Good Advice.

The following extracts from a letter received in Cottage Grove by a faithful member of the Christian church from her daughter in Portland, will be of interest to our readers: "I want you to attend the Methodist meetings next month. Prof. Stout is a wonderful singer. When you hear him once you'll go all the time. His songs are heavenly. He held a meeting at the Taylor street church last winter. They had to open the big Sunday school room below and it would be filled to overflowing. No standing room in any place. He would hold half the time in each place so that all could hear. Sometimes the entire service would be singing. They are sermons in song. Many of them he has composed. His favorite songs here were: 'I want to go there dont you?' 'My Mother's Prayer,' 'Lil Brae Sheep,' 'Ninety and Nine.' They are all fine and he never seems to get tired." This great singer is certainly a wonder. Over 2500 were present at his last meeting in the big Methodist church of Portland. He begins his campaign in Cottage Grove Sunday Feb. 12. The meetings will be entirely non-sectarian. No sect differences will be mentioned, let alone emphasized.

The Evangelistic meetings at the Christian church were discontinued because of severe illness in the family of Rev. J. N. McConnell. A new meeting is planned for, to begin about April 1. Arrangements are being made to secure the services, in song, of Prof. and Mrs. George W. Webb. These splendid singers rank among the leading evangelistic singers of the northwest. Rev. McConnell will do the preaching. "The Mind of the Master," will be the subject of the morning discourse at the Christian church, Sunday Jan. 29. Evening, "The Slave Driver." Bible school at 10 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Services and interest are growing right along at the Presbyterian church. There was a large attendance at Sunday school, and we expect a still larger attendance next Sabbath. A well filled auditorium greeted the pastor at the preaching service. Next Sunday morning the subject will be, "The Best Thing in the Best Place." Sunday evening, January 29, at 7:30 o'clock, Mr. S. D. Allen of Eugene, will speak; subject, "The Indebtedness of Free Government to the Teachings of Jesus." We want you at all these services.

Elder F. S. Bunch, president Southern Oregon Conference of the Adventist church, is attending the meetings here which are being ably conducted by Elders Comer and Black. The conference committee meeting of this church was held here today. Elder Bunch speaks tonight on the subject, "Will the Catholic Church Rule the United States as She Did Rome." Rev. Groat preached at Dillard last Sunday the 22d. Returned home Monday and expects to be at Elmira the 29th for Sunday services. His time is fully occupied since his resignation at this place.

W. B. Cooper will build a handsome residence on the corner of Fourth street and Tennessee avenue in the spring. He will also erect two houses for sale east of the tracks.
