

Items of Local Interest

Earl Hill went to Eugene yesterday.

Dr. McPherson went to Eugene yesterday.

G. H. Dyer took a run down to Eugene yesterday.

Attorney J. C. Johnson went to Eugene on business yesterday.

John Aster took the eleven o'clock train for Portland yesterday.

Chas. Lawrence, of Comstock, was a Cottage Grove visitor on Saturday.

When in town don't forget to look for the word "Bellingham" on the window.

Alf Walker, of Eugene, returned home yesterday morning after a visit in Cottage Grove.

Joe Shields and family left last Thursday for eastern Colorado to make their home in the future.

The word "Bellingham" on a window, when properly translated means it is the right place to buy or sell.

E. O. Howz, of Coquille, passed through Saturday on his way to Eugene to see his daughters, Mrs. Buell and Miss Beryl.

Flour! Flour! Flour! Direct from the car to the consumer. That is the reason I can sell you better flour for less money. Ask about it. Cut the cost of living. Phone 162, J. F. Spray.

If your violin or other instrument does not sound just right, take it to Prof. Geo. E. Wood, the violin maker, Bellingham 2nd-hand store.

The newly remodelled confectionery being conducted by Messrs. Hohl and Chappelle is now putting out a fine grade of Soda water bottled by them.

B. S. Swengel, the hardware man, is back from a week's visit in Portland with Mrs. Swengel and friends. Mrs. S. will soon come up for residence.

E. J. Moore, the Creswell opera-house and skating rink man made our office a pleasant call while in town yesterday. Mr. Moore was formerly the creameryman of this city, and met many friends and acquaintances in town.

A basketball game is scheduled to take place at the Armory hall in Cottage Grove on Friday evening, February 2nd, between the All-Stars of Drain and the All-Star team of this city. A good scrap is promised and the attendance will no doubt be good. Come out and root for the boys.

Hear the Inside Player Piano at Veatch's Music Store.

Geo. P. Miller of Divide, was in town Monday.

Oak grub wood at $2.00 per tier. Phone 162, J. F. Spray.

All kinds of Sewing Machine Needles at Veatch's Music Store.

Don't forget the Commission house when you want something good to eat.

Miss Ruth Helliwell, of Yoncalla, visited E. E. Helliwell and family in this city last week.

FOR SALE—2 good windmill deepwell pumps at a bargain. Call at the Bellingham 2nd-hand store.

BORN.—In Cottage Grove, Oregon, January 23, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stanley, a daughter.

FOR SALE.—Only nine more choice Poland China pigs. Phone Farmer 156. E. C. Lathrop.

Mrs. N. W. Drake, of this city, left Wednesday for Philomath, where she goes to visit her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Schafer.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Veatch who live near this city, went to Albany last week. They went to look after a farm which they own in Linn county and were absent a few days.

John Addison and daughter, Mrs. George Snyder of Lorane, returned Thursday from Eugene where they had been to see their daughters and sisters, Mrs. Fred Winter and Mrs. Trapp of that city.

Phillip Hohl, the mechanic, made a trip to Portland and Oregon City last Thursday, while at the city he purchased a billiard and a pool table for the newly fitted up confectionery and pool room conducted by Will Hohl and Marion Chappelle.

County Surveyor Charles Collier of Eugene and J. T. Donaldson and Bruno Vitus came up last Friday to view the new Beatty road along the east side of the river between this city and Walker station, but owing to the highwater they could do but little toward the work and returned with the intention of coming back Monday in case the water has gone down sufficiently to admit of good work.

How to cure a cold is a question in which many are interested just now, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and immense sale by its remarkable cure of colds. It can always be depended upon. For sale by Benson's Pharmacy.

W. L. Wiscarson was in from Mosby creek on Thursday.

George Stoppels is completing a neat cottage on east Main street

J. V. Stewart is home from Harrisburg, he being a member of the S. P. bridge crew working for some time at that place.

BARGAINS—The Bellingham Second-hand Store is the right place to buy or sell. In Golden Rule Grocery building.

For Sale

A painless Cancer Cure. Call on or address.

Mrs. J. E. Jewell
Cottage Grove, Oregon

G. W. Sanderson, of Lorane, was in town Wednesday.

C. E. Boatman of Newberg, was a guest at Hotel Oregon the latter part of the week.

R. E. Mullaney, claim agent of the Southern Pacific, registered at the Oregon Saturday.

John Sechrist from Abeline, Kansas, is a late arrival here and is looking about the country with a view to locating.

J. Donaldson, of Norfolk, Nebraska, is taking in Cottage Grove and surrounding country. We hope he may find a suitable location and conclude to remain with us.

Orrin Bennett, of near Eugene, made Cottage Grove a visit of a couple of days last week in the interest of his candidacy for county commissioner. Mr. Bennett stands "For Systematic Road Building and Economic Distributions."

Mrs. Jennie Hayes, a member of the force at Hotel Oregon, has received the sad intelligence of the death of her son, Fred Hayes, which occurred at a hospital in New Orleans. The gentleman had just reached his majority and no particulars as to the cause of death was given.

