

ROYAL Baking Powder Economy

The manufacturers of Royal Baking Powder have always declined to produce a cheap baking powder at the sacrifice of quality.

Royal Baking Powder is made from pure grape cream of tartar, and is the embodiment of all the excellence possible to be attained in the highest class baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price, and is more economical at its price than any other leavening agent, because of the superlative quality and absolute wholesomeness of the food it makes.

Mixtures made in imitation of baking powders, but containing alum, are frequently distributed from door to door, or given away in grocery stores. Such mixtures are dangerous to use in food. In England, France, Germany and some sections of the United States their sale is prohibited by law. Alum is a dangerous mineral acid, and all physicians condemn baking powders containing it.

The label of alum baking powders must show the ingredients.

Horace Marsters, a prominent real estate dealer of Roseburg, with his wife and family passed through this city in their Maxwell touring car Wednesday on their way to the Rose Carnival at Portland. The joke is on friend Marsters. He called on the Leader and gave Cottage Grove a severe chastizing for the condition in which he found the Pass Creek canyon road five miles south of this city and he wanted to know what was the matter with Cottage Grove and Lane county that such road conditions were permitted to exist in such a prosperous appearing community. We told him Cottage Grove and Lane county were forced to tolerate this "worst road in Oregon" from the fact that it belongs to Douglas county. We asked Roseburg's permission in last November's election to put that canyon road in good condition and maintain it and develop that section of country by including it in the proposed Nesmith county, but we were turned down. So it is now up to Roseburgers to improve it or forever hold their peace. Mr. Marsters says he is sorry now that they did not give us that canyon road and tributary territory.

CHURCH NOTES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Last Sabbath four adults were added to the membership of the Methodist church. Not a week goes by without additions.

Services at the Christian Science hall 11 a. m. Subject of lesson sermon "God the Preserver of Man," June 11, 1911 and Wednesday 7:30 p. m.

At the Presbyterian church next Sunday June 11, the pastor will preach two sermons that you cannot afford to miss. The morning subject at 11 will be "More than Conquerors." Evening subject at 8 o'clock, "Caleb and Joshua."

Services as usual next Sunday at the Baptist church morning and evening. The pastor will continue the study in the life of Christ and the evening subject will be "The Tempted Christ." Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 8. Preaching in the morning at 11 and in the evening at 8 every Sunday. A cordial welcome to all.

Robert Sutcliffe has prepared a special address for the scholars of the bible school at the Methodist church on Sunday morning at 11. His topic, "The Boy who Slept in the Church." People's Popular service at 8 p. m. Lecture by pastor on "The Foolish King and His knife." Special music. Bible school at 9:45 and Epworth League devotional meeting at 7 conducted by Donald DeLong. A hearty welcome to all.

It was necessary to open all of the side rooms to the main auditorium of the Christian church to accommodate the large audiences which came to hear the Kellems-Humbert Evangelistic team last Sunday. The meeting has started most favorably and bids fair to be a splendid success. Mr. Kellems is a preacher by natural endowment. His father and mother are both preachers. The same is true of Mr. Humbert, the leader of song. The rapidity of Evangelist Kellems' utterances and the force of his enthusiasm astonish those who hear him. Miss Summers will sing solos and direct the personal work. Preparations are being made to canvass the town thoroughly in order to secure a religious census. One adult reclaimed last Sunday. Seven adults united with the church shortly before the meeting began. Services each evening this week and both morning and evening next Sunday. With the exception of Saturday evening (7:30) the services will begin at 8 p. m. and continue for one hour.
