When her child is in danger a woman will risk her life to protect it. No great act of heroism or risk of life is necessary to protect a child from croup. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and all danger is avoided. For sale by Benson's Pharmacy.

The party drawing the suit of clothes at the Oregon Woolen Mill Store this month has not been located as the name turned in is so indistinct as to be illegible, however it is thought to be Garwood or Carwood. In case one by such name has a chance it would be well for him to write in his signature for identification.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Affolter, of Doty, Washington, arrived here Sunday and will enjoy a visit till Saturday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Affolter, and sister, Mrs. L. C. Happy and husband of this city. They like our town very much, but business interests demand their early return.

O. B. Nash who has been residing at Creswell, but upon being taken seriously ill from Bright's disease went to Yoncalla to the home of his parents, passed away on Wednesday morning of last week. The body was brought to this city later in the week where it will remain several days in Undertaker Veatch's chapel and from here will be shipped to Minneapolis, Minnesota, for burial.

For sale—480 acres of land suitable for stock, sawmill, farming and fruit. It joins the Milwaukee Orchard Co. A trout stream and a lot of springs on the place. Would make a fine home. 80 acres fenced, log house, barn, grainery, wagon shed, chicken house. $16 per acre. $2000. Terms on balance. S. F. Jackson, Loran, Oregon.

Rex Cleason returned from Sutherlin the latter part of the week. He had been there some time carrying out a contract for the placing of a large quantity of concrete sidewalk.

Geo. Hohl, the mechanic, put up a sign on the Woolen Mill Store last week. It advertises "Boss-of-the-Road" working clothes and looks all right but from the scar on George's nose it came near getting the best of him.

Frank Cook, proprietor of the Commission House, who went to Yoncalla last week upon the death of his brother-in-law, O. B. Nash was taken ill while there and was unable to return home until this forenoon. He hopes to be able to be in his place of business now as he is improving.

The Arcade Theater was filled to capacity and then some on Saturday evening with an enthusiastic and appreciative audience. This is a company of eight very clever actors and their presentation of "St. Elmo" was very realistic and entertaining. The present management of the Arcade are to be congratulated as well as commended upon the entertainment furnished at that deservedly highly popular place of amusement.

The Cottage Grove Flour mills, Chas. Matthews proprietor, has put out one of the prettiest calendars we have seen for the new year. While it is not large, it is of beautiful design and splendid workmanship and is in keeping with the institution it represents, which is by no means an unimportant enterprise in this community.

Garoutte & McCaleb, the tailors, have received their spring and summer samples of suitings from the Danforth Mills Co. of Chicago, which are the finest lot of samples to be found at the prices asked. The goods as well as the workmanship in every suit will be fully guaranteed to be up to date in style, perfect in fit and made as the best. Look them up before placing your order.

Mrs. Lurch, wife of the well known and popular merchant, Ben Lurch, Tuesday evening of last week entertained the members of the store's force of help at an oyster supper specially prepared for the occasion at the restaurant of Chas. Cooley. It was given in appreciation of faithful and efficient services rendered through the holiday rush at that popular store. The affair was a very pleasant one and was highly appreciated and greatly enjoyed by all the participants.

Perry Whitney left the first of the week for a visit to his old home at Merrill, Klamath county, where he was formerly engaged in the mercantile business and where he has gone to look after property interests. He recently sold 260 acres of his farm one mile north-west of this city to W. C. Conner, who will market the fine piling and mining timber thereon, sell off 180 acres of it and establish a ranch home of the remaining 80 acres together with 15 acres which he recently purchased of J. Henderson McFarland.

E. J. Fuller of the firm of Fuller & Cherry, manufacturers of all kinds cement bricks and blocks, is up from Eugene and has closed a contract with Messrs. Cooper and Powell to furnish the dimension bricks for the front and trimming for the large brick building they are preparing to erect at Main and Second streets. These gentlemen will soon be up with their machinery and manufacture the brick right on the ground, and will be ready to furnish their part of the material as soon as its need, which, from present appearances, will not be very long, the old buildings having been removed from the lots and the work of excavating for the foundation is progressing nicely.

How to cure a cold is a question in which many are interested just now. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and immense sale by its remarkable cure of colds. It can always be depended upon. For sale by Benson's Pharmacy.

Will Hohl and Marion Chappel have purchased the Storey cigar store on Main St., the trade having been consummated today. These young men will proceed to have a new front put in the building and put the place in fine shape in every way, when pool and billiard tables will be installed, and a resort established to a queen's taste. The new management will put every effort forth to make this place up-to-date in every respect capable of meeting the demands of the most fastidious. Several hundred dollars' worth of new and fresh goods will be put in place to satisfy that sweet tooth, as a full and complete line of confectionery will be kept. This will be the place to spend your leisure hours in the future.

The present management of the Arcade Theater is making a number of improvements lately, among which is a large balcony which will increase the seating capacity of the house to 350. The floor was recently lowered to admit the installing of the balcony which is also a great improvement, allowing a better view for the audience. It is the intention of Messrs. Hall & Beals not to pass up anything that will add to the comfort and pleasure of the attendants at this popular place of amusement. To give better stage room a basement has been dug for the dressing rooms which is greatly appreciated by the troupes that play at this place, of which there have been a number of very good ones of late showing in the Arcade. The operating room has been raised and the entire inside of the hall will be repapered and calmsomed which will put the place in a first-class shape in all respects.

In honor of Mrs. Alf Powell, retiring Oracle of the Royal Neighbors. Mrs. A. W. Kime and Mrs. Geo. Hall entertained that order at the home of Mrs. Kime, the afternoon, of Jan. 4th. The parlor and dining room were beautifully decorated in the Order's colors purple and white. The booth in the dining room was presided over by Misses Alice Counts and Mamie Kime where punch was served. A couple of parlor games were played in which Mrs. Geo. Atkins was the prize winner, of a pitcher. It was announced Mrs. Powell won the booby prize, and was surprised with several beautiful gifts as follows: An Austria china tureen an Havaliu china meat platter, embamatic pin, vase and bureau scarf, which were gifts from the order as a token of their appreciation for her service rendered. Dainty refreshments were served and a good time enjoyed by all.
