

Items of Local Interest.

The Jubilee Singers at the Arcade a week from to-night.

Room for rent—would consider boarder. Inquire at this office.

Mrs. Lew A. Cates is enjoying a visit from her brother, D. T. Craig of Grants Pass.

A young lady with good references wants work. Inquire at this office.

The best hard wheat flour, High Flight can't be beat. Only $1.40 per sack at Helliwell's.

Fine poultry—thoroughbreds for breeding purposes or the best table use—at The Commission House.

A. P. Churchill was down from the mines last week and made a trip to Eugene while down.

Mrs. M. C. McGee of this city, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. C. E. McGee of Yamhill, who is visiting her, made our office a pleasant call Monday.

Mrs. Anna Hess, of Roseburg, who had been visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, and her friend, Mrs. Hohl, returned home today.

A. B. Wood, manager of the Oregon and Southeastern, returned Friday evening from the county seat where he has been in attendance at court in connection with the trial of the American Trust Co. against the O & S. E.

The vaudeville at the Arcade Saturday night proved a disappointment to the crowd. There have several appeared here lately with good recommendations from cities toward Portland who have not been up to the standard. The Arcade is not slow to turn these down as soon as they are found out.

Judge L. T. Harris came up Monday and held court, examination witnesses etc, in a controversy between C. H. Burkholder, the Cottage Grove Manufacturing Co. and the O. & S. E. Railroad Co. The contention is over a small piece of ground along side of the Manufacturing Co's sash and door factory near the S. P. depot. The decision will be given out late.

The Record, published at Marshfield is urging the people of Coos county to be ready with a county exhibit at the opening of the Panama-Pacific Exposition to be held early in 1915 at San Francisco. Coos county had a building of its own and a very creditable exhibit at the Lewis and Clark exposition at Portland, and is capable of making a good showing.

W. C. Billings of Hotel Oregon, returned Thursday from a business trip to Eugene.

BORN—At Divide, Oregon, January 15, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Sheibner, a son.

F. B. Phillips of this city, had business in Eugene Tuesday of last week.

Don't forget the Commission house when you want something good to eat.

W. G. Hale was in from the London section Saturday and made our office a pleasant call while in town.

D. J. Scholl, the jeweler, has gone to Hubbard where he will visit his parents, after which he goes to Portland on business. He will be absent a week while Mr. Orr looks after the business.

Mrs. G. H. Tyson went to Eugene Saturday to return the visit of her brother, John Hampton, and daughter, of that city, who visited her the Sunday before.

Kinks taken out of your cross-cut saws. All kinds of saws hammered, and for a limited time will do gumming and fitting at Millers Machine Shop. E. C. Rowland.

D. T. Craig, of Grants Pass, visited his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lou A. Cates their new home near this city now styled as Gladys Peach ranch, several days lately.

Scroggs Waterproof Leather Dressing contains seven of the best known leather preservers. Gives a fine finish. Does not gum or stick. Will not soil hands or gloves. Price 25 and 50 cents a box. Order of J. B. Scroggs, Eugene.

FOR SALE—At a bargain—in Saginaw, centrally located, 2 acreage properties, each with dwelling, barn, good outhouses and excellent garden ground, well fenced. Each ideal for a home, chicken ranch or berry culture. Price $400, for the 2, absolutely net. Known as the Wiscarson and Concord places respectively. Inquire at this office.

The Kansas' club will hold their annual midwinter picnic in the W. O. W. hall in this city on Monday, January 29th, where the day will be spent by the members. An interesting program has been prepared which will furnish the principal part of the entertainment. All members are urged to be present early with their baskets and prepared to spend the day. A general good time is expected.

Mrs. Lizzie Churchill went to Roseburg last week to reside.

Make the youngsters happy—Buy them a pair of gold fish at the Metson shop.

Methodist Church next Sunday evening at 7:30, Robert Sutcliffe answers this question: "Which Church is the Church of Christ?"

Violin solo by Geo. E. Wood. Large chorus choir.

FOR SALE—Only nine more choice Poland China pigs. Phone Farmer 156. B. C. Lathrop.

S. Bucham was in from Silk creek Monday and bought a nice single harness at the shop of C. Beals.

BORN.—In Cottage Grove January 16, 1912, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orperd, parents of the new mother, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas Cochran, of Eugene, a fine baby girl.

Levi Geer, proprietor of the hotel at the Calapooya mineral springs at London, was in to see us Saturday and got some nice calendars which had been prepared for him at this office.

N. R. Shaw registered at the Oregon from Boise, Idaho.

Dr. Oglesby had business which called him to the country seat on Friday.

James Sears of Cottage Grove, visited Mrs. G. F. Sears, of Creswell, last Tuesday.

Dr. Robbins has his office at his residence on fifth street three doors south of the postoffice.—Phone 131-R.

Mrs. Emma Brown, of this city, visited her daughter, Mrs. Jas. E. Tuttle of Eugene last week, returning Tuesday.

The postoffice at Creswell became a presidential office January first with the salary of the postmaster fixed at $1000 per annum.

