28th Annual W. C. T. U. Convention.

The 28th annual convention of the W. C. T. U. was held at Medford in the Baptist Church, Oct. 5 to 9th inclusive. Mrs. Adah Wallace Unruh, state president, presiding. All state officers present except Mrs. Ward Swope, Cor. Secy., and Mrs. Webber, E. T. L. Secy. A royal welcome was extended to the delegates by the citizens of Medford. The Commercial Club presented us with beautiful badges, also several boxes of fine apples, pears, and peaches, which were duly appreciated. All spoke of the kindness and attention shown to us by our entertainers. During the day session general routine business of reports, etc, were carried out. All sessions being opened with prayer and praise services which were uplifting and comforting to those in attendance. Thursday evening was welcome night. Addresses were given by Rev. Holmes, Mrs. Holmes, and Mrs. Jefferies, which were full of good cheer and welcome, and were beautifully responded to by Mrs. Madge Mears, President of Linn Co., who fully voiced our appreciation of our royal reception, and hopes of much good resulting from our Medford meeting.

The report of our Cor. Secy. showed a large gain in membership and interest during the year, and the Treasurer reported everything paid up to date, and over $1000 in the treasury. County presidents reported more work done in the counties, while the report of the State Supt. was very satisfactory.

A workers conference was held every morning at 8:30 at which many new plans for work were made and recommended to be carried out by the local unions. Friday night was devoted to County Presidents, and the annual address of our State Pres. Mrs. Adah Wallace Unruh (which was in the Sunday Oregonian Oct. 9th.) The address was a masterpiece, and we were very proud of the forceful way in which she presented our cause to the people. Saturday evening a debate was given. Subject "Shall the Women of Oregon be enfranchised". Affirmative Mrs. Enright, of Salem, and Rev. Edith Hill Booker, of Kansas. Negative Mrs. Helen Harford, of Newberg, and Mrs. Mattie Sleath, Portland. The discussion was very interesting, both sides presenting their arguments very ably. Sunday several speakers from the Convention filled the pulpits of the different churches in the morning service.

Sunday afternoon a womens meeting was held, and the Baptist church was filled with women. Mrs. Sleath each gave a heart to heart talk on traffic in women. A childrens meeting was held at the M. E. church at 4:15 and L. T. L. was organized with 50 members. Mrs. Fulman volunteering to act as Supt. Mrs. Eva Wheeler, of Cottage Grove spoke to a number of young people at 6:30 in Baptist Church. Rev. Edith Hill Booker of Emporia Kansas, National Evangelist, spoke to a crowded house Sunday evening at the Opera House, giving a wonderful address. Her subject was "The Burning of the Great Gas Well." Mrs. Booker is one of our most talented National lecturers, and it was a grand privilege to hear her. The offering taken was nearly $50. Monday forenoon election of officers took place and all state officers except L. T. L. Secy. were unanimously re-elected, Miss Lois Smith being elected L. T. L. Secy. Monday night was the closing session. Our department work was demonstrated in tableau form, showing the work of the different departments, and for what we stand.

Mrs. Harrington, of Corvallis, and Miss Lois Smith, of Echo, State Musical Director, were our singers, and voiced our sentiments many times during the Convention in touching songs. An official call will be made to the National W. C. T. U. to meet in Portland in 1912. The measure for enfranchisement of women will be voted on at the fall election of 1912. An excursion to Ashland was planned by the ladies of Ashland and Medford, which was carried out on Tuesday morning at 8:30 and 36 delegates attended. We were met at the station by adies of the Ashl and Union, and marched in body to the High School building where Mrs. Unruh addressed the pupils, and our singers gave a song. We then went to the Ashland Hotel where the ladies had a reception for us, the room being beautifully decorated with fruit and flowers. Dinner was served at 11:30 to the delegates, after which we were taken over, the city in automobiles, coming back to the piazza where we had a short street meeting, Mrs. Unruh and Mrs. Booker speaking from their autos, and Miss Smith and Miss Harrington singing, after which we took our trains for our homes, tired, but happy in the thought that we had held a very profitable meeting. There were 93 delegates in attendance.
