

HOW LANE COUNTY RIVERS WERE NAMED

In the special edition published by the Register in 1904 contained the following paragraph:

"The first cabin in that locality (the Long Tom) was built by John B. Ferguson and stood on the banks of that classical stream, the name of which is supposed to owe its origin to the exploits of a pioneer of Herculean size and strength who, while crossing this stream of wonderful cognomen, on the back of a cuitan, was precipitated therein by that native steed swimming from beneath him, while he, towering above the rushing waters, bodily waded ashore amid the plaudits of his companions, who christened the stream 'Long Tom.'"

ROW RIVER'S NAME.

On November 28, 1909, the Register published an interview with J. H. Shortridge, a pioneer resident of Cottage Grove, in the course of which occurs this paragraph:

"Row River, so Mr. Shortridge tells, got its name from the fact that one of its early settlers—a man named Clark—was continually having trouble with his neighbors, sometimes just neighborhood quarrels and again in lawsuits. Always in a row."

PREPARING FOR BIG COUNTY FAIR

The second annual exhibition of the Lane County Fair Association will be held at Eugene on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 20, 21, 22 and 23, and promises to be the best fair ever held in this part of the valley. Last year's exhibition, which was the first under the present organization, was more than pleasing to all, notwithstanding the handicap always to be overcome at the initial exhibition of an organization of this nature. But this season everything is being done to make the fair all it should be, and under the management of the competent men in charge everything points to a fair that would be a credit to any county in the state.

A glance over the premium book just issued by the directors shows a liberal list of prizes in every department. The purses for the racing features of the four days' entertainment are very generous and will no doubt bring many good horses to the meeting. The livestock, horticultural, agricultural, dairy and all other departments have been assigned plenty of time, space and prizes and the largest and best exhibits in the county's history will no doubt be in evidence.