W. S. Martin, of Silver Lake, who had been here for a couple of weeks or more visiting his uncle, N. A. Martin, returned home early last week. They enjoyed a trip over into the Siuslaw country where they visited their friend J. W. Doak.

William's Famous Jubilee Singers at the Arcade, Jan. 30th. This is the last appearance of this company. Entire change of program. Only a few seats left. Reserved seats at the Wave 50 and 75 cents. Get them now. 2tf

UMPHREY & MACKIN

The Cash Economy Store

Underwear Clean-Up Sale

You will find all winter underwear at this store is marked down at prices that will induce you to buy. This sacrifice sale of the best in underwear is for no other purpose than to clean up winter goods in preparation for the spring season. Early shoppers will find the best choice.

Ladies White Wool Union suits $1.83	Men's Lamb's wool single piece underwear. Each $1.23.
Ladies Grey Wool Union suits $1.48	Men's ribbed wool single piece underwear. Each 83 cents.
Ladies white or gray wool garments, single piece 63c to 83c	Men's fleeced cotton ribbed union suits. Each 83 cents.
Ladies cotton single piece garments. Each 37c to 43c	Men's fleeced cotton single piece underwear. Each 37 cents.
Underwear for Children 10c up.

REMEMBER!

WILLIAMS' ...JUBILEE SINGERS...

AT ARCADE THEATRE

TUESDAY NIGHT, JANUARY 30th

Only A Few Seats Left. ....GET BUSY.....

Reserved Seats = 50-75 Cents

Mrs. J. S. Medley visited several days in Eugene last week, having accompanied her husband to the county seat as he went to attend court.

B. S. Swengal, the hardware man, left yesterday afternoon for Portland where he will visit with Mrs. Swengal and friends for a few days.

WANTED—Secondhand cook-stove and some chairs. Will pay good price for same. Inquire at the Bellingham Second-hand Store, Golden Rule building.

FOR SALE—A fine two story 7 room residence on Wall St. Strictly modern, cabinet kitchen, china closet, etc. Almost new. Basement, cement walk, size of lot 60x243. A bargain if sold soon only $2,000. Inquire of W. F. Hart.

During one of his regular trips to Creswell last week Mr. Armstrong, the photographer, took pictures of the new stores just opened at that place by J. E. Thomas, a prominent furniture dealer. These stores, we are informed, are a credit to the proprietor and the town, one being a well fitted up and supplied furniture store equal to what one would expect to see in a town five times the size of Creswell, and the other a ten-cent store, a large and handsomely fitted up room filled to overflowing with articles sold for a dime—no more, no less—in which one may secure bargains that surprise all.

George O. Bassett who has for some time been superintendent of the J. I. Lumber Co's mill at Diss-ton, has severed his connection with that company, and last week with his family left for Newberg where he will take charge of the Chas. K. Spaulding Lumber Co's plant at that place. Mr. Bassett is a thorough lumberman and fully competent and capable man for the place. The family have many friends here who are sorry to see them go and wish them success in their choice of a new home.

MARRIED—In Eugene, January 23, 1912, at the home of B. F. Crum, Dennis Cooter of Cottage Grove and Arabel Leonard of Coberg, two well and favorably known young people of this section of the state who have a wide circle of friends and well wishers. The ceremony was performed by County Judge A. W. Thompson assisted by Mr. Mattman, first reader of the Christian Scientist church.

How to cure a cold is a question in which many are interested just now. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and immense sale by its remarkable cure of colds. It can always be depended upon. For sale by Benson's Pharmacy.

Stock, Fruit, Timber Ranch

For sale, 180 acres two miles from Cottage Grove, 25 acres west slope easily prepared for orchard, 25 acres fine piling and mining timber, balance pasture. Only $15 per acre, $750 down, balance on time. If interested apply to P. O. Box 458 Cottage Grove, Oregon. There is very little $15 per acre land remaining near Cottage Grove and this snap will not remain open long. 37-4f

WANTED

Steady employment as clerk in store or work of any kind. References furnished! L. C. H., Box 594, Cottage Grove.

CALL

and see our 10, 15 and 25 cent assortment of dishes just arrived.

Exceptional Values

KERR & SILSBY

HOHL BROS.

General Blacksmiths, Wood-Workers & Carriage Builders

Some nail a Horse Shoe on their door, For better or for worse; We take a Horse Shoe, dress it up, And fit it on your horse.

We keep in touch with the wheel of progress. We analyze both shaft and bolt, And we can take the Horse Shoe of "Old Dobbins," And make it over for the colt.

Phone 108-R. Cottage Grove

James H. Hawley, N. W. White, O. Veatch, H. Eakin, and T. C. Wheeler, Directors of the First National Bank, respectfully solicit your banking business.

For Safety and Service, None Better
First National Bank
Capital and Surplus
$50,000.00
And Growing Larger

CLEARANCE SALE

...ON...

MEN'S AND BOYS' MACKINAW, DUCK COATS

...AND...

BLANKET-LINED OVERALLS.

$2.00 value Blanket-lined Overalls for $1.25

$4.50 value Mackinaws for $3.95

Men's Duck Coats, blanket-lined marked down from $2.25 to $1.65

Boys' Duck Coats, blanket-lined $1.75 value for only 98c

LURCH'S