In the Social Realm.

Mesdames D. H. Hemenway and J. C. Johnson entertained at the home of Mrs. Hemenway with a five hundred party last Wednesday afternoon. The highest scores were made by Mesdames W. W. McFarland and J. N. Waterhouse who received the prizes, a dainty hand painted vase and a plate. Mrs. C. J. Kem received the consolation prize, a pair of baby shoes. A delicious two-course luncheon was served, consisting of sandwiches, egg salad, salted almonds, coffee and cake. Favors were miniature baskets of red crepe paper decorated with rosebuds. Misses Marquerite Johnson, Fern Holcomb and Alice Counts assisted the hostesses in serving. At the close of the afternoon it developed that it was the joint birthday of Mesdames Johnson and Hemenway but they did not announce their ages. The following were the invited guests: Mesdames Harry Short, H. A. Miller, W. H. Abrams, Ben Lurch, Jas. P. Graham, C. E. Jones, A. L. Monroe, M. Scovill, H. H. Veatch, H. Venske, Van Allison, F. W. Charles Beals and John Atkinson returned Sunday night from a trip to Yreka, California, where they went to look over a moving picture theater proposition. They were so well satisfied with it that they bought it and Mr. Atkinson will soon return to Yreka to take charge of it, while Mr. Beals will remain here and continue to conduct the Arcade. The newly purchased theater seats 550, has a 30 by 40 stage, and is well equipped in every particular.

A monument will be erected to the memory of the late Rev. C. H. Wallace in the I. O. O. F. cemetery, by public subscription. Rev. Wallace was a most highly esteemed pioneer minister of this city and community, and was closely identified with every stage of the city's growth and development, and this monument is in recognition of his service to the community, his worth, and a mark of the high esteem in which he was regarded generally.

Daniel Read and W. A. Hemenway have returned home from a business trip to Grants Pass, Ashland and Medford. They report great developments in that part of the state in the past few years and a prosperous season at hand. They were introducing Mr. Read's newly patented, detachable castor, which quickly converts any rocking chair into an invalid chair, and everywhere the new device attracted much attention and the assurance of a ready sale when taken up by local agents or salesmen. Just now Messrs. Read and Hemenway are considering a handsome offer for the purchase of all patent rights to their castor from a manufacturing concern, which offer may possibly be accepted.
