CHURCH NOTES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Services at the Christian Science hall 11 a. m. Subject of lesson sermon "Spirit" Aug. 6, 1911, and Wednesday 7:30 p. m.

Midsummer congregations and interest are up to top notch at the Presbyterian church. Interesting sermons, interested people. Next Sunday Aug. 6, at 11 o'clock Rev. A. S. Mason will discuss the question, "Why is God Needful." You will be cordially welcomed.

At the Methodist church on Sunday morning two young people were received into membership. The pastor was assisted in receiving them by C. H. Jones, J. B. Lewis, Jackson Goddard and L. A. Ralston. These brethren represented the Stewards, Trustees, Sabbath School and Epworth League.

"What I Learned in the Forest," will be the subject of the morning discourse at the Christian church, Sunday Aug. 6th. At the evening service, 8 p. m., Pastor Elkins will draw a series of four large chalk pictures while he is preaching. He has never before attempted to draw more than one picture in a single service.

Judging by the congregations at the Methodist church one would hardly know it was mid-summer. Large audiences among them many strangers, were present both morning and evening last Sabbath. Half a hundred enjoyed the League service. Next Sunday morning at 11 the Pastor speaks on "An Unfortunate Nap." Peoples Popular service at 8 p. m., with lecture by Robert Sutcliffe on this interesting topic. "Disturbing the Church Service." Hearty congregational singing from new books. Bible school at 9:45 and Epworth League devotional meeting at 7 conducted by Miss Esther Monroe. A hearty welcome to all.

Evangelist D. E. Oleson will deliver an address at the Christian church the evening of September 13th.

Merle Scovell and wife have returned home from a two weeks visit at Newport, Independence and Salem. Merle says while at Newport he took his first ride on the ocean and it didn't make him sick either; that's going some.

Some one will say, I never was so much surprised in all my life, why I traded quite a lot one day at The Fair and the next thing I knew they gave me my money back. One day's sale refunded during August, read ad.

C. C. DuBrulle, clerk at Lurch's store and his son Cecil, will leave this week for an extended outing on the McKinzie.

Your money back at The Fair. Read their ad.
