Foot Ball.

A lively game of foot ball was play at this city last Saturday when the high school boys of Cottage Grove and the Rooks of the O. A. C. at Corvallis came together on the local gridiron east of the depot.

At the close of the game which was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic crowd the score stood 10 to 0 in favor of the local high school boys. The line-ups were as follows:

Cottage Grove. S. Damewood l e; Mathews, l t; Sears, f g; Brambaugh, c; Lebou, r g; Harlow, r t; Wood, r e; Martin, l h; E. Damewood, f; Cellers, r h; Meley, q.

School Census.

J. K. Barnett, clerk of this school district, has just finished making an enumeration of the scholastic population of Cottage Grove which shows an increase of 59 pupils over last years' enumeration, there being at this time 755 persons of school age within the district.

This shows a gain of nearly twelve per cent, a showing few towns in the state has made in the past twelve months. With the proper interest taken in the way of establishing and encouraging manufacturing industries, this can be more than doubled in another year.

Mrs. Groat was called from home last Wednesday to see a sister Mrs. March who is very sick. The day of her return is uncertain, as she is fourteen miles west of Eugene. The Elder has a cat, worn out and is seen but little away from home these days.

F. J. Hard, of Eugene is in town today.

John Graber came down from the Bohemia mines lately and will not go back this winter, but be a resident of the Grove till spring opens.

Worth Harvey of the First National Bank, has been appointed a notary public by Gov. West.

Oliver Veatch visited Eugene one day last week.

Diamonds at cost and under. Nothing is appreciated so much as a diamond. You can afford to buy your wife or sweetheart one for Christmas at the price for which you can get them at H. C. Madson's.

Don't forget the Cottage Grove Cleaning Works when you are in need of some clothes cleaned or some dying done. All work is guaranteed if we spoil any clothes we pay for them.

Saginaw Items.

Miss Fora Queen who is teaching school at London was home over Sunday.

Miss Myrtle and Miss Cora Witcher were home Sunday. They are staying in Cottage Grove and have not been home for some time on account of their folks having the smallpox. Fred Witcher has the smallpox now.

L. Tucker is home from Disston where he has been working for the J. I Lumber Co.

The Easley Brothers have gone back to old Missouri. They took their household goods and ten head of horses with them. We will look for them back in about a year.

Messrs Kinny and Thomas who bought the farm of Mrs. Harding have several men and teams at work grubbing and clearing the land so they can build some new fences. It is their intention to clear off and set out the entire place of twelve hundred acres to fruit.

Mrs. G. H. Bennett came up from Eugene Saturday to visit with her children.

BORN—At Creswell, Nov. 28th, to Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Rowe a pair of twin boys. The mother and sons are getting along fine but the Prof. did not get back to his school until Monday of this week.
