SHIP ALIGHTS ON BACK OF A WHALE

At the foot of a heavy swell over which she had glided with the speed of a small boy sliding down a cellar door the gasoline schooner Wilhelmina, Captain Tyler, arriving from Newport last night, alighted on the back of a whale, two miles south of Alsea Bay as she was bound for the Columbia River. The startled leviathan churned the water into a sea of foam, and gave the little craft a severe shaking while making his escape from beneath the hull.

The first blow hit the big fellow on his flukes just as he was coming up at the base of the swell. Without checking her progress the Wilhelmina went on and gave him a terrific rap on his dorsal vertebra. A shock on board followed similar to that produced by an earthquake. The schooner shivered like a man with the ague for the next few moments. But an inspection showed she was not damaged by the collision. The skipper says he does not believe the whale fared so well, although he appeared extremely lively when he came to the surface and steered a course for Japan.

Captain Tyler says he never saw whales so thick south of the Columbia River as they are this season. He believes it is due to the big schools of salmon and other fish on which the whales are feeding.—Telegram.

OREGON WOMAN AT HEAD OF W. R. C.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 25th.—The Woman's Relief Corps in session at Central Presbyterian church yesterday elected as its national president, Mrs. Cora M. Davis, of Union, Oregon. So close was the contest for the office that four ballots were taken before the choice was made and then it was found that Mrs. Davis had a small majority over Mrs. Geraldine Frisbie, of California, formerly of this city.

When the balloting began six candidates were nominated for the office, namely, Mrs. Ida McBride, Indiana; Mrs. Cora M. Davis, Oregon; Mrs. Eunice M. Munger, Oklahoma; Mrs. Belle W. Bliss, Wisconsin; Mrs. Geraldine E. Frisbie, California and Mrs. Lois M. Knauff, Ohio. Mrs. Bliss, Mrs. Munger, Mrs. Knauff and Mrs. McBride soon withdrew, leaving the field clear to Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Frisbie.

A Good Investment.

The best investment that many men make during the year is represented by the expense of their vacation, says the Success Magazine. They are paying out money and earning nothing, but they are putting themselves in superb condition for great business on their return. They are overhauling their mental machinery, renewing, restoring, lubricating, polishing the delicate bearings and putting them in a condition to run smoothly and noiselessly for the balance of the year.

There is no investment which pays such great dividends as keeping one's physical condition up to the highest standard—upon this hangs all our success and happiness.

The right kind of a vacation multiplies the power and effectiveness of all the faculties; it increases courage, confidence, self-respect; in fact every success and happiness faculty. Could there be a better investment?

Attack Like Tigers.

In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt-rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Calif., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c at all druggists.
