

Better Service

Better service means better glasses. Our glasses satisfy because they are made to satisfy. That is why the majority of Cottage Grove physicians recommend my service to you.

D. J. Scholl

OPTICIAN
Scholl's Jewelry Store

In the Social Realm.

On Thursday, March 27th, Mrs. S. E. Markley entertained a few friends at a six o'clock dinner in honor of her son Paul's twenty-first birthday, and also of Miss Ruby Keyes' eighteenth birthday. The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keyes, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Medley, Mr. and Mrs. John Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Allison, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lockwood, Otho Smith, H. M. Damewood, Misses Frances and Sadie Cox, Juda Trunnel, Clinton and Dorris Medley, John Trunnel, Jr., Huston Medley, Harvey Robison, and Mrs. Paul Markley and son, Marion Francis. Among the presents received was a handsome gold watch and fob to Miss Ruby Keyes from her grandfather, Mr. Sharp, and a deed to a house and lot in East Cottage Grove to Paul Markley from his mother.

A double birthday anniversary was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Compton last Friday evening, this pleasant social event being in honor of Mr. Compton and Mrs. J. S. Benson. At 6:30 in the evening a dainty dinner was served by Mrs. Compton, the guests at this birthday dinner being Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Benson and daughter, Mary. At 8 o'clock twenty-seven more guests arrived and the surprise was complete. A most enjoyable evening was spent and in the advertising guessing game, Mrs. G. M. Hall was awarded the prize. Ice cream, cake and coffee was served during which time Miss Neta Compton presided at the piano. At a late hour the guests departed wishing Mr. Compton and Mrs. Benson many happy returns of the day.

The mother of 14 children, but still as spry as some of the youngsters and able to do fancy work that took the prize at the county fair last year, Mrs. Johanna Hanson, of Eugene, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Medley, celebrated her 85th birthday anniversary March 20.

Grandma Sarah Todd celebrated her 103rd birthday anniversary at Eugene Saturday.

Stone to Fit the Purse

Is better than none at all. The spirit in which a monument is erected counts more than the cost.

A Moderate Cost

Stone will show as much respect and love for the departed one as a more expensive stone if you can afford only the smaller sum. We have various designs in low-priced memorials we shall be glad to submit to you.

W. E. Marsters
O. D. GLANDON, Salesman
Roseburg, Ore.

PERSONAL PICKUPS

Trade at home. Jas. Ostrander is in Portland. Make the home dollar circulate. Get new enterprises to locate here.

Pull for a bigger and better town. The trout fishing season opens today.

True intelligence is always modest.

Thinking of a spring suit? Read Powell & Co's ad.

Photos, the kind that always please. Monroe, at the bridge.

Mrs. J. B. Simeral is quite ill at her home in west Cottage Grove.

Patronize the Ladies' Aid home cooking sale at the Metsan Shop Saturday.

In times of peace a lot of otherwise sensible people prepare to get married.

O. E. Crowe, the Lorane merchant, is transacting business in this city today.

When women vote and the election doesn't go to suit him, a man can blame it on his wife.

Now is the time to select goods for your new silk waists, ladies. Read the Burkholder-Woods ad.

When you sit for a photo you want the best. That is what you get at Monroe's at the bridge.

The congregation at the M. E. church was favored with a beautiful solo Sunday morning by Mrs. Benham-Edwards, of Corvallis.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will conduct a home cooking sale at the Metsan Shop Saturday. A chance to get your Sunday pastries cheap.

Peter Loyd, aged 80 years, familiarly known as "Grandpa" Loyd, died at his home at Creswell Saturday of old age. He is survived by his widow and one son.

L. M. Tucker, who is Frank Woodruff's assistant plumber, received a fall while at work at Mrs. Walker's residence Monday and sustained a bruised face and a severely injured hip. He will soon be about again, however.

War declared on the blues and glooms by the Big Four Comedy company. Change of plays nightly with a cast of ladies and gentlemen who can sing and act. At the Arcade Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights.

J. M. Comer returned home from Newport, with his wife and daughter, Mrs. Drake, Thursday evening, the coast climate not proving beneficial to Mrs. Comer's health. They may give the high dry climate at Ashland a trial soon.

Miss Anna Anderson went to Eugene Friday evening to witness the Messiah, which was rendered at the new M. E. church that evening. She was accompanied by Mrs. Jane Emerson, who is visiting relatives at the county seat for a few days.

Misses Esther Silsby and Blanche Veatch and Mr. Lloyd Stratton went to Portland Sunday to hear the Chicago Grand Opera Company, two of its most famous stars being Madam Trazzini and Mary Garden. This great musical aggregation gives Portland three nights only, the closing concert being Wednesday night.

Friday was a good day for subscriptions in the Leader office, among the new names received on that day being, Mrs. L. M. Thompson, G. H. Young, Floyd Jones, J. B. Burns, Cottage Grove; F. B. Shortridge, Booth, Ore.; J. D. Cochran, Walla Walla, Wash.; O. D. Glandon, Roseburg. The Leader list is growing at a lively rate.

