ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

E. C. Hall, of Lebanon, was in Cottage Grove yesterday.

BORN. At Divide, Oregon, May 18, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs. John Tonola, a daughter.

Hohl & Arnold do carriage painting. Give them a call.

Grade stakes have been set for the three-quarters of a mile of county macadam road work on the south extension of Fourth or Sixth Street.

Dr. Kime has ordered a nice little Flanders car through the agency of J. F. Hickey. This will be a great help to the doctor in his extensive practice.

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You can do it by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and massaging the parts freely at each application. For sale by Benson's Pharmacy.

We have a complete stock of bee supplies Wynne & Woods.

J. P. Graham, of Eugene, was an over Sunday guest of Dr. Oglesby and family. Mr. Graham is a wireless telegraph operator and last season held a position on a large vessel sailing between San Francisco, Panama and South America.

Hampton & Co. are headquarters for the John B. Stetson Hat.

Joe Porter and wife returned home from Southern California Saturday where they spent the winter for the benefit of Mr. Porter's health. Both are looking and feeling fine and were much benefited by the change in climatic conditions.

FOR SALE. A $35 graphophone and 12 records for $20. Only been used a short time. Call at this office.

During those warm days of the carnival Velvet Rose ice cream became so popular that Mr. Senter was barely able to meet the demands made upon him by the several stands and places which kept that delicacy on sale.

S. C. White Leghorns eggs, 75c per 15. White Orpington eggs $1.25 per 15. Verna Phillips. 1 tf

BORN—In Cottage Grove. May 20, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McCradie, a daughter. We understand that this accounts for the unusual broad smile on the face of our townsman and merchant, Ben Lurch, as he is now grandpa.

For fine carriage and buggy painting, call on Hohl & Arnold, west side.

Roy A. Beebe, of the Beebe Lumber Co., of the Lorane section had business in town today.

WANTED—A girl to do housework. Inquire of Mrs. F. B. Phillips. 1-tf.

Mr. J. S. Medley is home after a visit of several days with friends down the line toward Portland.

If your carriage, buggy or wagon needs painting, call on Hohl & Arnold. West side.

BORN—In Bridgefield, Washington, May 10, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beagle, formerly of this place, a fine baby boy.

See the closing out advertisement of Helliwell on another page.

We understand that the Booth-Kelly Lumber Co's surveyors are making a survey up Mosby creek for a rail line into their extensive timber holdings in that section.

For big bargains attend the closing-out sale of Helliwell.

G. F. Comer, a former resident of this city, arrived from Vancouver, Washington, his present home, the first of the week to look after property interests in Cottage Grove.

We have received a premium list of the Oregon state fair which gives a comprehensive description of this great event and the liberal prizes offered; in many of which our farmers should compete.

Dr. Shea, of Portland, registered at the Cottage hotel Monday, having come up to see Mrs. McMindis, an aged friend who has been ill for some time. He had a pleasant visit with Dr. Kime while in town.

McDole Brothers of Divide, received a fine large threshing machine and engine on Monday. The separator was a J. I. C. while the engine was of the International gasoline type, of thirteen tons weight, a traction machine capable of pulling a great load and also of running the separator to full capacity.

B. E. Burrows, baggage and express man at the Southern Pacific depot, with his wife and daughter, started yesterday morning for Nebraska where they go to visit relatives and friends. Mr. Burrow's place is being filled by George Weddersheim, while in turn, his place in the freight department is filled by W. O. Asher.

The beautiful showers of yesterday were worth many thousands of dollars to the Willamette valley.

Henry Veatch who recently returned from Idaho, has been among the complaining ones, but we sincerely hope his troubles will prove to be of a trivial nature.

The Columbia River fruit districts will score heavily this season. Cherry orchards around The Dalles will yield 1,400,000 pounds of fruit, which California cannery men are anxious to get at 4 cents per pound, meaning $56,000 for the growers of that section. Hood River expects an apple crop well over 1,000,000 boxes that will be marketed throughout the world wherever prize fruit is in demand.

Other districts report equally fine crop prospects.

HOSIERY

BETTER

That's the one word which adequately expresses the general opinion of wearers of

Armor Plate
Hosiery

It's better because of an unusual dyeing process—one that does not weaken the yarns.

THERE are two classes of advertising---one goes after direct returns and the other after indirect. The merchant who wants to plan for a direct result for his publicity will have to have that which will give him immediate inquiries for the goods advertised. I go after direct returns.
