Accidental Shooting.

While fishing on the Coast Fork above London Springs Sunday, Lawrence Brumfield dropped his .38-caliber revolver from his hip pocket and the weapon was discharged, the ball passing through the fleshy part of his hip. A physician was summoned and later in the day the young man was brought to his home in this city in an auto, his wound not being considered serious. Young Brumfield has been driving Johnson & Co.'s delivery wagon for some time past. The prospects are good for his recovery.

CHURCH NOTES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The Children's Day exercises at the Presbyterian church Sunday was well attended, and an interesting program was rendered.

Services at the Christian Science hall 11 a. m. Subject of lesson sermon "Christian Science" June 25, 1911 and Wednesday 7:30 p. m.

Elder J. M. Comer has erected a mammoth pavilion at Eugene, and will hold Adventist revival meetings there for a year. He has an organized force covering the various branches of church work.

Evangelistic meetings at the Christian church still continue. Services each evening at 8 o'clock and both morning and evening next Sunday June 25. Subjects will be announced on the blackboard, corners of Main and Fifth.

At the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning, June 25, at 11 o'clock, there will be the second quarterly communion of the Lord's Supper. In the evening at 8 o'clock the pastor will give an address on "Gideon," as the next in the series on Great Bible characters.

These summer Sabbaths at the Methodist church are most enjoyable. Public worship at 11 a. m. with address by pastor on "A Glorious Nickname;" antem by choir. People's popular service at 8 p. m. Robert Sutcliffe speaks upon "What two Leaders of men said in the Presence of Death." Miss Armored Sutcliffe sings "A Perfect Day." The bible school shows no falling off in attendance or interest. Sessions at 9:45 in order that we may have a full hour for the gathering. The Epworth devotional service at 7 is largely attended. Dozens of fervent prayers and testimonies nightly. Miss Armored Sutcliffe is the leader of the next meeting. A hearty welcome to all these services.
