

FIXINGS for the FEAST

Mother, or grandmother or just dainty little Mistress Newlywed—where is the woman who doesn't pride herself upon the attractiveness of her Thanksgiving table?

A limited pocket book goes a long way at the store.

Here are satiny damask and pretty, tasteful table linens with napkins to match all to be had for most modest prices.

LURCH'S

Items of Local Interest

See the Antlers tomorrow night.

The finest of fresh vegetables on hand at the Commission Store.

M. H. Fagan will preach at Saginaw next Sunday at 3 p. m.

R. M. Veatch returned Thursday evening from Eugene where he had been on business.

W. N. McLaughlin who resides near Divide, was in town transacting business one day last week.

Dr. Job of this city, made a professional visit to Saginaw last week, to see a small pox patient.

FOR SALE—Buff Leghorn pullets. Wanted to buy a fresh cow. C. H. Fuller, Ostrander farm one mile northeast of depot.

We have Cooking Oil in bulk 95c per gallon, 5 gal $4.50. Brund & Co. 29-4t

Mr. J. A. Sullivan road manager for the American Weekly of the San Francisco Examiner is here with his men to write up their subscribers old and new. Here is a premium you have never heard tell of, 12 White Leghorn chickens express prepaid, for those who take the American Weekly for 3 years at $1.00 a year. Ask the men about the other premiums they are giving free with a years subscription.

Have Dr. Lowe relieve your head and eye ache with a pair of his correctly fitted glasses. They cost you no more than others and you have the benefit of his skill and more than 20 years experience as an exclusive optician.

G. W. Martin, a former resident of Coos county who has spent the past year or so in the valley, for the most part at Goshen, passed through the first of the week with his team, in route to his old home to renew residence near the coast. His wife and daughter, went down a head of him a couple of weeks.

We have Cooking Oil in bulk 95c per gallon, 5 gal $4.50. Brund & Co. 29-4t

A very pleasant surprise was given Mildred Comer daughter of Rev. J. Mark Comer, Nov. 12, 1911 this being her seventh birthday. Twenty-one of her little playmates were hidden away in a large room, and when Mildred returned with her father from town, they suddenly burst in upon her, showering her with all manner of presents, both useful and amusing. Refreshments were served. All reported having a very enjoyable time.

Diamonds at cost and under. Nothing is appreciated so much as a diamond. You can afford to buy your wife or sweetheart one for Christmas at the price for which you can get them at H. C. Madsen's. 29-4t

Nelson Lewis, of Divide, was in town last Saturday.

Schoil has jewelry and prices to suit everybody.

Have you seen those fine chickens at the Commission Store?

Dr. Kime was called professionally to Lorane one day last week.

A large lot of pretty dolls to go at half price at the Golden Rule.

If you want a nice chicken for Sunday dinner, call up Phone Farmers 184. 30-3t

Miss Della Perini, of Divide, did shopping in town one day the last of the week.

"Antlers" Minstrels tomorrow and the next nights, November 15th and 16th. Reserved seats on sale at the "Wave."

Miss Cloe Hedrick, of this city, attended the basket social and program at Divide which was held at the School house last Saturday night.

Interesting and profitable cottage prayer meetings were held on Monday evening by the workers of the Methodist church in the homes of Messrs. Gardner, Wilkinson, Jones, Handy and Nokes. One young lady united with the society at the Sunday morning service.

Solid gold scarf pins go for 75c, and all classes of jewelry, chains and fobs at cost at H. C. Madsen's. 29-4t

Miss Clara Groom, one of Cottage Grove's estimable and obliging telephone operators, spent last Sunday in Roseburg, being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hess. Mrs. Hess was formerly Miss Anna Miller of this city, and a telephone operator in the local office.

Let no one but an Educated eye specialist test and fit glasses to your eyes. Dr. Lowe has the necessary qualifications. Consult him Tuesday, Nov. 21. Remember the day and date.

Mrs. Crenshaw and cousin, Miss Sadie Griggs, of Brooklyn, New York, departed by the south bound 3:01 train Sunday after a visit with another cousin, Mrs. Hiram Griggs, of this city. They have been traveling sometime for health, which has proven very beneficial, the west agreeing with them perfectly, Miss Griggs having advanced in weight from 97 to 160 pounds, and claims to feel as well as she ever did.

Am not going out of business but have too large a stock for the dull times which I will sell for cost from now till Xmas so my customers will have the benefit. H. C. Madsen. 29-4t

Antlers' Minstrels tomorrow night and next night.

Marion Veatch received eight fine new pianos last week. They are selling rapidly.

When you can't think of what you want for dinner, just visit the Commission Store.

Mrs. Chan Whitlock, whom we reported in our last issue as being seriously ill, is rapidly improving.

J. R. Thompson, of Hotel Thompson, had business which called him to Eugene on Thursday.

FOR SALE—A good $18 overcoat, almost new for $6. Inquire at Garoutte & McCaleb's cleaning establishment.

County Commissioner R. J. Hemphill, of Eugene, made our office a pleasant call while in Cottage Grove Thursday.

Mrs. Francis Dugan, teacher in the Fairview district on Row river, passed through Cottage Grove Saturday en route to her home at Divide.

L. Elam returned home last Thursday after a two-weeks tour in Klamath county. He says that he likes the country fine, especially within the vicinity of Klamath Falls.

W. C. Conner, former publisher of the LEADER has disposed of the Coquille Herald and reached this city yesterday. We have not heard what his plans for the future are.

A game of football between a team from Creswell and the local 11 took place here last Saturday which proved a walk-over for the Cottage Grove team. The score stood 31 to 0.

DIED—In Cottage Grove, Oregon, Sunday, November 12, 1911, Mrs. D. Read, of paralysis, at the age of 69 years. The burial took place at the Pleasant Hill cemetery. Obituary next week.

