly again sought the spacious I. O. O. F. apartments and at 8 p. m. the convention was again called to order by the chairman, and the remainder of the program carried out, as follows:

Song—Miss Elsie Brewer, of Cottage Grove.
 Monologue—Mrs. Farnsworth, of Yoncalla.

After which Cottage Grove Lodge No. 24, and Golden Link Lodge No. 144, in the order named, exemplified the degree work in a manner highly commendable to themselves and pleasing to the assembly.

Upon a vote being taken, it was decided to convene the convention at Drain next year. The following officers for the year 1911 were then elected.

President—Mrs. Maud Applegate, Yoncalla.
 Vice president—Mrs. Anna Hoxie, Cottage Grove.
 Secretary—Mrs. Herrington, Drain.
 Marshal—Mrs. Mortensen, Yoncalla.
 Chaplain—Mrs. Batty, Yoncalla.
 Inside Guard—Mrs. Foster, Loran.

Program committee—Mrs. Ida Caldwell, Mrs. Knowles, Cottage Grove; Mrs. Kelso, Mrs. Farnsworth, Yoncalla; Mrs. Burnette, Mrs. Mattoon, Drain; Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Moore, Loran; Miss Ida Robinson, Mrs. Shambrook, Elkton.

At the close of the convention, Mrs. Maude Applegate extended thanks of appreciation to the Cottage Grove lodge for their hospitality and wished them many happy returns.

The officers and members were entertained by Chas. Hall, of the Arcade theatre, until the arrival of train No. 15, when all departed for their many homes, loud in their praise of Cottage Grove and her people. Nothing was left undone and no pains were spared by Cottage Grove to make the occasion a grand success, long to be remembered. The Rebekahs feel grateful indeed to the Rebekahs of Cottage Grove for their untiring efforts, and their esteemed hospitality will ever blaze forth as a star of the first magnitude, and we sincerely hope to meet with them again at some future time when we will be able to return a portion at least, of the many courtesies shown us upon the long to be remembered December 16, 1910.

TELEPHONING TO THE COUNTRY

THE city and county are bound together by a telephone line

The farmer and his family use the rural telephone constantly, calling up each other and the market town on all sorts of matters and for all sorts of supplies and information.

City people also find the rural telephone a great advantage. A traveler from his room in the hotel talks with the farm folks miles away. Without the telephone he could not reach them.

The farmer, himself, may travel far and still talk home over the Long Distance Lines of the Bell System.
