

Items of Local Interest

See thead of the Milburn Kenworthy Co. on our 6th page.

Don't miss the Virginia Warblers at Armory hall next Monday.

The Milburn-Kenworthy Co. will be at the Arcade Theatre on the 6th inst.

Rev. Fuller, of Eugene, returned home yesterday after a visit with friends here.

Miss Margaret Riley, of Albany, visited friends a few days last week in this city.

J. W. Smart and G. W. Montgomery are late arrivals in this from Clinton, Oklahoma.

O. F. Ross, from Claud Chief, Oklahoma, registered at Hotel Oregon Sunday.

BORN—In Cottage Grove, December 26, 1911, to Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, a daughter.

Mr. Umphrey, of Lorane had business which called him to Portland one day last week.

S. W. Martin, of Silver Lake, Oregon, is here visiting his uncle, N. H. Martin, of this city.

B. Hartley had business which called him to the southerly part of the state last week.

LOST—Check book, with two checks enclosed. Check book on Merchant's Bank, Eugene, Finder please leave at this office and receive reward.

Rehearsals are to begin in a few days for the entertainment to be given by the men of the Methodist church one of the most interesting features will be a clever musical sketch.

Frank Woodruff, the plumber, got a fall while working last week which gave him a terrible shaking up and some very severe bruises as well as slight internal injuries. He is able to be up and around and will be all right again in a short time.

L. E. Lyon who lives a couple of miles east of town, was in yesterday with his little son, Master Clifford, who is threatened with an epileptic affection, and is being treated by an electric appliance by Dr. Kime. We hope he may soon be entirely recovered.

When her child is in danger a woman will risk her life to protect it. No great act of heroism or risk of life is necessary to protect a child from croup. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and all danger is avoided. For sale by Benson's Pharmacy.

The second number of the Lyceum course of entertainments given under the auspices of the Woodmen of the World and the Knights of Pythias, take place next Monday, January 8th. This entertainment will be by the Carter's Original Virginia Warblers, singing the real Negro Melodies and Plantation songs of years ago. If you fail to come out and hear them you will miss a musical treat that you may always regret. Come out and give those worthy lodges a boost and enjoy the best entertainment of the season.

The Virginia Warblers at Armory hall next Monday.

Fresh oysters cooked any style at Charley's.

A. G. Adolphson was in from the Champion mine on Friday, registering at Hotel Oregon.

BORN—In Cottage Grove, New Year's Day, to Mr. and Mrs. Kern Cooley, a daughter.

O. G. Gilbertson, of Bohemia, was in town Friday evening, having returned from a visit of several days at Portland.

A good high grade piano for sale very cheap on easy terms, or will take some live stock in trade enquire at this office.

Mrs. Charles Umphrey started on her return home New Year's Day after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ostrander, of this city.

MARRIED—In Cottage Grove, December 29, 1911, Clyde Langdon and Miss Jennie Chesbro, late of Corning, California, Rev. Hoven officiating.

Mr. Levi J. Green, of this city, who fell and broke one of his legs while assisting in the construction of a house at Eugene last fall, is able to be out on crutches.

Every family has need of a good, reliable liniment. For sprains, bruises, soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains there is none better than Chamberlain's. Sold by Benson Pharmacy.

D. T. Awbrey, manager of the Wells-Fargo express office in this city, will soon start on an extended trip through the northern part of the state to be absent several weeks or months. He will be accompanied by his estimable wife.

C. B. Allen and family who have spent the past four years at Florence, started Sunday night for Merced, California, where they expect to spend a couple of years, after a visit with Mr. Allen's brother, Judson Allen, who lives near this city. Mrs. Allen had spent about a month in Portland during which she underwent an operation, from which she is rapidly recovering. Mr. Allen's tickets were the first issued by this office of the S. P. during the new year.

You are probably aware that pneumonia always results from a cold, but you never heard of a cold resulting in pneumonia when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. Why take the risk when this remedy may be had for a trifle? For sale by Benson's Pharmacy.

The members of Juventus Lodge No. 48, K. of P. and Bohemia Camp No. 260, W. O. W. take this means of thanking their many friends for their kind assistance in aiding them in winning the piano at the late contest. We realize that through your aid we were successful only, and we assure you we heartily appreciated your help. Again thanking you, we remain, Juventus Lodge No. 48, K. of P. by S. E. McGavran, Bohemia Camp No. 260, W. O. W. by C. H. VanDenburg.

Don't forget the stock reducing sale on wall paper at McGavran's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Buck, of South Dakota, were registered at Hotel Oregon on Sunday.

Mr. Ward was in from Lorane the latter part of the week and made our office a pleasant call.

BORN—In Cottage Grove, New Year's Day, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warren, late arrivals from Hilt, California, a fine big daughter.

FOR SALE—Span of horses, mare, two studebaker wagons, new buggy Cheap if taken at once. J. T. Davies, Cottage Grove, Phone 112-J.

Ed Turpen, of this city, went to Portland on Wednesday of last week. He was accompanied by his son who takes charge of the large electric plant which furnishes Eugene with juice as head electrician.

We have had no reports from any special watch parties in town, but from the number of bells, whistles, etc., which sounded as the old year passed out and the new ushered in, we should judge that there were some who were not asleep.

The Daily Gazette-Times published at Corvallis, put out a very nice "Progress Edition" on October 16th. It is highly illustrated and a very creditable piece of work and should be highly appreciated by the people of that section of the state.