Row River was bank full Sunday and was a roaring torrent. The writer stood on the steel bridge at the Spray place and watched the soil on the east bank of the river crumble and tumble into the current, which is gradually cutting away land worth $200 per acre, when a few inexpensive dikes would protect it. We are informed by F. B. Phillips that the road and bank at that point will be fully protected this season, the property owners in that vicinity being promised county assistance, which they should receive.

Leave your dray and transfer orders with Goff, the shoe doctor, or 'phone 72.

James and George Myers, Ralph Allen and Cleo Doyle, loggers in the employ of Jack Doyle, a well known logging contractor, lost their lives by drowning in the Siuslaw river near Mound Sunday afternoon.

H. H. Veatch is transacting business in Salem.

All fools' day—beware. The practical joker stalks abroad today.

Attorney J. E. Young has filed a new notarial commission with the county clerk.

Spring is not far distant. In a trip to the country Sunday, we observed several "digger squirrels" and one turkey buzzard.

Now that this late chinook rain has taken most of the snow out of the mountains, we may expect some spring weather soon.

Axel Anderson, of Portland, is spending a couple of weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. N. Anderson, southwest of Cottage Grove.

Elmer Porter has just completed a modern $1,200 bungalow on his 20-acre tract, one-half mile east of the city limits on the Row River road.

Lon Archer is barbering in Hasting's shop and F. W. Krause is a new acquisition in Ostrander's shop. Both good fellows and there with the goods.

A Salem man placed an exchange ad in the Leader recently. He writes that he has already had five propositions to exchange ranch land here for his Salem property.

Four carloads of steel rails and plates are on the O. & S. E. siding here, ready to send to the front for the extension into the forest reserve as soon as the weather will permit.

There is much enthusiasm over the "made in Oregon" movement, and we hope the time will soon come when we will produce and manufacture everything we need and some to spare.

The bustling little city of Fullerton, California, with 3,000 inhabitants, is constructing 10 miles of asphalt streets and erecting a $200,000 high school building. What do you think of that?

A certain country sheet will publish no poetry except its own selections. Had the Albany Democrat been as egotistical and selfish, Sam Simpson's great poem, "Beautiful Willamette," would probably never have been given to the world.

C. W. Beals, the harness dealer, is in receipt of a copy of his home paper, published at Elkhorn, Wisconsin, which relates the particulars of the recent severe storm which swept over that country. Beals is congratulating himself upon taking Greeley's advice—"Young man, go west."

Foye Johnson and Curley Underwood are the principals in a 10-round boxing match billed to be pulled off here Saturday, April 5th, before the Cottage Grove Athletic Association. These same men gave a fast exhibition about six weeks ago, when, after having things all his own way, Johnson lost on a foul. Both boys tip the scales at 133.

Ves Wallace returned home from a business trip to Kitson Springs Saturday, where he received a contract for building the new Springs hotel. The building will be a two-story frame building and will contain ten rooms. Mr. Wallace also has the contract for building several cottages at the Springs as soon as the new hotel is completed. Work will begin as soon as the weather will permit.

A letter to the Leader from J. D. Cochran, of Walla Walla, states that they are having an unusually cold and backward spring up there, the temperature ranging as low as from 17 to 30 above zero. He says that crops look fine, including fruit, which will be later than usual. He says that that is a very productive country, and that money is plentiful. The Leader will keep him posted on the news at his former home.

Team For Sale—Weight about 2800, two mares and colt. For quick cash sale, only $225. Apply to the Leader office.

Bon Ton Confectionery

FOR Choice Confections
Ice Creams
And Sodas

Courteous Treatment, Prompt Service
G. H. SODERSTROM, Prop.

Things Doing at Disston.

The river at this point is the highest it has been this winter, owing to the snow which is melting in the high mountains in the Bohemia district.

Repair work on the J. I. Lumber Company's mill is progressing nicely, and the mill will undoubtedly be ready before logs are coming out of the Reserve.

E. B. Reeves, the planerman, went to Veatch Spur last Friday to complete the work of installing a planer for the O. L. & T. Co.

U. G. Roth, the representative of the Allen & Lewis Wholesale Grocers of Portland, was a business visitor here last week.

Henry Landess and Henry Johnson passed through here one day last week, enroute to the Champion mine where they are employed.

Fred Turpin and wife, of Cottage Grove, were last week arrivals, and have taken up their residence on Riverside Drive.

Among those who were over Sunday visitors in the Grove were Joe McKibben, Mike Kibelbeck, C. H. Brant and G. Fredricks.

Jesse Lewis and wife, Frank Jones, Harry Tennis, Vergil Pluard, C. A. Van Denburg, Margaret O'Mara, Veta Pitcher and Mrs. R. C. Woodhurst visited in Wildwood Sunday.

Alex Lundberg was an over Sunday visitor in Cottage Grove and Eugene.

Roller skates were taken from here to Wildwood one night last week and a skating carnival enjoyed at that place. Everybody got a skate on.