At the city council meeting last week it was ordered that the curfew will ring each night at 9 p. m. an ordinance which has been overlooked for many months. Another hose cart and 200 feet of fire hose were ordered for the fire department.

The "Metsan" shop will be opened about the 30th of this month. Look out for new business. It will be different from any thing else on the pacific coast, and you will be treated right when you come to see what the "Metsan" means.

Silverware for Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners at cost at Madsen's. 29-4t

MARRIED—In Eugene, Oregon, Nov. 9th, 1911, Miss Franklyn Dean of this city and Mr. Clive P. Stafford, of Halsey, Oregon. Judge R. S. Bryson officiating. Miss Dean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Dean of the LEADER and Mr. Stafford was a one-time resident of Cottage Grove having spent the greater part of 1908 here. Mr. and Mrs. Stafford will make their home in Halsey.

The women of the Christian church will hold a bazar, the first or second week in December, watch the paper for further announcements.

You will enjoy the services at the Methodist church on Sunday, public worship at 11 a. m. with address by pastor. Subject: "Damaging Property or an Unusual Method of Bringing a man to Jesus" Anthem by large chorus choir. People's Popular service at 7:30 p. m. Robert Sutcliffe speaks about "Tissue-paper Excuses" Selection by male quartet. Bible school at 9:45. Epworth League devotional meeting at 6:30 conducted by Mrs. Clyde Umphrey. Topic: Giving Christ the Right of Way. A hearty welcome to all.

Call at Hotel Oregon next Tuesday, November 21, and have Dr. Lowe show you the reason why glasses with which you can see all distances. No unsightly lines or seams in the lens to catch dirt and strain the eyes, no cement to come apart. The kind that makes you feel young without making you look old. Remember the day and date. Free Demonstrations. Scores of References in Cottage Grove.

Photo by Mojer, P. A. Merriam

Chief Electrician U. S. Navy who gave illustrated lectures Monday and last nights at the Arcade, and who with continue the program Friday and Saturday nights. All should turn out and see and hear about the great navy of our country.

Dolls at half price as long as they last at the Golden Rule.

Mrs. Orford went to Eugene Monday for a short visit with friends.

J. H. Halley, of Divide, was in town Saturday and made our office a pleasant call.

Mr. Burkholder, the merchant, went to Roseburg the first of the week on business.

Henry Lowery, of Voncalla, was in town on Saturday. He made our office a pleasant call while in town.

Grill Soderstrom and Jesse Turner, of Divide, passed through Cottage Grove Saturday en route home from Skomokaway, Washington, where they have been employed during the past three months.

Messrs. Wheeler and Phillips last week sold their Saginaw farm to Mr. J. F. Boughton, a late arrival from Washington, and Mr. McCord, who has been connected with Mr. Goff in the shoe business near the S. P. depot. This is a splendid farm and there will be something doing right away.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Mary Smith last Thursday afternoon. A large number were in attendance and the meeting was full of enthusiasm. The ladies are working diligently for the bazaar which will be held just before Christmas. They also plan "A trip around the world" for New Years day. Plans are being laid early which will insure the affair to be a great success. Mrs. Smith served ice cream wafers and chocolate.

Special children's service at the Christian Church next Sunday evening. A large childrens choir will have charge of the singing and will render special solo and choruses. Prof. Billington, Sunday School specialist of the Eugene Bible University will preach a special sermon for the occasion. Come and hear the children sing.

The services of the day are as follows: 10 a. m. Bible school, 11 a. m. communion and Preaching 3 p. m. Junior Endeavor society 6. 30 p. m. Christian Endeavor society 7. 30 p. m. Special Childrens service.

Good Advice for Cottage Grove People.

People in Cottage Grove who have constipation, sour stomach or gas on the stomach, should use simple backthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adlerika, the new German appendicitis remedy. A single dose brings relief almost instantly because this simple mixture antiseptizes the digestive organs and drains the impurities. New Era Drug Store.

THE FINISHING TOUCH

to the Thanksgiving dinner is impossible unless plate and platter, cup and saucer, goblet and fingerbowl are of the daintiest and eyesatisfying kind. Give yourself surcease from turmoil—in terse English, don't worry about your table furnishings. Buy your chinaware, glassware and kitchen crockery from us and be sure of getting the right kind at the right price.

KERR & SILSBY

GRIFFIN-VEATCH Hardware Co.

Tents, all Sizes and Prices

Builders Hardware,
Spray for Codling
Moth, Everything in Hardware.

Lawn Mowers, Garden Hose

Sporting Goods, Fishing Tackle

WEST SIDE GROCERY

First-class, clean groceries at lowest possible prices
Ladies' and children's shoes, good as the best and cheap as the cheapest.
Coal oil 15 per gallon.
Everything else in proportion.

LOUIS JENSEN

WEST SIDE

Good Luck In Baking

Is largely due to the flour you use

DRIFTED SNOW FLOUR

Assures you success because it is always the same—good to-day, next month, next year—all wheat milled by us must be up to the standard, and our milling process assures those qualities in the flour that give it unexcelled grade

Be satisfied with your baking by using "Drifted Snow" Made By

Sperry Flour Co.

TACOMA, WASH
Spray & Co., Distributors

Get your Sunday chicken at the Commission House.

A very successful attendance contest in the Mizpah Bible Class of the Presbyterian church came to a close last Tuesday evening, when the losing side entertained the winners. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and music after which ice cream and cake were served.

Pure Drugs

Produce good results. If you send your physician's prescriptions to us they will be most carefully compounded and only the purest and freshest of Drugs will be used. We always carry a large supply of that we can highly recommend. In all cases our prices are worthy of your notice.

Patent Medicines

Benson's Pharmacy