arations for the rally by piling up wood on the school ground where they made their rendezvous for the stump speeches by different students and alumni students of the High School.

Saturday morning the Eugene team appeared bright and early, coming up by automobiles bearing streamers of their colors, purple and white, and were driven about our streets till the time came for the game. In this the Eugene boys proved too much for the local team, the score at the finish standing 16 to 0. While the score would indicate rather an uneven game, it was not so much so as to make it uninteresting. Our local boys had had no real hard practice, and during the first half allowed the visitors to "pass it over them," making three touchdowns, but during the last half they warmed up and held their own. While they did not score, they prevented the others from doing so, putting up a battle royal and furnishing first-class entertainment for the crowd in attendance.

Harry Martin and Carl Cellars were the star players of our team. Cellar is a remarkable good punter. The score was 16 to 0 in favor of Eugene.

The Cottage Grove line up was: Meddley, R. E. and Capt.; Woods, Q. B.; E. Damewood, F. B.; Cellars, R. H. B.; Mathewes, L. T. Lebo, R. G.; Sears, L. F.; Brumbaugh, C.; Harlow, R. T.; S. Damewood, L. E.; Martin, L. H. B.

Wead Fester and Harry Conner and Albert Anderson played sub. Eugene line up.

Son Lost Mother.

"Consumption runs in our family, and through it I lost my mother," writes E. B. Reid, of Harmony, Me. "For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a cough or cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble." His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed a Benson's Pharmacy. Trial bottle free.

Chattel Mortgage Sale.

By virtue of that certain chattel mortgage made on the 1st day of August, 1911 by Chas. E. Reed and Elizabeth Reed, to Pithian-Barker Shoe Co., a corporation, to secure the payment of that certain promissory note dated August 1, 1911, for the sum of $1500.00, with interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from date until paid, together with a reasonable attorneys fee, and default having been made in the payment of said interest and principal of said note and the conditions of said mortgage broken, I have taken possession of and now hold as agent for said mortgagee, and will at the request of said mortgagee, sell at public auction to the highest bidder in United States Gold Coin, cash in hand on Wednesday, the 22nd day of November, 1911, at the hour of ten o'clock a. m. at the premises, namely: at the farm of Elizabeth Reed in Lane County, Oregon, about ten miles west of Cottage Grove, Oregon, all the property covered and described in said chattel mortgage, being 1 jackass, ten jersey milch cows, one jersey bull, three acres of growing potatoes, about one hundred (100) tons of hay, one hundred head of hogs, all wagons, buggies, harness and farming implements, all chickens consisting of about one thousand (1000) chickens young and old, eighteen goats, two jennets, one cream separator and all horses not included in mortgage now held by First State Bank of Sutherlin at Sutherlin, Oregon, to satisfy and pay the amount due on said promissory note, together with costs and expenses and counsel fees.

OSTEOPATHY

What Some Well-Known People Think of it.

That Osteopathy is a science and has assumed a foremost place in the ranks of the healing methods is acknowledged by the reasoning and thinking public. The opinion of some of the foremost thinkers in our country concerning Osteopathy as a science and its efficacy as a healing method, is shown by the following which have been selected from among hundreds equally as strong by people equally as prominent.

Arthur Brisbane.

(Editorial writer for the Hearst newspapers. Mr. Brisbane is the highest salaried newspaper man in the world, receiving $72,000 a year. The following extract is taken from the Boston American of September 10, 1909.)

"Osteopathy is a science and a science of the greatest importance.

"Osteopathy cures, has cured and will cure many diseases; it will save many lives.

"Osteopathy in many cases makes surgery and medicine unnecessary.

"There is nothing of the quack or the transcendental faith-healer about the able Osteopath.

"When he understands his profession, which implies that he understands human anatomy, blood distribution and the distribution of the nervous force, the Osteopath is a scientific man valuable to the human race.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox.
(America's well-known magazine writer.)

"That some operations are necessary no one with good common sense will deny. That not over one operation in ten which takes place today is needed, I firmly believe.

"If you think of putting yourself under the knife at the suggestion of your physician, let me urge you to go first and consult a good Osteopathic physician."

Hon. Lon V. Stevens.
(Governor of Missouri, in replying to those who criticised him for signing the Osteopathic bill, said.)

"The science of Osteopathy assists in relieving suffering humanity, and I do not think I erred in signing the bill."

Hon. H. F. Pingree.

(Governor of Michigan, who signed bill legalizing Osteopathy in that state, said after a thorough and careful official investigation.)

"Osteopathy is a science entitled to all respect and confidence as a distinct advance in medicine. I know that it is doing a vast amount of good in relieving suffering and deformity that is not amenable to benefit from drug medicine."

Hon. T. A. Briggs.

(Governor of North Dakota, when imported by the Medical Board not to sign the bill legalizing Osteopathy in his state, said.)

"Osteopathy has helped me. It has also done good in my family and will hurt no one. The bill has passed both Houses and I will sign it."

Opie Reid.
(America's well-known writer and editor of Carter's Monthly.)

"My attention was first called to Osteopathy of a friend whose wife was cured of insanity. Closely following, I knew of a prominent business man who was cured of paralysis. It regenerated me. I have added reading to observation and I honestly believe it to be one of the most wonderful discoveries of my age.

Mrs. W. M. Springer.
(Wife of Congressman Springer—afterwards Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, Indian Territory.)

"I can never say enough in praise of Osteopathy. It relieved me from unbearable invalidism. I have seen it do the same for scores of others. I believed before I tried it that it was a scientific method and now I am convinced that Osteopathy is rational, scientific and wonderful. It will be the greatest blessing to the world."