T. Tonale and family have moved from Wildwood and taken up their residence in west Disston.

Rev. H. Barnhart, of Dorena, was a business visitor here one day last week.

C. M. Lindsey and wife have been visiting for several days with relatives in Dorena.

Mrs. Maggie Gillispie and children, of Row River, were visiting relatives here last week.

Mrs. E. Mason was a business visitor to the Grove last week, returning home on Thursday.

Jesse Lewis and wife entertained some of their friends Saturday evening at their home on Riverside Drive.

The loggers are at work again at the Crites mill, after a short shut-down, caused by the delay in getting the track laid into the timber. The mill will begin operations soon.

W. H. Harrison, a veteran of the Civil War, while returning home from a visit down town last Friday night, fell from the high sidewalk at the west end of Main street and alighted on the timbers of the Silk Creek bridge below. He was severely bruised and was rescued from his perilous position and assisted to his home near by Dave Scholl and Chas. Levene. The west end of west Main street is a very dark spot and the wonder is more accidents have not occurred. Monday an arc light was placed two blocks from this bridge. Had Silk Creek been as high Friday night as it was on Saturday night, Mr. Harrison would probably have been drowned before he could have been rescued in the darkness. The county bridge at this point is badly in need of repairs or rebuilding.

School District Bond Election Notice.

Notice is hereby given that at a school meeting of School District No. 45 of Lane County, Oregon, to be held at the East Side School building in said district on the 26th day of April, 1913, there will be submitted to the legal voters of said district the question of contracting a bonded debt of Forty Thousand Dollars ($40,000), for the purpose of erecting, constructing and installing and equipping a school building on the site of the present high school building in Cottage Grove, Lane County, Oregon, the vote to be by ballot, upon which shall be the words "Bonds—Yes" and the words "Bonds—No." Polls to be opened at 1 o'clock, p. m., and remain open till 4 o'clock, p. m.

By order of the Board of Directors of School District No. 45 of Lane County, Oregon.

Dated this 31st day of March, 1913. J. K. BARRETT, Clerk.

Tillamook cows pay $106 a year as the result of scientific dairying.

NEW SILKS

Fancy Novelty and Brocaded Silks
24 inches wide, in Tan, Brown,
Stripes and Checks, at all prices
From 50 cents to $1.25
White Crepe DeChine at 60 cents.

McKibben Style All the While In Hats

BURKHOLDER-WOODS CO.

P. S.—Star Brand Shoes are Better

A Great Theatrical Hit.

Cottage Grove theater goers were unanimous in the declaration that not a better production than "The Servant in the House" has been witnessed in this city this season. The cast was a well balanced one, the costuming was very appropriate and the setting adequate. Carlton Spencer, as "Manson, The Servant in the House," interpreted this leading role in a most admirable manner and was ably sustained by the other members of the cast. Miss Hilda Brant, as Mary, was charming, and the various moods so gracefully assumed by her in the shifting scenes and situations, demonstrated her cleverness and ability fully. The Vicar, Alexander Martin, and his wife, Miss Janet Young, interpreted those difficult roles in a most clever and satisfactory manner, winning at once the approbation of the good sized audience.

The venerable Lord Bishop, as interpreted by Alfred Skei, was true to life, and the rather pompous and eccentric character in the role was all that could be desired. Prof. A. F. Reddie, as the outcast brother, was inimitable, and his characterization of this prominent role placed him easily in the professional class. Walter R. Dimm, as Rogers, the page boy, supplied some mirth, and was none the less clever in his characterization of the part. Altogether, it was a most entertaining, clever and satisfactory production, and reflected much credit upon the U. of O. class in dramatic interpretation.

For Sale Cheap.

One seven year old grey mare, weight 1200 pounds. Works single or double. Inquire at Fashion Stable's. Dr. H. H. Owen.

Grain and grass is growing regardless of the unusually cold March rains.

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon in and for Lane County.

Ida L. Jackson, plaintiff, vs. the unknown heirs at law of Daniel G. Lucas, deceased; also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein, defendants.

To the unknown heirs at law of Daniel G. Lucas, deceased, also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein, defendants.

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within seven weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons; and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof, the Plaintiff will take judgment against you as prayed in her complaint on file in said court, to-wit: That her title to the Southeast fourth of the Northwest quarter of Section Thirty-one in Township Nineteen South, Range Four West of Willamette Meridian be established and quieted; that the defendants and all persons and especially the unknown and all the heirs at law of Daniel G. Lucas, deceased, be adjudged and decreed to have no right, title or interest in or to said land or any part thereof; and that they be forever estopped and barred from making or asserting any claim in or to said lands or any part thereof.

This summons is served by publication thereof in the Cottage Grove Leader six weeks by order of the Hon. L. T. Harris, Judge of said Court, made and entered March 14th, 1913, and the first publication thereof was made March 18th, 1913.

A. E. WHEELER,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

GROCERIES FOR THE FAMILY

High Grade and Fresh Stock
at Live and Let Live Prices.

"Pure White" Hard Wheat
Flour, Bacon, Lard, Compound

Jansen & Walker

PHONE NO. 9