CHURCH NOTES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Services at the Christian Science hall 11 a. m. Subject of lesson sermon "Truth" July 23, 1911, and Wednesday 7:30 p. m.

Howard Fagen has been chosen assistant pastor and chorus leader of the Christian church for the coming year. The church will establish mission points a few miles out from the Grove. Mr. Fagen will preach at these points Sunday afternoons.

Gospel meetings will be held in a tabernacle in the grove adjoining the city park on the east by the church of God, commencing Wednesday evening, July 26, at 7:45, and continuing each day at 2:30 and evening at 7:45 indefinitely. All are cordially invited to come and hear the gospel preached in its fullness. Ministers will be present from Portland and Eugene.

The stereopticon lecture at the Christian church last Sunday evening was well received by the large audience present. At the close of the lecture an adult united with the church by primary obedience. "The Law of Rest," will be the subject of the morning discourse at the Christian church, July 30. Evening subject, "The Nature of Man." On the blackboard will be a large symbol of man's mystic nature. Bible school and Endeavor at the usual hours.

The services at the Methodist church are still on the up grade. Results are obtained almost every Sabbath. A list of blessed services the coming week. Public worship at 11 a. m. with address by pastor on "Keeping ourselves in the Love of God." Reception of members. Class meeting at 12:15. A season of blessing. Peoples popular service at 8 with sermon by Robert Sutcliffe on "Ready—The Key to a Wonderful Life." Hearty singing. Bible school at 9:45. Epworth League devotional meeting conducted by Miss Allie Phillips at 7. A hearty welcome to all these gatherings.

The services at the Methodist church last Sunday morning will long be remembered. At the close of the sermon the invitation was given for those to stand who desired the prayers of the congregation that they might become intimates of Jesus. A young man and a mother at once arose. The latter united with one of our sister churches in the evening. During class meeting one young man was received into fellowship.

PORTLAND PEOPLE ON WAY TO CRATER LAKE

An automobile party composed of prominent Portland people including Senator Dan J. Malarkey and wife, Edgar B. Piper, managing editor of the Oregonian and wife; Oskar Huber, who had charge of laying out of the Lewis and Clark exposition grounds, and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jackson of the Portland Journal, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Smith and Miss Klenner Smith, of Philadelphia, and L. G. Smith, of the Portland Telegram, stopped in Cottage Grove over night on their way south to Crater Lake where they will spend an outing. The auto carrying Editor Jackson and party broke down here and all today was required to repair it at a local garage.

REV. W. A. ELKINS

Pastor Christian Church

W. A. Elkins is entering upon the fifth year of his pastorate in Cottage Grove. The church has been prospered; perfect harmony reigns; the future outlook is most encouraging. Experience seems to teach that a long pastorate is much more desirable than a short one. A "new broom sweeps clean" to be sure, but an old broom knows where to find the dirt.

Tuesday was picnic day for the Rebekahs. About 25 ladies with three lonely Odd Fellows comprised the party. The day was spent very pleasantly at Star, the party going up on the morning train and returning in the evening. Mrs. Harlow acting as hostess showed the city folks a good time.
