

PORTLAND MEN TO WIT- NESS TAFT PLY SHOVEL

Portland business men are preparing to go by special train to the Panama-Pacific ground breaking ceremonies in San Francisco. A message has been sent President Taft asking that he permit his private car to be attached to this train. No response to the request has been received, but it is anticipated that the president will consent.

It is likely that a number of citizens appointed on the committee to receive the president when he arrives in Portland, October 11, will attend the president on his way to San Francisco, via Salem, provided he approves the plan as outlined in the telegram sent him.

The chief function of the Portland delegation to San Francisco will not only be to watch President Taft overturn his first shovel of earth in the exposition grounds, but to locate the place of the Oregon building and exhibit there. When he was in Portland, official representative of the Panama-Pacific Exposition company, Senator Milton L. Schmidt of San Francisco, said that Oregon should have the pick of locations. For this reason he urged that the appropriation for building and exhibit be made large enough to properly represent the wealth and resources of the state. In this he was heartily seconded by Chairman Julius L. Meier of the Oregon 1915 Exposition commission.

Senator Schmidt's visit was immediately followed by the delegation of San Francisco business men and exposition promoters, who not only seconded what the senator had said but went further, saying that special care will be taken to see that Oregon gets as much benefit, in proportion, from the exposition as California will receive.

These visits and messages aroused such interest that the business people of the state are enlisted to see that not less—and if possible more—than $500,000 shall be appropriated by the legislature to pay the expense of the Oregon exhibit at the 1915 exposition. In addition many organizations throughout the state will adopt systematic programs of work, preparing their portions of the Oregon exhibit.

The above from the Portland Journal reminds us that this train will pass through this city and in case it should be at a time of day or night not too unseasonable and the train not driven too fast, a great number of our townspeople would no doubt like to be at the depot to at least wave a greeting to the president, or better still, if it should be agreeable to him, hear any remarks he might see fit to make as the train pulls through.

Going Far For Apples.

Easterners are always surprised to see the choicest places on the fruit stands occupied by Washington and Oregon apples. No matter that they have seen this year after year, they seem unable to get used to the idea that their own immediate localities cannot, or at least do not, supply the local demand, and of course they are always sure that better apples can be grown right at home than are produced in the far-away Pacific Coast territory. However, they keep right on paying from five to ten cents each for the western apples, but the shortage of the supply is encouraging more extensive planting in the rest of the country and the apples from Oregon and Washington may eventually have to look for a market in Liverpool and Hamburg, although they still hold their own.

STATE FAIR WILL BE GREAT SUCCESS

The Oregon state fair this year promises to be far the best fair yet pulled off at our Capital City, great interest being manifested therein by a larger number of people than ever before. The Salem Journal among other things says:

"With a greater number of counties contributing exhibits, and the exhibits of a greater variety and of a better quality; with a finer program of races, the purses more attractive, and the finest and fastest horses in the Northwest entered to compete for them; with a higher class of attractions—attractions of every conceivable kind and character; with more buildings and with more accommodations for the general public and with a state-wide interest thoroughly aroused, the fiftieth state fair is destined to surpass in every way any preceding fair—destined to go down in the state's history as the greatest, grandest and best of them all."

This fair will include exhibits from counties never before represented at our state fair, and upon the whole, a very interesting fair will be the result.

The live stock show and racing program are far the best yet put out, the latter including jumpers from all parts of this state and California.

Sperry Flour Company Introduces "Drifted Snow."

C. H. Smyser, advance man for the Sperry Flour Co., of Tacoma, Washington, accompanied by Cyrel Colbath, a young friend, spent a little time in this city one day last week looking after the interests of the company. They distributed samples of the "Drifted Snow" brand over town, it being the desire of the firm that every housewife in Cottage Grove get a chance to try this flour in order that she may become convinced of its excellent qualities.

In the future "Drifted Snow Flour" will become very familiar words in the many homes of our town as this great company has made all the necessary arrangements to have this flour handled by all leading grocers of the city, and thoroughly advertised.

This brand is made at their large plant at Tacoma where much pains are taken to procure the various varieties of wheat which are blended together to produce the desired effect in the manufacture of this flour which accounts for its peculiarly delicate flavor and great rising qualities which combine to make home bread baking easy and highly satisfactory.

SUGAR TAKES ANOTHER RAISE

So rapid has been the advance in the price of raw and refined sugar at various centers, that one of the leading sugar jobbers at New York has withdrawn all prices and is today refusing to sell at any figure.

The public's purse is being opened wider each day as a result of the short beet sugar crop in Germany and Austria. Advances are almost of daily occurrence and no relief is in sight.

The little ones were affected today when the rapid advance in sugar prices caused candy manufacturers to advance their quotations on most varieties 1 cent a pound and further advances will soon occur unless there is a quick change for the better in the sugar market.

The new Harney Valley Branch Experiment Station is to be superintended by Leroy Breithaupt, a Clackamas young man, who graduated from the Oregon Agricultural College in 1910 and has since been instructor in agriculture and science at the Pendleton high school. Mr. Breithaupt proved one of the most brilliant and successful students that has gone out from the college, and will doubtless prove a competent director of the experiments in dry farming to be conducted near Burns. He is to be succeeded at Pendleton by A. A. Asbahr, of Hillsboro, who graduated this June from the agricultural college.