The Leap year ball given New Year's night at Armory hall by Jas. Potts was a grand success in every sense of the word. The crowd was a lively bunch who kept things moving and everyone had a good time, and all hope to participate in many more such events.

Chas Jackson, of this city, returned from Medford Friday morning where he had taken Mrs. Jackson for surgical treatment. At Sacret Heart hospital the physicians found the lady suffering from gall stones. An operation which proved successful has given great relief and it is hoped that she will be entirely recovered in a short time.

Sedentary habits, lack of outdoor exercise, insufficient mastication of food, constipation, a torpid liver worry and anxiety, are the most common causes of stomach troubles. Correct your habits and take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be well again. For sale by Benson's Pharmacy.

We are pleased to announce to the people of Cottage Grove that we have secured the services of Mrs. L. D. Harrington to act as local manager. She comes to us highly recommended as a capable worker. The goods she will handle are the same, as Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Rouse has handled for years. Give her a fair share of your patronage, "Live and let live" California Perfume Co.

How to cure a cold is a question in which many are interested just now. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and immense sale by its remarkable cure of colds. It can always be depended upon. For sale by Benson's Pharmacy.

The Deutschprechender Verein met in their hall in the laundry building Sunday. There was a large attendance and a good time was enjoyed by all who attended.

L. A. Rolston who intended to go out to Diston the first of the week to take charge of the J. I. Lumber Co's store and the postoffice, has deferred the trip for a week while he assists the Burkholder-Woods Co. in making their annual invoice.

Mrs. B. S. Swengel, the estimable wife of our new hardware man, came down from Portland last week and spent a few days in Cottage Grove, but not being altogether ready to go to housekeeping, she returned to the city this morning and will not be back again for two or three weeks.

Following the usual custom of the congregation of the Christian Church of this place they met in the Ladies Aid room on New Year's day, weighted down with baskets of good things to eat, and after doing justice to the viands the regular yearly business meeting, and reports of the different branches of the church work was carried out. The following officers were elected. Elders, D. C. Baughman, F. M. Murray, Geo. A. Dorward and E. B. Grable; Deacons, Lee Roy Woods, A. L. Woodard, Max Dorward, J. B. Protzman, A. S. Powell, Orville Spear, H. E. Inlow and Geo. Carlisle; Deaconesses, Mrs. S. L. Knox, Mrs. C. D. Brown, Mrs. Emma Miller and Emma Doolittle; Trustees, Lee Roy Woods, E. B. Grable and Geo. Young; Financial Secretary, Lee Roy Woods; Clerk, A. S. Powell; Organist, Daisy Hawkins, Assistant Organist, Carrie Woods; Bible School Officers: Superintendent, Howard Fagan; Assistant Superintendent, V. E. Hoven; Secretary, Maud Lamson; Assistant Secretary, Lee Roy Woods, Jr.; Treasurer, Albert Griffin; Organist, Muriel Robinson. A motion was carried to commence the Bible School at 9:45 instead of 10 a. m. The reports from the heads of the different departments were very gratifying, and showed the work and finance to be in much better condition than the most sanguine had thought existed. Lack of space prevents our giving it to the public. A 29 minute talk, during which Bro. Hoven used a chart to show how he intended, by systematic organization, to get every member of the church to work to make this a "light bearing church." The balance of the afternoon was spent in social intercourse and when we dispersed all agreed that we had had a very enjoyable time and expressed themselves as very hopeful of a bright future for the work in 1912.

Lee Roy Woods,
Chairman Official Board.

"with strength and ease
they always please"

TWO HORSE OVERALLS

MADE BY

LEVI STRAUSS & CO.

every garment guaranteed

ASSIGNER'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given, that on the 23rd. day of November A. D. 1911, Alice E. Elam, of Cottage Grove, Oregon, made an assignment of all her property to me for the benefit of her creditors and that all persons claiming to be her creditors must within three months from the date of the first publication of this notice file their claims with me duly verified, if they wish to partake in the dividends of the proceeds of her assigned property.

Dated this 12th. day of December A. D. 1911.

ALFRED JURV.
Cottage Grove, Oregon. Assignee.

William's Famous Jubilee Singers, at the Arcade January 30th. This is the last appearance of this noted company. Tickets on sale at the Wave.

For Men, Women And Children

There are fully thirty more needles in the making of GORDON HOSE than any other at the same price. The extra thread used in GORDON HOSE makes them very elastic, which means more comfort and better wear. Every pair is guaranteed fast in color. Gordon Hose for Men and Children are made with linen heel and toe. Ask to see them in either wool, fleeced-lined, lisle thread, heavy or light weight at a pair 25c.

Other Grades Priced 10c to 45c

UMPHREY & MACKIN

The Cash Economy Store

Even Mere Men Admire

our chinaware and they are not generally thought to notice such things. But how can they help it. It is so pretty that no man who comes here with his wife to see it has the heart to refuse to gratify her love for handsome crockery. Bring your husband and you'll have a new dinner or tea set sure.

KERR & SILSBY

James H. Hawley, N. W. White, O. Veatch, H. Eakin, and T. C. Wheeler, Directors of the First National Bank, respectfully solicit your banking business.

For Safety and Service, None Better

First National Bank

Capital and Surplus
$50,000.00

And Growing Larger

The New Year Is Here And With It Comes Cold Weather

We can make you feel comfortable by selling you some of our all-wool blankets.

We have a large assortment of blankets from 50c up to $1.00 in cotton or wool.

Our price is right, let us convince you.

LURCH'S