Clint Stewart of this city who has been appointed fruit inspector for this section, has been around town looking at the trees, a great many of which are seriously in need of attention. We understand that it is Mr. Stewart's intention to see that the laws in regard to spraying be carried out to the letter.

The local lodge of the Knights of Pythias is preparing for a good time in the near future. There is to be a convention at which time a contest in team work will be pulled off between teams of Eugene, Roseburg and Cottage Grove. There will be a crack team from Portland in attendance who will show the boys how the work should be done.

Zante, Greece, Jan. 26.—Thirty persons are reported dead today as the result of an earthquake yesterday in the Ionian islands. The property loss is said to extend $1,000,000. The government has sent warships and provisions to the sufferers.

WANTED

Steady employment as clerk in store or work of any kind. References furnished! L. C. H., Box 594, Cottage Grove.

20 Lbs. SUGAR $1.00

With $5.00 Cash Purchase of Other Goods.

DESLARZES BROS.

SEASONABLE PLANTING

Bulbs for Bedding; Tulips and Hyacinths
Sweet Peas; All Colors Separate
We Have All Kinds of Garden Seeds

The METSAN SHOP

Salt at car load prices. Phone 162, J. F. Spray.

Mr. Estes was in from Lorane the last of the week.

Dr. Robbins has his office at his residence on fifth street three doors south of the postoffice.—Phone 131-R.

Window shades and extension curtain rods a specialty at the Bellingham Second-hand store. Nice line just received.

I have it—I have just unloaded a car of that celebrated Waldo Hill flour. It is as good as there is in town. I guarantee every sack. $1.25 per sack. Try a sack. Phone 162, J. F. Spray.

Methodist Church next Sunday evening at 7:30, Robert Sutcliffe answers this question: "Is the Church of Today Superior to the Church of Yesterday."

Music by Orchestra and Choir.

J. Miller, a recent arrival from Orchard Nebraska, registered at Hotel Oregon the last of the week. We understand he is looking for a suitable location.

A. B. Donaldson of Erving, Nebraska, is in this vicinity looking the country. He will certainly see some difference between the winter here and that of the place from which he comes.

Miss C. A. Whitney, of Oakland, California, spent a couple of days in this city in the interest of equal suffrage. She is making arrangements for a good strong campaign before the next election.

Capt. B. K. Lawson who went to Portland last week to take the examination for promotion to lieutenant-colonel was successful, having passed very highly in the examination. Out of 60 questions he answered all but three entirely satisfactorily, and those in part. So now it is Lieutenant-Colonel Lawson, if you please.

The Woodmen of the World and Knights of Pythias hold a joint open meeting and banquet tomorrow night to celebrate the winning of the piano contest recently given by Brund & Co. They are proud of the instrument and wish to show their appreciation to those who assisted them in securing it. A program will be rendered a pleasant social evening is in store for those lucky enough to have an invitation.

The basket ball team known as the Cottage Grove All Stars had the pleasure of a lively contest with the second team of Company C of Eugene, at Armory hall last Friday evening. The local boys proved a little too strong for the visitors, the score standing 49 to 6. There was a fair attendance and a goodly number of rooters to cheer the boys on to victory.

Stock, Fruit, Timber Ranch

For sale, 180 acres two miles from Cottage Grove, 25 acres west slope easily prepared for orchard, 25 acres fine piling and mining timber, balance pasture. Only $15 per acre, $750 down, balance on time. If interested apply to P. O. Box 458 Cottage Grove, Oregon. There is very little $15 per acre land remaining near Cottage Grove and this snap will not remain open long. 37-4f

UMPHREY & MACKIN

The Cash Economy Store

American Lady Corsets Grow More Popular

Honest Value, proper Tailoring and Durability are qualities which induce our women customers to wear American Lady Corsets and recommend them to other women. Why not try an American Lady Corset this spring? We will be pleased to show them to you. Model No. 250, Price $2.50. Model No. 250 like cut is our most popular style. Those who have tried this model recommend it as a most comfortable fitting corset and compare it with other corsets much higher in price. The covering is very strong and the waist line is reinforced with a strong belt which prevents the corset from stretching.

Price $2.50

The boning is very flexible and absolutely rust-proof. This model is made with a medium short waist and a long hip. Please ask us to show you this style. Other Styles $1.00, $1.50, up.

Cottage Grove

Flour Mills

ALL KINDS OF

Mill Feed, Grain and Hay

CHAS. MATTHEWS, Prop.

In Carrying The Crockery

line we do we please everyone. Handsome designs for all purposes. We have the very thing you want, and at your price, too. Come in and see for yourself. While our crockery is very durable it is not heavy or clumsy in shape—just right.

KERR & SILSBY

Is Your Horse Pleased?

If not take him to Hohl Bros., and have him shod and he will be just as pleased as our friend in this picture.

All Work Guaranteed.

Prices Reasonable. Come and see us.

HOHL BROS.
Phone 108-R. Cottage Grove

Sale On Remnants

We have an entire counter set aside for Remnants.

On this counter we have Remnants in Children's Wool Underwear, Misses Caps, Boys Caps, Gingham, Calicoes, Percales and Wash Goods.

Also Remnants in White Goods and Wool Dress Goods suitable for a skirt or waist.

Bargains in Shoes

LURCH'S