PUSHING REFERENDUM

Salem, Ore., July 21.—Although advices received here indicate that H. J. Parkison is in Chicago, instead of in California, where he said he intended to visit his mother ex-Justice W. T. Slater said today that there will be no attempt to bring him back here in connection with the suit to save the appropriation for the University of Oregon from the operation of the referendum.

"All I am waiting for now is the names of the plaintiffs in the case," said Mr. Slater. "When these are received, the complaint will be filed. It makes no difference to us whether Parkison has 'skipped' the country, whether he is in California or whether he is in Oregon. We will go ahead and pursue the suit and win out, regardless of Parkison."

The Commercial club of Vancouver, Wash., has the right idea. It will foster closer business relations between the business men of that city and the farmers throughout the county. Frequent visits to each part of the county will be made by the city men and every possible assistance will be given those of the outlying country. Co-operation in building roads and other matters of mutual benefit will be the result of this policy.

The Leader office turned out 500 promotion booklets for the real estate firm of Wilkinson & Ralston last week. The booklet contains a fine write-up of the town and country and has three fine half-tone pictures, one of the city 22 inches wide, which folds in the center of the booklet like a map.

The married ladies of Creswell will give a "husband show" Friday July 28, at which time prizes will be given to the "handsomest man" and to the most domesticated man. Very kind in those Creswell ladies to give the old man a show once in a while.

"No disagreeable fogs" was the way Wilkinson & Ralston, penned it for the Leader write-up of Cottage Grove last week, but our type made it read, "no disagreeable frosts," and the joke is not on us.

The Lane County Veterans' Association is composed of old soldiers of the Civil war, and have a reunion every year. This year they will meet in Springfield on the 5th, 6th and 7th of October.

Married.

JOST-WILLARD—At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Willard, in West Cottage Grove, Wednesday afternoon, July 19, 1911, Mr. Fred Jost of Portland, and Miss Lulu Willard of this city, Rev. W. A. Elkins officiating.

The ceremony was only witnessed by relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. Jost is a well known Southern Pacific railroad brakeman and is a very exemplary young man. The bride is highly esteemed in this city and also at Grants Pass where she is well known. She held a position as compositor in the Leader office for some time and was also a telephone operator. The happy couple left for Portland on the Wednesday evening train, where they will reside. The Leader joins in extending congratulations and best wishes.

No Well Too Deep for This Farm Pump Engine

No Weather Cold Enough to Freeze It—No Hours Too Long for It to Work
At last we have found a pump engine that serves all the needs of the farmer and does it in the best possible manner. We investigated a score or more different makes and designs of portable engines to find the one best suited for our customers. We selected the Fuller & Johnson Farm Pump Engine. It is the most wonderful portable engine made. 400 to 1,000 Gallons Per Hour
Think of it! All the fresh water you want at any time or any place. Works in any well, regardless of depth. This farm pump engine completely solves the perplexing problem of Water. Supply for the farm in winter as well as summer. Pumps all the water needed for the house, dairy, barn, feed lot and pasture in a few hours. Costs less to operate than a tank heater and eliminates all boiler and trouble.

FULLER & JOHNSON Farm Pump Engine
Plenty of Power for Complete Water System

Just the thing for volume pump, pressure pump or tank system. Affords ample power for small Electric Lighting Plant. Works ditch pump and spraying outfits perfectly. Handiest Little Worker on the Farm

Ensuring a reliable water supply for the farm is but one of the ways the Farm Pump Engine proves its superiority. It has pulley for running any kind of hand or foot power machinery. It helps the women folks in the dairy and laundry. Runs the grindstone, feed mill, fanning mill, etc., for the men. Does the work of two extra hired men.

See the Little Wonder at Work
You have read all about this engine in your Farm Papers but you cannot fully realize what a wonderful little worker it is until you see it in action. We show it at our exhibition rooms, doing exactly the kind of work you would expect it to do on your farm. Bring in the whole family and look it over. It is worth a special trip to town. Be sure and come in.

SAW MILLS GET OLD FREIGHT RATE

Washington, July 18.—The interstate commerce commission today, in the case of the Oregon & Washington Lumber Manufacturers' association against the Southern Pacific and other Pacific coast carriers, held that the existing rate of $5 on a ton of rough green fir from points in the Willamette valley to San Francisco and points taking the same rate were unreasonable.

The carriers are ordered to put the rate at $3.50 a ton, excepting on the Wendling branch, from points on which a rate of $3.75 is ordered. The rates prescribed do not apply to mills located within the city of Portland, Oregon, which take a uniform rate of $5 per ton on all kinds of lumber.

Edward Ostrander, secretary of the Oregon & Washington Lumber Manufacturers' association, in commenting on the decision and the effect it would have upon lumber shipments from this city and the Willamette valley said:

"This is the case that was heard before Commissioner Prouty in February of this year at the time that the case of the Southern Portland mills was heard and which was also decided favorably to the mills a few days ago.

"The effect of the Willamette valley decision will be very beneficial to the mills in the southern part of the state where they are not so situated that they have the benefit of water competition.

CHARGING SINCE FIRST OF MAY.

"As stated in the dispatch from Washington it means the restoration of the rate within ten cents a ton that was in effect up till October of last year when the railroads immediately advanced the rate to $5 per ton. The interstate commerce commission suspended the advance pending the hearing here in February but the $5 rate suspension expired May 1 of this year since which date the railroads have been charging the advanced rate of $5 per ton from Willamette valley points to San Francisco bay points.

"The lumbermen's contention in asking for a return to the lower rates was that the new rate was not in conformity with rates on other commodities from Willamette valley points to San Francisco bay points.

"The decision will stimulate business for the Willamette valley mills and give them opportunity to enter the San Francisco bay markets with their common rough green lumber in competition with shipments moved by water.

"The rate charged mills on the Wendling branch has always been 25 cents higher per ton than from mills on the main line of the Southern Pacific."

The Willamette valley rates have been in litigation since 1907. The supreme court of the United States last February denied the legality of the interstate commerce commission's order of 1907 reducing the rates of $3.40 and $3.65. The present decision makes the rates from the east bank of the Willamette river, not including Wendling, $3.50 per ton and those from the west bank, north of Corvallis, $3.75 per ton.
