Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by P. J.
 Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by P. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.
 Sold by Druggists. Price 50c per bottle.

HEALING IN NINEVEH.

Medical Science as It Existed in the Ancient City.
 The patient work of the archaeologist enables people of today to form a very fair idea of medical science as it existed in Nineveh 650 years before the birth of Christ, says the New York Spa. Of the 20,000 tablets taken from the library of Assurbanipal, the great king of Assyria, who conquered Egypt and Babylonia and established his subjects in the deserted cities of Samaria, hundreds deal exclusively with medicine and contain numerous prescriptions:
 "If a man has colic make him stand up and pour over him a decoction of hypericum and he will recover.
 "Or make him crouch down on his heels and pour cold water over his head."
 Faith healing seems to be indicated in a prescription which runs: "If he is in a weak state, make him bend down, then raise his legs and say, 'May you get quite well.' Strike him also on the bend fourteen times with your thumb." Many prescriptions deal with the cure of a disorder which was very common at Nineveh and which seems to have been due to overindulgence in food and drink: "When a man is bilious rub him with an onion and let him drink nothing but water and abstain from food altogether." Among the medicines used by the physicians of Nineveh were sesame, olive oil, castor oil, sirup of dates, honey and salt. Fasting and massage were frequently ordered.

LAPPS AND WOLVES.

The Deer Killing Brutes Get No Mercy
From the Natives.
 The Swedish Lapps are said to live entirely by, and upon their reindeer. A Lapp who owns a thousand deer is a rich man, but as taxes are assessed upon the number of deer, he is inclined to underestimate his herd.
 The most dangerous enemy to the herd is the wolf, which can kill many deer in a night. A band of wolves can make a rich Lapp poor.
 When the snow is deep and soft and it is announced that wolf tracks have been seen in the neighborhood of the deer, the swiftest runners on snowshoes prepare for an exciting chase.
 The wolf may have a start of a mile or two, but the track it leaves in the deep, soft snow is so conspicuous that the hunters can follow it at their best speed. The wolf, though he may run swiftly, has but a slight chance of escaping his pursuers on their snowshoes.
 Each hunter does his best to outrun the others, for the wolf belongs to the Lapp who strikes the first blow. As soon as the leading hunter is close enough to the wolf he gives it a heavy blow across the loins with his strong, spiked snowshoe staff. If there are other wolves to be pursued he kills it outright; if not he disables it and waits till all the hunters have arrived before giving the death stroke.

Germany's Industrial Life.
 The industrial life of Germany gives the impression of a great street crowded with heavy traffic. This traffic is formed of units, but all have a common purpose and direction, and it is well regulated. It is aggressive, noisy and dangerous to those who brave its competitive perils. It is artificial, as it caters to the needs of man largely outside of the actual necessities for subsistence, and it is subject to increases or decreases, congestions or even sudden stoppages, for, unlike the bulk of the traffic of the United States, it is not the irresistible flow of a mighty river of natural products seeking the level of supply and demand. Ever increasing its volume, ever extending its zone of influence, the foreign trade of Germany is the marvel of the twentieth century.—James Davenport Whelpley in Century.

A Tactful Request.
 Dobbleigh was a confirmed borrower, and, what was worse, he seldom returned the borrowed articles. He had held on to Whibley's umbrella, for instance, for nearly a year.
 "And I'm blessed if I know how I am ever going to get it back," said Whibley.
 "Easy," said Hickenlooper. "Call a messenger and send Dobbleigh this note."
 And he scribbled off the following:
 "Dear Dobbleigh, if you can spare it I'd like to borrow that umbrella of mine for a couple of days. Can you oblige me?"—Harper's.

Enough Said.
 He was limping down the street with one arm in a sling and both eyes in mourning.
 "What's the matter?" queried a friend. "Motorcar accident?"
 "No," replied the other sadly. "I met a man who couldn't take a joke."— London Telegraph.

Castles In the Air.
 "We keep our automobiles in the mirage," said Mrs. Blunderby.
 "That's where most of us keep our automobiles," returned her caller, with an inward smile.—Boston Transcript.

Scouting.
 Mrs. Howard—And so two of your sons are boy scouts? Where do they do most of their reconnoitering? Mrs.
 Coward—In our refrigerator.—Life.

Quite So.
 "Weren't you shy when the judge asked you your age in court?"
 "Yes, I was about ten years shy, my dear."—Life.

Self control is described as the root virtue of all virtues. It is the very center of character.
