

The interpretation of "Madam Butterfly," a Japanese tragedy, by Miss Eunice VanDenburg at the Arcade theater last Friday evening brought out a well filled house and also brought forth a shower of congratulations for the splendid rendition by Miss VanDenburg. The accompanying music was supplied by Mrs. Robert Sutcliffe at the piano, which was also a charming feature of the evening. The occasion was the graduation of Miss VanDenburg from Mrs. Ora Read Hemenway's school of oratory, Mrs. Hemenway assisting in this graduation recital. The reader was in perfect voice and her charm and grace won the complete approbation of her large audience.

One of the pretty affairs of Easter week was the handkerchief shower given by the ladies of the Eastern Star at Masonic hall in honor of Mrs. H. O. Thompson Tuesday afternoon. The room was prettily festooned with huge bouquets of ferns and lilies, with streamers of crepe paper in colors appropriate to the Star, making a dainty and artistic effect. The first amusement was a musical guessing contest in which Mrs. Marion Veatch was awarded a French harp for missing one question among the old favorite songs, several guessers having tied for this prize. A progressive contest was the next feature, the ladies proving equal to the occasion by filling out the answers quite rapidly. At the close of this contest Mrs. Thompson was led from the room for a few minutes and a line was strung with about 35 dainty handkerchiefs pinned on with miniature clothes pins. Mrs. H. A. Miller then presented the guest of honor with these tokens of remembrance from her many friends who regret that she is soon to take her departure. Mrs. Thompson has been an earnest worker in the Eastern Star and will be greatly missed both by the Chapter and a large circle of friends in Cottage Grove. She responded to the gifts in her usual pleasing manner, expressing much appreciation and good wishes to her friends. Tables were then spread and a delicious two-course luncheon served.

The Royal Neighbors and Modern Woodmen lodges had a rousing big time in Odd Fellows hall Wednesday night and entertained about 25 members of Creswell Royal Neighbors, accompanied by the splendid 5-piece Creswell orchestra. A chicken pie supper was served at 6:30, followed by a musical and literary program as follows:
Music.....Orchestra
Instrumental solo.....Virgil Powell
Reading.....Mrs. Jas. Hemenway
Vocal solo.....Miss Hildred Hall
Music.....Orchestra
Vocal duet.....
Misses Wilson and Wilkie
Instrumental solo.....Fern Holcomb
Vocal solo.....Roy Baker
Reading.....Miss Fern Holcomb
Vocal solo.....Miss Ursula Lockwood
Music.....Orchestra
At the close of the program the remainder of the evening was enjoyed with games and general social good time. The ladies of the Royal Neighbors had made a quilt, which was drawn by Mr. Geo. Atkinson. The proceeds, which were $10.00, are to be used for the good of the order.

Mrs. Dickey very pleasantly entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church last Wednesday afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Geo. Kerr last Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Walker was very pleasantly surprised by her friends the Missionary Society last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Henry Veatch had invited Mrs. Walker to be her guest for the afternoon. Upon arrival she found her many friends who had assembled to wish her God speed on her long journey. After a very pleasant social hour the guest of honor was again surprised. Supposing herself to be served to refreshments, first; she lifted the napkin from the tray and found that it contained many articles which were useful in traveling. Cocoa and cake were then served. Those present were: Mrs. Mary Walker, Mrs. Jury, Miss Jennie Woods, Mrs. A. B. Wood, Mrs. Chas. Jackson, Mrs. Herbert Eakin, Mrs. B. R. Job, Mrs. C. Phelps, Mrs. D. L. Woods, Mrs. J. P. Currin, Mrs. Helen Silsby, Mrs. A. S. Mason, Mrs. H. O. Thompson, Mrs. W. H. Abrams, Mrs. J. C. Adams, Mrs. H. H. Veatch. Mrs. Walker departs the 19 inst. for an extended visit with her son, Roy, in Philadelphia. She will also visit in Boston and other eastern cities before her return.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Hohl, of this city enjoyed a reunion of the entire number of its members last Sunday. and a very nice time was enjoyed by all. Those present living out of town were Mr. and Mrs. C. Hess, of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hohl, of Drain, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jackson, of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Wall also of Eugene. Those at home were Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Hohl, George, Phil, William and Elenor Hohl. With the grand children and Miss Clara Potts, a particular friend from Eugene, the company numbered twenty in all. This is the first time in a number of years so many of the family have enjoyed a visit all together.

Mr. Roy Smith's class will entertain the boys and girls of the Presbyterian Sunday school in the Brotherhood room of the church next Friday evening. All boys and girls of the Sunday school are invited.

The members of the Woman's Club and of the newly appointed Library Board were very much interested and helped by the enthusiastic and practical address given them by the state librarian, Miss Marven. Other interesting addresses were made by Hon. R. M. Veatch and Geo. O. Knowles, members of the library board. Several of the ladies also spoke optimistically regarding the public library and with the co-operation of the citizens of the town it is an assured fact.

Cottage Grove Will Retain Boundary.

The city of Cottage Grove will be allowed to retain its boundaries as established at an election held there on May 10, 1911, at which the people voted to take in some surrounding territory. The circuit court case of William Landess and others against the city and others, in which it was sought to set aside and annul the election, was decided in favor of the city by Judge Harris Saturday. The judge sustained the demurrer to the complaint and ordered the dismissal of the case.

The plaintiffs in the case were William Landess, W. P. Huff and H. F. Alden, who own property in the territory taken into the city at the election.

Thompson & Hardy and J. S. Medley were attorneys for the plaintiffs and J. E. Young and J. C. Johnson for the defendants. — Guard.
