I have just received a car load of McCormick Binders, Mowers and Rakes direct from the factory which enables me to sell them at as low a price as any good machinery can be sold, and on terms to suit the purchaser. Good, new machines save time and labor as well as hay and grain. When you buy a McCormick you buy as good a machine as can be made. We have them in stock all set up. You can see what you are getting. We also keep on hand all extras for the McCormick.

The way the dirt did fly out at Knox Hill Saturday was a sight to see. The farmers out that way want to come to town, and there was a bad hill to pull up going home, but thanks to those good people, it is no more. If all the people of Cottage Grove and vicinity had the road building grit that they have east of town we would soon have good roads.

Additional Locals.

Mrs. Elbert Bede is now enjoying a visit at the ocean beach at Newport. Mr. Bede will join her Thursday.

Mr. Fuller will preach Sunday, June 30th, both morning and evening at the Christian church. Mr. Hoven being at the State Convention at Turner.

John Spray tell us that he is practicing what he preaches. He is now fencing the McKibben ranch preparatory to stocking it with goats. This Mr. Spray has been telling us is a very profitable way to handle logged-off land, and we may now expect to see the wool fly.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nokes left by Friday's forenoon train north-bound train. They will visit a few days in Salem after which Mr. Nokes will continue his trip to Portland where he will engage for a short time in assisting a friend on a job of plastering. Mrs. Nokes will return home in a few days.

Miss Jessie Wilson, of Medford, left Wednesday after a very pleasant visit with Mrs. C. S. Hefty and other friends of this city. Miss Wilson is one of Oregon's successful teachers. She will soon take her departure for Los Angeles, California, where she will attend a term of a California state Normal.
