Eldredge Next Attraction

On Tuesday evening, January 31, Gilbert A. Eldredge, costumed character artist and impersonator, will appear in this city under the auspices of the Military club, being a third of a series of attractions given during the lyceum season.

Mr. Eldredge presents a widely varied, artistic and popular repertoire of costumed interpretations of a high order, changing quickly from humorous to pathetic, and from dramatic to sentimental representations. Mr. Eldredge stands today one of the most practically certain attractions on the platform. During the last seven years he has filled more than twelve hundred engagements. He is in line with the tendency of his time, and is ever on the alert to meet the demands of the public for generous, clean and thoroughly satisfying amusements. His line of work reaches all classes, from those who like the subtle humor of good old "David Harum" to the tragedy of "Julius Caesar."

By juggling the road assessment or levy with the general fund assessment the county court is collecting annually and appropriating for county road improvements from $2200 to $2500 justly and legally belonging to the municipality of Cottage Grove. The city council and commercial club will ascertain whether or not this rank injustice to our city must be tolerated. Injunction proceedings will no doubt soon be filed.

Rolled barley $1.20 per sack; shorts $1.30 per sack at Flour Mill.

Fine Stock of Ornamentals

S. B. Moss, the nurseryman, has just made a valuable acquisition to his fruit nursery stock by the addition of ornamental shrubbery and bulbs among which he has the famous Koster's grafted Blue Spruce, grown in Holland, altheas, Budded Lilacs, assorted colors, Irish Junipers, assorted Clematis, including the Ramsua, Weigelia, Spirea, Paeonias, Dahlias, Lillies, all kinds, Flowering Almonds, also three fine varieties of grapes, including the Niagara, Worden and Wyoming Red, all hardy and tested stock. No use to send to Portland or elsewhere for your ornamental or fruit stock, as Mr. Moss can save you money and also freight or express charges.

Notice to the Public.

Having purchased Arthur Louk's interest in the Cottage Grove creamery, I hereby solicit the continued patronage of old patrons of the creamery and guarantee satisfaction to these as well as new patrons. Am paying at present 35 1/2 cents per pound for butterfat. Ray Trask, so well and favorably known here and who has been connected with this creamery for several years, will be manager of this creamery. E. J. Moore.

Wallace says if such products were raised in larger quantities by our farmers his firm could make frequent carload shipments, when smaller sales cannot be made.

E. J. Moore of the Creswell Creamery has purchased the Cottage Grove Creamery of Arthur Louk and has taken possession of the same. The Cottage Grove plant has a capacity of 1000 pounds of butter daily and machinery capable of turning out 50 gallons of ice cream a day. The plant is in the hands of an experienced man who will conduct it under instructions from Mr. Moore. When the cream season opens in full force Mr. Moore will be able to put 1500 pounds of butter on the market daily with his two creameries. It is understood that Mr. Louk intends to again take up residence in Creswell, says the Chronicle.

NOTED SINGER WILL ASSIST IN MEETINGS

Preparations are well under way for the special services which begins in the Methodist church Sunday, February 12. The music committee will soon receive from the east 250 new song books. Upon their arrival rehearsals will commence so that the large chorus choir will be familiar with the numbers by the time Prof. Stout arrives to assume the leadership. The bulletin of the Englewood Baptist church recently had this to say of the great gospel singer: "The evangelistic services come to a close today. That untold good has been accomplished, all most realize. The prominent factor, in this gracious work, has been Prof. B. P. Stout, Singing Evangelist. He has a powerful voice, capable of the sweetest modulation, and this he used with marvelous effect in presenting the gospel in song. We bid him God-speed as he goes, with thankfulness for the great work he has accomplished. We love him for his devoted service, his wonderful songs, and his tender appeals which have won many to Christ.

We are quite sure that this brilliant man will more than fulfill all expectations when he begins work in our city.
